

A summer in Japan for 3 area girls

MR. AND MRS. EDDIE GUNDERSON

celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Saturday. A reception in their honor was given by their sons, David and Doug, at the Elks Lodge. The Gundersons left Monday for a week's vacation in Hawaii. Both are graduates of Heppner High School and were married in Heppner, July 21, 1950. He is employed by Kinzua Corporation. Bev is a bookkeeper at Murray Drugs.

Three Morrow County teenage girls are packing, studying Japanese language and bracing themselves for five weeks of Japanese diet. They leave Seattle July 25 for a five-week visit with host families in Japan under the 4-H and LABO programs that encourage an exchange of youth with other countries. Making the trip are: Alice Abrams, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abrams, Heppner. She is a junior high school student. Her host family lives in Nagasaki. —Cathy Palmer, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Palmer, Eightmile. She attends Heppner High School. Her host family lives in Marugame. —Janette Piper, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Piper, Lexington. She is a junior high school student. She will be living with a family in Kofu. The girls leave Seattle by Northwest Orient Air Lines with about 175 other 4-Hers from Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah. They will spend the first two days of their visit in Tokyo taking orientation instruction, which includes 9 hours with the language. They have already been issued special dictionaries for the trip. The girls applied for the trip last October. They will be limited to 66 pounds of luggage (preferably 44 pounds), will take $30 in currency to be exchanged upon landing. Their other funds will be carried in travelers' checks. Because prices are so high in Japan it is not anticipated that the girls will do much shopping. Chaperones for the trip include Kathryn Ash of Coquille, John and Lynne Breesee (he is a biology teacher and Mrs. Breesee works with the American Field Service) and Kim Yada, a 1975 graduate of Oregon State University. The girls are scheduled to return home from Japan on Aug. 28.

MR. & MRS. JOHN BRAMS

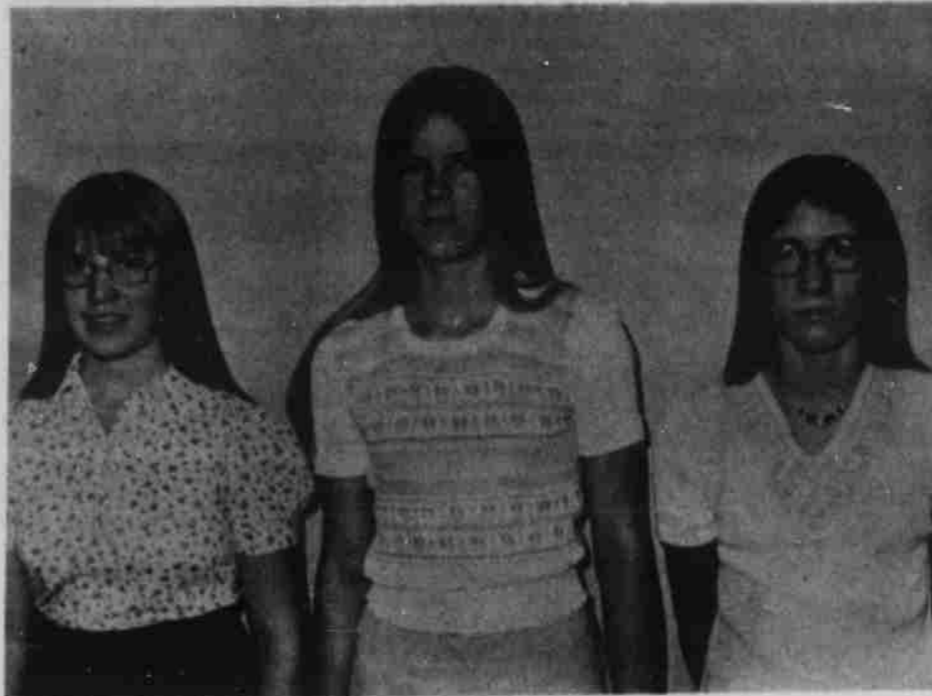

Marianne Chaney is wed in Beaverton

Marianne Chaney, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Huber, Heppner, was recently married to John Brams, Detroit, in the Chapel of Cedar Hills Community Church, Beaverton, Or. The bride was attended by her sister, Lucille Huber, and the groom by his brother, Jim Brams, Detroit, in an informal ceremony witnessed by family and close friends. A dinner at the Columbia Edgewater Country Club followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Brams have returned from a trip to the Eastern United States and Europe and are now at home at 13160 S.W. Glenn Ct., Beaverton. Both Marianne and John are accountants, employed by the Arthur Young accounting firm in Portland.

Saturday Market scheduled

Ione will be the scene of the next Associated University Women's Saturday Market. The market is scheduled for the Ione City Park on Saturday, Aug. 2, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Anyone having crafts, baked goods, jams and jellies, garden produce, etc., are encouraged to sell their items. Garden produce should be in ample supply by this time and any gardener who has an oversupply is asked to bring the surplus to the Saturday Market and make some profit from his garden, says Liz Curtis. AAUW members will again have a bake sale. Anyone wishing further information is asked to call Karen Beck in Ione at 422-7326.

Cathy Palmer, Alice Abrams and Janette Piper will visit Japan.

'Decorate Your Duds' program Saturday

A program of interest to girls planning to participate in the 4-H Style Show at the Morrow County Fair is planned for Saturday, July 26, 1:30 p.m., at the elementary school in Heppner. Girls will be given instruction and assistance on modeling by Cheri Carlson assisted by Kay Bergstrom. Both Cheri and Kay are former 4-H members who excelled in style reviews, and both are home economics majors at Oregon State University. A bonus feature of the training session will be a special session by Cheri Smith of Pendleton Sew and Sew. She will present a program on creative ways to "Decorate Your Duds." The special program will include ideas on embroidery, trims, recycling, denims, paint on fabric, applique and all other ways to adding personal touches to clothing and home furnishing, as well as a look ahead at fashion and fabrics for fall.

All interested are invited to come at 2:30 p.m. to attend the "Decorate Your Duds" program. Included also in the program will be information concerning fair events, plans for the 4-H Style Show, and related information by Francine Evans, chairman, 4-H Style Review Committee. All 4-H girls, their mother and leaders are invited to attend the special pre-fair training event.

Church services in park

Members of the United Methodist Churches of Echo and Heppner meet together at Cutsforth Park last Sunday. The Rev. Edwin Cutting conducted morning worship at 11 o'clock and the group shared a picnic dinner afterward. Mardel James, Heppner, reported on her experiences during a week at the Methodist Camp on Willowa Lake. She told of the program that aided young campers in their understanding of "conflict and cooperation." She described a frightening experience they had in the flood which brought tons of water and many rocks across a road they were using. Rev. and Mrs. Cutting were part of the camp staff.

Godins are moving to Michigan

Rev. Forest Godin, his wife, Carol, their three daughters and son are leaving Heppner this week for Roseville, Mi. Rev. Godin has been pastor of The Church of the Nazarene here for three years. Carol has worked with the "Good News Club" for young children for two and one-half years. They will drive East, Forest in a loaded U-Haul van and Carol in the family car. At Roseville, a suburb of Detroit, Forest will serve as associate pastor of The Church of the Nazarene. Mrs. Godin says, "We are sorry to leave some good friends here, but we are responding to a call." She says she does not think the church in Heppner has decided yet on a new pastor.

Mahon reunion at Cutsforth

A family reunion was held Sunday, July 13, at Cutsforth Park honoring Mrs. Joe Mahon. Present were Mrs. Mahon's five children: Mrs. Celia Mattison, Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Rod Blogett, Philomath; Mr. and Mrs. Gib Olp, Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mahon, Joseph; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helgett, Lebanon. Also present were 14 grandchildren, 35 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren.

this summer. Next fall she will be missed at Ione High School. Barbara was captain of the volleyball team and played center on the girl's basketball team. During her high school years she was secretary-treasurer of the National Honor Society, the Girl's Athletic Assn. and the junior class. She enjoys music as much as sports activities. Barbara was a member of the "swing choir," a select group of 10 singers who sing music especially written for "swing choirs." She was also a member of the chorus. Outside of school hours and ranch work, Barbara found time to participate in 4-H projects. She had projects in skiing, leatherscraft, clothing and horsemanship. She has been the junior leader for the horse club in Ione. Saturday night is Barbara's night. She invites everyone to come out to the fairgrounds and dance to the music of Jade.

Jana Daley to wed Kevin Dick

Miss Jana Daley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daley, Pendleton, will be married to Kevin Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Dick, Heppner, on Aug. 2. The wedding will take place at the Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton, at 7 p.m. The reception will be at the "Let'er Buck Room" at the Pendleton Round-Up grounds. Friends and relatives are invited to attend.

LIBRARY BOARD MEETS THURSDAY

The regular July meeting of the public library board is set for tonight at 8 o'clock at the library. This fourth-Thursday-of-each-month meeting is open to the public. Randall Peterson is board chairman; Pauline Winter, secretary-treasurer; Rita Wolf, Bob Jones, Ed Struthers and Myrna Johnson, members; and Justine Weatherford, librarian.
