Willow Creek Club has barbecue

Members of the Willow Creek Country Club enjoyed a family barbecue last Saturday, June 14. Prior to the barbecue, members played nine holes of golf, although some of the basics were slightly changed.

The women drew partners at 5 p.m. to form foursomes. Both men and women teed off on each hole, then selected the best ball and played that ball to the completion of the hole, alternating shots between the foursome after the tee off.

Other changes in the nine holes of golf included: No. 1, partners select one club for their team to use from tee off to hole out; No. 2, tee off, sitting on a chair; No. 3, pass through giant croquet wicket before holing out; No. 4, pass through stove pipe before holing out; No. 5, tee off while standing on a tractor tire; No. 6, tee off blindfolded from the mat; No. 7, approach from left of first willow tree; No. 8, tee off with a putter; No. 9, putt with a driver.

Low team scores were won by Vicki and John Edmundson and Bill Jepsen and Kristi Haguewood. High team scores were won by Monica Jones and Nelson Connors. Long drive, Hole No. 6, Gary Hunt and Vicki Edmundson; long putt, hole No. 9, Monica Jones.

Dale Holland made a hole in one, Sunday, June 15, on the second hole, during the men's Sunday play.

This Sunday, June 22, members of the club are invited to play at Condon. Coffee and donuts will be served at 8:30 with tee off time scheduled for 9 a.m.

Over The Tee Cup

By R & L

Sunday, June 29 the Willow Creek Country Club will host the men and women golfers from Echo.

Tee off time for the men will be 9 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. for the women. Coffee and donuts will be available before tee time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jepsen and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harrison will be in charge of arrangements for the day.

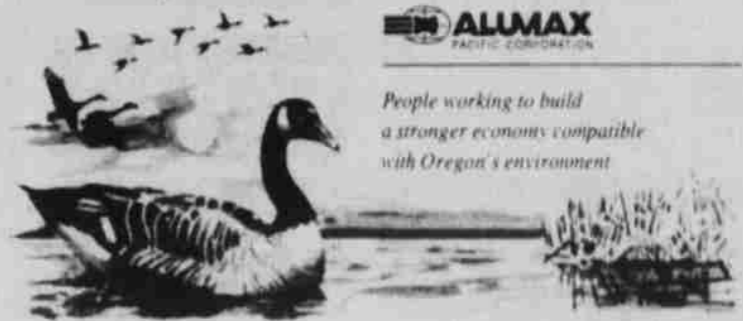

Club members will not need to bring food. A noon luncheon will be catered at the clubhouse by Jim Rogers.
