Port of Morrow retains firm

The firm of Kidder, Peabody and Company, Inc., will be retained by the Port of Morrow as bonding underwriters if bonding is requested. In its regular meeting the commission last Thursday made the agreement pending an official request from PGE. PGE has indicated they may ask the port for this assistance in financing its $322 million coal-fired generating plant. This would be the first power plant financed by a port. Should this bonding request be made and bonds sold, the Port of Morrow would have the greatest bond debt of any port in Oregon. Morrow County taxpayers would not assume a larger tax load since the utility guarantees payment of the bonds. Interest payed on the bonds are taxable within the port district.

Chinese award Sen. Jernstedt

State Sen. Ken Jernstedt, Hood River, was awarded the "Chinese War Memorial Medal" during ceremonies in Los Angeles recently. The medal was presented at the Flying Tigers Reunion by the Chinese Ambassador to the United States. It was in recognition of services performed by the Flying Tigers in 1941 and 1942.

This is the third medal Jernstedt has received from the Chinese for serving in the Flying Tigers. The Flying Tigers received national recognition in 1941 as a group of American volunteers sent to China to fly special bombing raids against the Japanese. Jernstedt said this is the first time he has received an award for something he did thirty-three years earlier. Records were lost or destroyed during the war and the years which followed resulted in the long delay.

The Flying Tigers Reunion was held in Los Angeles with Neil Armstrong, the first man to walk on the moon, as their honored guest. Armstrong received the Flying Tiger Award which is presented to the person who has made an outstanding contribution to aviation.

Among those from Heppner attending the Monument reunion Saturday were Mrs. Carl McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson and family, Mrs. Lydia Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sweek and family, Mrs. Stella McCarty and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling.
