Summer camp registrations due

The 4-H summer camp for members 9—13 will be held this year from June 29 to July 2, with registrations to attend due immediately! Plans are well underway for the camp which is held annually at Cutsforth Park. A number of survival classes will be taught during the camp, and the usual recreational and craft classes will be included.

The 4-H camp program is planned to give younger members an opportunity to learn about conservation and nature, have a chance to learn responsibility in an outdoor environment, meet new friends, and learn to get along with others. Campers live in tents with each "tent family" of boys or girls consisting of five younger members and an older counselor.

Hikes, organized recreation, and time for free choice activities are included in each days' program.

Mike Howell and Birdine Tullis, Extension Service, serve as camp directors with the assistance of leaders and counselors. Any leader or interested parent who has a special interest, hobby, or craft they would be willing to teach members at the camp may volunteer to assist by calling the Extension Office, 676-9642.

CLINTON McQUARRIE

Employees purchase Central Market

Clint McQuarrie, former owner of Central Market, plans to relax, golf and travel, now that he has sold the market to two of his former employees, Forest Burkenbine and Ernie McCabe.

McQuarrie was born in Missoula, Mont., June 13, 1912. He married Marie Lehner, August, 1937, and they have two children, Susan Ruhl and a son Dan, presently employed by Pacific Northwest Bell.

McQuarrie started working at Kinzua in 1933, for the sum of .20 per hour. He worked there until 1937 when he and Marie were married. After the wedding they left for New York where Clint worked for a year. He returned to work at Kinzua and purchased a bread route.

In 1944 he served with the U.S. Army in Europe. While in the service, his father in law Milton Lehner, operated the bread route until McQuarrie returned home. Upon his return McQuarrie operated the bread route until 1955 when he purchased one-half interest in Central Market from Sara McNamer and Ed Bennett.

After the retirement of Ed Bennett, McQuarrie purchased the remaining stock and moved the store to its present location.

Forest Burkenbine has been employed by McQuarrie ever since the move and McCabe went to work as the meat cutter a few years lafer.

When asked what he plans to do now that he is retired, McQuarrie answered, "I plan to travel and just enjoy life."

He has a sister who lives in Sun City, Arizona, and a brother who resides in San Diego, CA, and another brother and sister living in Tacoma, WA, whom he plans to visit.

WILLOW CREEK COUNTRY CLUB PLANS BARBEQUE

The Willow Creek Country Club plans a barbeque for Saturday June 14 at 6:30 p.m. Nine holes of golf will be played by the members starting at 5 p.m., prior to the barbeque.

Each family is asked to bring their own meat. Families whose surnames begin with 'A' through 'I' are asked to bring a dessert, and families whose surnames start with 'J' through 'Z' are asked to bring a salad.

Hostesses for the event are John and Pat Edmundson, Bob and Suzanne Jepsen and John and Linda Breidenback.
