4-H leaders honored at barbecue

Morrow County 4-H leaders were honored at a steak barbecue last Thursday evening at the fairgrounds. The barbecue was sponsored by Columbia Basin Electric Co-operative.

In prior years this annual event has been a banquet but this year it was decided to try something different. The steaks were cooked by Dave Harrison, Manager of Columbia Basin and Mike Howell, extension agent.

Leader pins were presented by Ken Belcher, Manager of First National Bank of Oregon, Heppner branch. This is an annual event sponsored by the bank as they purchase the awards.

Two visitors from Swaziland and Botswana, Africa attended the barbecue. They are equivalent to our extension agents and are visiting different areas of Oregon to study the 4-H program.

They are Miss Eunice J. Magagula and Mr. Fanyana Jackson Morapedi. They will spend several days in Heppner before going to Burns.

ANNOUNCE WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard J. Struthers, Heppner, announce the wedding of their daughter, Dena Renae, to Lyle G. Wiese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle H. Wiese of Grants Pass.

The ceremony will be held at 7 p.m. on June 7, at the Heppner Assembly of God Church. There will be a reception following.

All friends and family are welcome.

Columbia Basin awards contracts

In recent weeks several contracts and agreements have been executed concerning the lone-Olex 69 KV Transmission Line and Substation.

One agreement calls for loading and hauling a 59,000 lb. transformer from Sand Hollow to the substation site just North of Olex. The low of proposals ranged from a $1,350 to a high of $6,600.

A contract was awarded on the "Olex substation concrete footings" to Hermiston Construction for $1,948.00. Proposal ranged to a high of $4,835.00.

A fence is being installed at the Olex substation site by the Portland Fence Co. for $2,907 and of eight recent proposals the high was $3,580. Last fall proposals were received and rejected because of high costs received. They ranged $5,000 or more at that time.

Bert Corbin Construction, Heppner, has recently been awarded a contract on a section of rock hole digging at $2,500.

Rodeo Court guest at chamber meeting

Guests at the Heppner Chamber of Commerce Monday were the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Court. "It was one of the highlights of the year, when the Queen and her court pay us a visit, said Harold Kerr, President of the Chamber.

Queen Mickey Hoskins introduced her court saying, "It is quite a highlight for the Fair and Rodeo Court to visit the Chamber of Commerce."

Queen Mickey introduced Princess Barbara Palmer, lone, who said, "We first attended the Arlington Rodeo, and it was a great experience for us, as it was our first grand entry." "The Morrow County Fair starts Tuesday, Aug. 19, followed by the style revue, Wednesday. The livestock auction will be held Thursday night," said Princess Barbara giving a brief account of the coming Morrow County Fair.

Princess Donna Rea, lone, gave a recout of the Pea Festival at Milton-Freewater. "It was a very nice parade with lots of floats; following the parade we were the guests at the Queen's Luncheon," said Princess Barbara.

She also invited everyone to attend the parade in Heppner, Saturday, Aug. 23.

Princess June McLean, Heppner, told chamber members of the court's appearance at the Spray Rodeo. The Morrow County Court won first place in the parade. "We did a good grand entry and following lunch we all watched the rodeo," said Princess June. She invited all present to attend the Morrow County Rodeo as there will be lots of good things going on. The Morrow County Rodeo will be held Aug. 23-24.

Princess Mary Ann Proctor, Irrigon, told of the court's recent participation in the Umatilla Sage Riders event last weekend.

She invited members to attend the 4-H horse show, Aug. 20, and also the Morrow County Open Horse Show on Aug. 22.

Queen Mickey Hoskins said to the Chamber, "We are going to have to get started right now as I don't think we have a free weekend from now until the Morrow County Rodeo." This weekend there is the Junior Rodeo; on June 14, we will be going to Pendleton; June 21 is the Queen's Coronation followed by a dance and July 4, we will be riding in the parade at Condon. July 11-13 we will participate in the rodeo at Prineville and July 20 we are going to Elgin. Elgin is the only rodeo that still has the suicide races. Aug. 9 is the Umatilla County Fair, and Aug. 22-23 is the Morrow County Rodeo. In September we will be participating in the Harvest Festival. Boardman and later in September the Dress-Up Parade, Pendleton.

Queen Mickey attends Blue Mountain Community College and was recently chosen vice president of the student body for the fall semester.

Also introduced at the Chamber of Commerce were Jackson Morapedi, Botswana and Eunice Magagula, Swaziland, Africa. Morapedi and Magagula are both county extension agents in their respective countries in Africa and are the only two visiting in Oregon. They will be attending summer school in Oregon prior to returning to Africa this August.

Jackson is an extension agent who deals with both adults and children. In his
