It seems that last Tuesday a young fellow strayed onto the golf course at the beginning of ladies play and was asked to join the group. It turned out to be John Edmundson and he played well enough to tie with Edie Skow for low gross.

There was also another tie between Lois Hunt and Cindy Kerr for least puts. Cindy Kerr was a two time winner, winning long drive.

There was some good golf played during the Sunday morning men's play with C.C. Carmichael taking two of the honors. He had a 65 for low gross and also the KP on No. 9. Harry McCaully powered out the long drive on No. 6 and a 55 for Ed Struthers took low net honors. Gary Hunt had the least puts with 26 and played a sizzling 29 on the back nine.

This Sunday the Willow Creek golfers will visit at the McNary course. Both men and women's play is scheduled with tee time at 9 a.m.

Tuesday of this week saw the conclusion of organized women's play for this season. Only five ladies participated for a new event that played like poker.

Linda Padberg won a ball with a full house and Linda Bridenbach won a ball with the wild card.

Some consideration is being given to have club championship play for the women. If this goes there will be more details in this column at a later date.
