Homemakers work for library

The girls of the Future Homemakers of America chapter at Heppner High School contributed many hours of labor in a community project this spring. They made covers for 38 pillows for the public library children's room. The pillows got their first use this week at the Monday story hour.

The girls and their advisor, Linda Panter, were thinking about a service project at the same time the AAUW was developing plans for the decorating of the children's room. The University Women contributed the funds to buy the materials needed for the pillow project.

Old pillows that had been collected were restyled and recovered with bright cotton in a patchwork design. Most of the covers have zippers so they can be easily removed to be washed. The colors used were coordinated with the paint used in the room.

COLUMBIA BASIN IN RESEARCH PROGRAM

The Board of Directors of Columbia Basin Electric Coop took actions at their board meeting on May 22 to participate in the General Atomic Gas-Cooled Fast Breeder Reactor Program.

The Cooperative will lend financial support for a two year period for research and design studies.

The Breeder research program has been concerned with apparently low cost fuel potential.

William D. Neill passes

William D. Neill, 97, longtime Hermiston, Oregon resident, died at St. Francis Nursing Home in Salem where he had been a patient since 1968. Funeral services will be held in Hermiston, June 26 at the First Christian Church at 2 p.m. Burial will be at the Echo Cemetery.

Born in Hartville, Mo., May 10, 1878, Mr. Neill was married for 64 years to Rosa A. Robertson Neill, who preceded him in death in 1967.

Mr. Neill is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Floyd G. Mathers, Portland, and three sons, Hugh W. Neill, Spokane, Wa.; Harold H. Neill, Junction City; and Ralph C. Neill, Woodburn.

He is also survived by 13 grandchildren, 30 great grandchildren and 5 great, great grandchildren. A daughter, Beulah (Mrs. C.W. Plourd) of Hermiston, died in 1966. A son, Clarence W. Neill, Vista, Ca., died in 1969.

Mr. Neill farmed in the Heppner-Lexington-Ione area in the late 1800s and early 1900s before returning to Missouri. He farmed in the State of Idaho from 1913 until 1924, when he moved with his family to Oregon and engaged in ranching on Butter Creek almost continuously for the next 38 years.

For 10 years he farmed the old Boylen Ranch at Pine City, then the old Carlson place, a few miles north, for four years before moving briefly to Stanfield. In 1940 he returned to Butter Creek, purchasing the Richardson farm, which he operated until selling in 1962. From 1945 until 1968 he lived in Hermiston on East Highland Avenue.

A life-long member of the Christian Church, Mr. Neill was a charter member of the Hermiston First Christian Church where he served for many years as an elder. He was honored to have turned the first shovel of dirt at the ground-breaking when the current church building was started, and participated in mortgage-burning ceremonies there in December, 1973.

For those who wish contributions may be made to the W.D. and Rosie Neill Memorial Fund, Hermiston First Christian Church.
