Heppner captures Umatilla track meet

Winning all but one running event, Heppner captured the Umatilla invitational track and field meet last Saturday. The Mustangs scored 164 points followed by Umatilla 126, Weston-McEwen 110, Condon 81, Riverside 1.

The Mustangs tallied 120 points in the running events compared to 44 in the field events.

Top performer for Heppner was Wade Padberg who brought home four blue ribbons. He was the only triple winner in the meet capturing the 220, 440 and 880. He also shared the mile relay team victory and scored 32 points.

Dave McLeod and Dewayne McClain were double winners for the Mustangs. McLeod won both hurdle events and scored 24 points. McClain won the mile and two-mile for 20 points.

Cardinals trounce Mustangs

Scoring 3 runs each in the first, second and fourth innings, the Ione Cardinals went on to defeat the Heppner Mustangs 13-5 in the Columbia Basin Conference last Friday.

Joe Rietmann tallied five hits. Charlie McElligott had two and Kim Gutierrez had one for two. Gutierrez was walked intentionally his other three times at the plate.

Rietmann and Gutierrez were the winning pitchers for the Cardinals while McClain and Gentry were the losing pitchers for the Mustangs.

Judge Jones unites couple

Sharon Cutsforth Gorman, daughter of Mr. O.W. Cutsforth, Heppner and Mrs. Gladys Helliker, Ione, became the bride of Monte Stookey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stookey, Baker, Oregon, on May 2. The ceremony was read by Judge Paul Jones at a small private wedding at the home of the bride.

Floral arrangements were orange and yellow carnations with yellow rosebuds and white daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Terry Valentine, Lexington. Mr. Valentine was the best man.

The couple are presently living in Heppner, where the groom is employed at Kinzua Corporation and the bride is employed by Morrow County.

50 Years Ago in Heppner

Jim Thomson, prominent merchant of Heppner, accompanied by his wife and family, were calling in Cecil on Sunday. Jim was driving a fine new Chrysler car which he had recently bought.

Lexington

A luncheon was enjoyed at the Alonzo Henderson home in Hood River on Friday.

Those attending were: Leila Palmer, Eula Bloodsworth, Catie Padberg, Florence McMillan, Hilda Yocom, Delpha Jones and Ruth Robinson.

Also present for the luncheon was Mrs. Laddie Henderson and two sons, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson.

The ladies were taken on a tour of Evergreen Terrace Trailer Court, owned and operated by Larry and Laddy Henderson. It consists of permanent rentals as well as overnighters, and is situated in a quiet and serene park of trees and mountain streams.

The ladies also visited a nursery where they saw many new species of terrarium plants and flowering trees and shrubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson were called to Goldendale by the death of their sister-in-law, a resident of that city. Services were scheduled for Thursday.

Jeff Cutsforth is recuperating from an eye injury and will be confined to his home for a few days.

Wilbur Steagall has returned to his home. He has been in St. Anthony's Hospital where he underwent hip surgery. Mrs. Steagall remained in that city during his stay in the hospital with a daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brandhagen.

Victor Klinger and Lance Klinger, his nephew, were visitors recently at the Pete Klinger home.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Irvin of Roseburg were recent callers with friends and relatives in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Davis of Pendleton were Sunday visitors in Heppner and Lexington.

Earl Miller is staying at the Cecil Jones home while he is employed near Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hill (Tana Rauch) have moved from Hines to the Ervin Rauch ranch where he will be employed. Mr. and Mrs. Rauch will move to their new home that will soon be completed near the original Klinger Ranch.

Elsie Fox is at the home of her daughter, Ruth McNiel in Pendleton following eye surgery at St. Anthony's Hospital.

Mrs. Venice Hendrickson was honored at a surprise birthday dinner on Saturday. Those present were Mrs. Elven Standley and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rinehart and family, Ukiah, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick and family, Hermiston and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom and family of Lexington.

The Lillian C. Turner Foundation Board of Directors met Sunday night at the Jack Van Winkle home.

Action was taken on applications that might be made and to discuss the addition to the bylaws.

Applications for loans are welcome and moneys are to be paid back 60 days after the person has finished their schooling or are not attending school any longer. A small rate of interest is charged.

The money is for furthering a students education, and loans and payments will be made at the discretion of the board of directors. Applications for next year will still be accepted.

Those attending were Chairman William J. VanWinkle and Mrs. VanWinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack VanWinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Rauch and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones.

The dance is free to all Wrangler members, however, the public is invited.

Pioneer resident dies at Portland

Funeral services were held yesterday, May 7, at the Ross Hollywood Chapel in Portland for Daisy Charlton. Burial was at Rose City Cemetery.

She is survived by three sons, Harold Becket, Heppner; Merle Becket, Cottage Grove, and John W. (Bill) Becket, Portland and their families.

Mrs. Charlton, for many years a resident of Heppner, died May 3 at the Edan Care Center, Troutdale, where she had lived her last four years. She would have been 87 on her next birthday.

Born at Creighton, Cass County, Mo., July 20, 1888, a daughter of S.B. McFerrin, a veteran of the Confederate Army and Barbara Barnhart McFerrin, she outlived her brother and several half-brothers and sisters.

She came to Morrow County as the bride of Ralph Becket of the Eightmile family of Becketts in 1906. After the death of her husband she worked several years as a housekeeper for Howard Anderson, an Eightmile wheat rancher. In 1922 she brought her family to Heppner to live.

In 1923 she married Frank Shively, a well-known Heppner blacksmith, who died in 1937. Ater World War II she married J.K. Charlton, LaGrande, a railroad engineer, and lived in Kamela and LaGrande until his death in 1970.

Mrs. Charlton was a member of the Christian Church, the Rebekah San Souci Lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star in Heppner.

Former resident dies at Vancouver

Funeral services were held Saturday, May 3, for Lawrence E. Reaney, 85, Vancouver, Wa.

Mr. Reaney was born October 24, 1889, and died April 30, 1975.

He was a farmer in the Lexington area, a charter member of the Lexington Grange, and a member of the First Christian Church of Lexington.

In Vancouver, he was a member of the Evergreen Saddle Club, and a former member of the Barberton Grange.

Services were held at Memorial Gardens Mortuary, with interment at Evergreen Memorial Gardens Cemetery, Vancouver.

Mr. Reaney is survived by his widow, Dorothy M., Vancouver; two sons, John Reaney, Hillsboro, and Robert Reaney, Eugene; three daughters; Joyce Woolf, Portland, Jean Hobson, Coquille, and Gladys Johnson, Salem; twenty grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Lutsford, Kelso, Wa.

Mr. Reaney was preceded in death by two sons, Maurice and Alva.

Court house notes

Judge Paul Jones says that although not all the changes have been computed and details adjusted, the county budget is within the 6 per cent limitation for another year. "I feel that the people will still receive satisfactory services. This is because of hard work by an exceptional budget committee and a fine revenue sharing committee."

Assessor Everett Harshman has received a few "nice" complaints about the recent reappraisals. A few taxpayers have been a bit unhappy about increased values.

Nurse Pat Wright in the health department said that some of the educational films purchased in part with Morrow County Christmas Seal funds have reached Pioneer Memorial Hospital. She has been showing the staff how to use these films which were obtained through the Eastern Oregon Region of the Lung Association through the office of the educational coordinator Jeff Butler, at Blue Mountain Community College.

Juvenile Director Carolyn Davis and some members of the Juvenile Advisory Committee visited the foster home at Meacham, May 5. They took along fixings for a taco feed with the youngsters there.

"WHO'S WHO IN MORROW COUNTY" CONTEST

Copyright 1975 by GEM Enterprises and Associates. All rights reserved.

Where to look for clues:

Clues may be hidden in any ad in this section of 30 merchants whose ads are printed below. When an additional ad from one of these sponsoring merchants appears elsewhere in the paper, they too may have clues hidden in them.

Clues will be scattered. There may be from one to five in any ad—or none. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you! We invite you to do your best to outwit us.

Contest rules:

1. This is a family fun contest. One entry per person (a family of four could submit four entries). Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered this week (this applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered). Employes of other sponsoring merchants are eligible.

2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. It is not necessary to be present to win. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gazette-Times to enter.

3. The Mystery Person may be anyone in Morrow County. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden only in ads for sponsoring merchants. If by coincidence the name of the Mystery Person (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.

4. To enter, write down the name you think to be the Mystery Person. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues, just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant whose ad is bordered with a dark border in the ads listed below in this issue.

5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 5 p.m. Friday of this week.

7. At that time (5 p.m., Friday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies the Mystery Person will win $20 in cash. If that entry also lists the correct number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a bonus of $7.50 will be paid. Whenever this bonus is not won, it will be added to the following week's bonus, which will continue to grow until it is won.

8. Every precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography cannot be guaranteed—by anybody. The publisher of the Gazette-Times will be the judge in all questions and his decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot. Your wife, husband or some bright-eyed youngster may spot a clue that you miss!

Think you can outwit the contest? You can't win if you don't enter.
