

ORVILLE CUTSFORTH

Cutsforth tells chamber of southern trip

Orville Cutsforth was guest speaker at the Chamber of Commerce Monday.

He presented slides of his recent trip to Ft. Polk, La., where he and his wife attended the wedding of their daughter, Lisa to Staff Sergeant Rick Watson.

Sergeant Watson has spent three years in Germany and recently enlisted for another five years. He plans to make the service his career. Lisa is also in the service, however, she will be discharged in the near future.

The Cutsforts took the newlyweds with them as they visited the Cahokia Mounds, Ill. The Cahokia Mounds are the sites of Indian burial grounds and until recently the mounds were farmed by the nearby farmers. Recently many artifacts were found and excavations of the burial sites was started. "1,500 arrowheads, all perfect in shape were found buried with one chief," said Cutsforth.

The mounds cover approximately 1,200 acres. At present there is a museum near the site where one can view the excavated artifacts as well as maps showing both the present and proposed excavations.

They returned to Ft. Polk, then continued on their journey to Texas. Cutsforth said, "There never was a Texan with big hat, big boots and a big mouth who could lie big enough to describe Texas."

Driving through the vastness of Texas, Cutsforth stopped and inquired about the price of some of the irrigated land in Lubbock, Texas. The irrigated land, he was told sells for $1,200 per acre and up; however, they produce two crops per year. Wheat is planted in October and harvested the following May and the yield is between 80-120 bushels per acre. After the wheat is harvested the fields are planted in maize and the average yield is 3-5 tons per acre.

The water used to irrigate the fields is very shallow and Cutsforth noticed there were no electric lines or tanks used to run the motors. He investigated and found the motors are run from an abundance of gas escaping from the water.

Driving on to Littlefield, Texas, the Cutsforts pulled their mobile home into a park and noticed a sign which informed them there was no charge for staying at the mobile park. The next morning they found four producing oil wells that pay all of the city taxes. "The city tried to drill a new water well and hit oil," said Cutsforth, so no one pays any taxes. In Littlefield there is also the highest windmill in the world. A windmill was placed atop a 400 foot tower that had been used by the U.S. Air Force.

The Cutsforts then visited New Mexico, went on to Arizona where they visited the Grand Canyon, proceeded on to Nevada stopped in Lakeview before returning home.

In other business to come before the Chamber, Superintendent of Schools Matt Doherty announced the graduation schedule for the three high schools. Lone High School will hold their commencement exercises tonight, at 8 p.m. Heppner High School will hold their graduation Friday night at 7:30 p.m., and students at Riverside will hold their graduation at 8 p.m., Saturday night.

In observance of Memorial Day, the chamber will not meet next Monday. On June 2, the guests will be the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Queen and her court.

Grain grading school planned

One-day schools in grain sampling and grading will be conducted by the Oregon Department of Agriculture early in June in four grain producing regions of the state.

Al Plummer, administrator of the department's Grain Division, said the school was requested by the various sectors of the grain industry. The curriculum will be patterned after a northwest regional school, partially sponsored by the department in April. He said the schools will be conducted in cooperation with the Grain Division of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Oregon State University Extension Service. Instruction, designed to help grain producers and grain elevator operators, will be conducted in four categories beginning with a general introduction and followed by "U.S.D.A. Role in Supervision—U.S.D.A. Grain Sampling", "Sampling and Grading Techniques", and "Application of Standards for Grading Wheat and Barley".

The schedule for this area is June 4, 9 a.m., Willows Grange Hall, Ione.

The Moral Squad will hold a session soon and take up the matter of getting a new sidewalk built leading to the school. It seems as if the old wooden walk is in bad condition.

"The Finish-It-Yourself House gave us twice the house for the money."

Mike Lockune, Nampa, Idaho

"It's fantastic... and the quality's better than anything else around here. We'd never done anything like this before, but we figured the more of the finishing work we did, the more money we'd save. Sure, we had some problems, but our Capp Representative came right over and worked it out. Now I've got a home worth ten thousand dollars more than we paid for it. And the reward of doing it myself."

"WHO'S WHO IN MORROW COUNTY" CONTEST

Copyright 1975 by GEM Enterprises and Associates. All rights reserved.

Where to look for clues:

Clues may be hidden in any ad in this section of 30 merchants whose ads are printed below. When an additional ad from one of these sponsoring merchants appears elsewhere in the paper, they too may have clues hidden in them.

Clues will be scattered. There may be from one to five in any ad—or none. This is a contest of skill, and we intend to do our best to outwit you! We invite you to do your best to outwit us.

Contest rules:

1. This is a family fun contest. One entry per person (a family of four could submit four entries). Anyone may enter unless a member of your family is employed by the merchant whose ad is heavily bordered this week (this applies ONLY during the week this ad is bordered). Employees of other sponsoring merchants are eligible.
2. Nothing to buy. Use any slip of paper for entry blank. It is not necessary to be present to win. It is not necessary to be a subscriber to the Gazette-Times to enter.
3. The Mystery Person may be anyone in Morrow County. Clues for his or her identity will be hidden only in ads for sponsoring merchants. If by coincidence the name of the Mystery Person (or other facts about him or her) happens to appear in news items, editorial matter or other places in this newspaper, these will not count as clues in this contest.
4. To enter, write down the name you think to be the Mystery Person. Add the total number of clues you can find in ALL the ads of sponsoring merchants in this issue. You do not have to list all these clues, just give the total number of them. Don't forget to add your name and address. Then drop your entry in the box located at the sponsoring merchant whose ad is bordered with a dark border in the ads listed below in this issue.

5. There is no other place where entries will be accepted. Any member of the family may bring in all the entries for that family. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

6. This week's contest starts when you receive this issue and closes at 5 p.m. Friday of this week.

7. At that time (5 p.m., Friday) a drawing will be held at the store where entries have been received for this week's contest. The first entry drawn that correctly identifies the Mystery Person will win $20 in cash. If that entry also lists the correct number of clues hidden in all ads of sponsoring merchants, a bonus of $7.50 will be paid. Whenever this bonus is not won, it will be added to the following week's bonus, which will continue to grow until it is won.

8. Every precaution will be taken to prevent typographical errors that might be mistaken for clues, but errorless typography cannot be guaranteed—by anybody. The publisher of the Gazette-Times will be the judge in all questions and his decision is final.

Family participation gives you a better chance to win the jackpot. Your wife, husband or some bright-eyed youngster may spot a clue that you miss!

Think you can outwit the contest? You can't win if you don't enter.
