

MR. AND MRS. MARVIN LANE

Van Marter Weds Lane

Blue and white was the color carried out in the wedding September 6, of Casandra Marie Van Marter and Marvin Leroy Lane.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter Jr. The grooms parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Lane, Condon.

The Rev. Dirk Rinehart officiated at the ceremony at the All Saints Episcopal Church.

The bride escorted by her brother, Paul Van Marter and given in marriage by her father chose a chapel length gown of peau de soie with Victorian styling and inset pearls. Chantilly lace edged the three tiered trailing veil. The bride carried a white orchid on a white Bible with cascading stephanotis and blue delphinium.

"Color My World", was the nuptial music sung and played by Jim Ackley.

Miss Kelly Kilkenny was the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Patti Kandle, sister of the groom, Ione, Cathy Edlund, Eugene, Kim McQuain, Condon and Tricia Prock.

Attendants wore high necked gowns of blue and white gingham and plain blue panels, with matching blue and white gingham bonnets. They carried baskets of blue and white flowers.

Andrea Ball was the flower girl and carrying the rings was Duane Ball, cousins of the bride. Jack Carnine, Condon, was the best man.

Ushering were Linn Mercer, Dan Boyer, Jay LaRue, Condon; LaVerne Van Marter III, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length dress of sky blue. The mother of the groom wore a blue floor length gown.

The reception was held at the parish hall with Diane Ball and Beth Flack, aunts of the bride, cutting and serving the three tiered cake. Nancy Ekstrom, Hazel Mahoney, Harriet Hall and Eileen Steiger, aunts of the bride, attended the punch and coffee tables. At the gift table were Judy Gentry and Faith Chinnery, Georgia McQuain was in charge of the guest book.

The bride wore a smoky blue pants outfit for her going away ensemble. The couple traveled to California for their wedding trip. They will make their home in Heppner.

The groom is a graduate of Condon High School and the bride is a graduate of Heppner High School.

County Health Nurse, Pat Wright, and John Canady, vice president of the Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council, attended the Senior Citizen Training, Sept. 22-23, at Blue Mountain Community College.

Rev. Benintendi Guest Speaker

By Frances Rose Wilson

The Rev. Kenneth Benintendi, an Assembly of God missionary to Taiwan, was the guest speaker at the Assembly of God Church, Irrigon, Wed., Oct. 1, according to Pastor Robert Schmol.

During their past term of service, Mr. Benintendi and his wife Linda were involved in promoting the International Correspondence Institute in Taiwan. They were overseers of the program involving some 25,000 Chinese students. ICI is the major correspondence Bible study program of the Assemblies of God. Over 1,000,000 students from 75 countries are enrolled. The Benintendis also operate an English night school in Taipei.

On their next term of service the Benintendis will return to Taiwan to continue translating ICI courses into the Chinese language and promoting the institute. They will be working with local churches and assisting with their ministries.

Prior to their missionary appointment the Benintendis pastored churches in Toledo and Waldport, OR. Both are graduates of Northwest Bible College, Kirkland, WA. They have one daughter, Melody June, age 5.

A REMINDER TO HISTORIANS

People interested in county and regional history can join the Morrow County Historical Society, Sunday, Oct. 5, at the noon-time potluck and first annual meeting. The meeting will follow the potluck dinner which will be held at the Lexington Grange Hall, near Cutsforth Corners.

The Benintendis are not strangers to this area since his father, Garland Benintendi pastored at Stanfield before they entered missionary work. Ken Benintendi learned Chinese as a boy and speaks the language fluently. Linda Benintendi is the daughter of a former Irrigon pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. Leland Morse. Mr. and Mrs. Benintendi will be relating more of their experiences in Taiwan during this special missions service. Samples of ICI literature, curios, slides and special music will be featured. The public is invited to attend.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN RIETMANN
