Billing for small classified ads is expensive. Effective Nov. 1, therefore, classified ads will be on a cash in advance basis, unless customer has a regular commercial account with the Gazette-Times. If so, classifieds will be billed monthly. The alternative is to raise the rates to cover rising costs. Rates remain $1 for the first three lines of ad copy; 50¢ per line for each line thereafter. Display classified advertising, $1.35 per column inch. Cards of Thanks, classified rate, min. $1.50. Deadline, Tuesday noon. Not responsible for errors not reported within 7 days.

Cards of Thanks

I wish to say a big thank you to all the nurses and aides of Pioneer Memorial Hospital for their loving care and kindnesses to me during my recent stay. Everything was lovely and meals outstanding. To friends for cheerful cards and flowers, also to Dr. Tibbles, my deep appreciation for splendid care and kindness. Everyone should be very proud of our fine hospital and staff.

RUTH McMURDO

Many many thanks to the ladies who made rolls for the Centennial Wagon Train celebration.

MARY BENGE

We wish to express our thanks to the following for making the Cecil celebration one of the finest in Oregon: Dick and Henry Krebs, Jim Rogers, O.W. Cutsforth and family, Columbia Basin Electric, Larry Lindsay, Sam Crawford, W.W. Weatherford, the CowBelles, local merchants and bicentennial members who participated in the historic event.

TERRY HUGHES,
Co-chairman, Bicentennial Committee

The flowers were beautiful, the food appreciated and the phone calls needed. This is a precious community when tragedy strikes.

VIRGINIA ROSEWALL
and her families.

Owen Leathers: he loved mountains

Owen H. Leathers, 79, for whom funeral services were held Friday in Heppner, was known as a humorist, stockman, historian and most of all, as a man who loved the mountains.

He knew every foot of the Blue Mountains, his friends say, and never overlooked an opportunity to hunt, fish, run sheep in those mountains—or just break trails. On his way to Walla Walla with what he knew was a terminal illness, he asked that he be driven through the mountains so he could take a last look at them.

Guilty plea in bank robbery

Paul William Ashurst, 19, Ione, entered a plea of guilty last Monday before Judge James M. Burns in Portland.

Ashurst is charged with armed robbery of the First National Bank of Oregon, Sherman County branch, Moro, June 16, at which time approximately $21,800 was taken by a man armed with a pistol who escaped into the empty country around the small Central Oregon town.

He was arrested by FBI agents in Burbank, CA., June 26.

Following his plea a presentence investigation was ordered and sentencing will probably take place in mid-

August. He is in custody at the Rocky Butte jail.

In other court action: —Steve Lattrell, 20, Irrigon, was found guilty of sexual abuse in the second degree by a jury sitting in Heppner. Circuit Judge Henry Kaye sentenced Lattrell to one year in the county jail.

Lattrell was charged with rape in the third degree of a 14-year-old girl in April.

—Larry Prock, Ione, was arrested last week and jailed in Umatilla County for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Bail is set at $355.

IONE NEWS

Eva Hamlett

Mrs. Bonnie Ball and children are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, while her husband, Bob, is on sea duty with the Navy.

Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson were Mrs. Pearl Bye and grandchildren, Steven and Karla Bye of Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Adon Hamlett spent Wednesday and Thursday in Vancouver, Wa., at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Arends.

Scott Balfe of Anchorage, Alaska, spent the weekend with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree. Sunday they were joined by Ashley and Kevin McCabe, and drove to Walla Walla where they met Mrs. Caroline McCabe and son Jim. Jim returned to Ione with them and will help his father, Alvin McCabe, with harvest.

Most of the farmers on the north side of Ione have started harvesting, and from reports the grain is averaging better than expected.

Remember the Morrow County Picnic at Laurelhurst Park in Portland, Aug. 3, at noon. Come and bring your friends.

Mrs. Norman Nelson and daughter Kristen visited in Salem last week. Mrs. Nelson stayed with her sister, Mrs. Bruce Rankin and Dr. Rankin. Kristen visited Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dement.

Mrs. Lee Lovoe and son of Pendleton are spending a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson.

Garden Club members of the Blue Mountain District No. 10 spent July 14 touring the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Gless Zink on Mt. Hebron Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jakabosky on Riverside Ave., and ended up at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bade near Umapine for a tour of their garden and a salad luncheon.

All three yards are distinctive. The Zink lawn, newly planted forms a sweeping carpet of green framed by carefully landscaped shrubs and flowers. Although they live "on a rock pile" as they say, the Zinks have a beautiful yard and attribute their success to the use of compost which they faithfully gather.

The carefully manicured Jakabosky yard is a preview to the extensive vegetable garden they raise. This is fertilized by rich pigeon manure from the racing pigeons they propagate.

The William Bade residence is "just like a park." The huge trees (some planted in the early 1900s) and lush shrubbery form the backdrop for splashes of flower-color.

Mrs. Harvey Harrison acted as tour guide for this annual tour sponsored by the Pendleton Dirt Dabblers. About 51 garden enthusiasts viewed the gardens. Those from Ione Garden Club who attended included Edith Nicholson, Loree Hubbard, Wilma Martin, Pat Pettyjohn and guests Nancy Miller and children, Lori Childers and Sylvia Ladd.

Guests at the Norman Nelson home this past week were Jean's cousin, Jim Whipple and children, Allison and Emily, and Peggy Johnson of Minneapolis, Minn. Jim helped in the 1954 harvest and had to come back to see it again. Also visiting was Steve Price, a friend of Kristin Nelson from Eugene. Steve acted as counselor at 4-H summer school this year at the same time Kristin counseled.
