Soroptimists mark 54 anniversary

Seven of the 22 charter members of the Heppner Club of the Soroptimist Federation joined active members in a Founder's Day Program at the club luncheon last Thursday. The honored guests included Ruth Payne and Jeanne Dobbs, Pendleton, and Katherine Mitchell and Ida Farra, Heppner, visiting charter members. Sally Smith an officer of the Pendleton Club also visited.

Elaine George, Etta Parker and Eleanor Gonty have remained active with the Heppner Club since its chartering in 1948. They and other guests recalled interesting moments in Soroptimist activities of the past, Clara Gertson told of her attendance at two Soroptimist International Conventions. Sally Smith brought greetings from the Pendleton Club.

INFLUENZA CLINIC

The Morrow County Health Department is sponsoring an influenza vaccination clinic for persons over 60 years of age and those who have chronic conditions such as heart disease, chronic lung disease, diabetes, or any chronic debilitating condition.

A fee of $2 will be charged and the clinics are scheduled at the following senior citizen nutrition sites: Mon., Oct. 20, 2-4 p.m., at Irrigon Lions Club; Tues., Oct. 21, 2-4 p.m., Heppner Elks Club, and Wed., Oct. 22, 4-5, at Ione Church of Christ.

A history of the founding of the organization was read by Education Committee Chairman Justine Weatherford from notes prepared by Elaine George. Soroptimists over the world celebrate Founder's Week during the first week of October in commemoration of the founding of the first club in Alameda County, CA, Oct. 3, 1921.

This week's luncheon program will focus on the United Nations and International Goodwill and Understanding and will be presented by Hazel Mahoney, Eleanor Gonty and Elaine George.

METAL HEALTH CLINIC TO BE OPEN WEDNESDAYS

Starting Oct. 22, the Morrow County Mental Health Clinic will be open on Wednesdays from 12:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. This has become necessary due to the demand for evening appointments from daytime employed people. The clinic will continue with its regular hours Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday of 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Heppner office and Monday and Thursday in the Irrigon office.

JACK O'LANTERN CONTEST

It's twelve days before the big Jack O'Lantern contest begins.

Cole's House of Fashion is sponsoring the carved pumpkin contest.

The rules are children, kindergarten through the fifth grade only. One pumpkin carved with a candle placed inside can be turned in at Coles Oct. 28, 29 and before noon on Oct. 30.

The judging will be held on Oct. 30. First prize is a 10 dollar gift certificate, second prize is a 5 dollar gift certificate.

NOTICE

The 4-H family night scheduled for Oct. 22 has been rescheduled to Oct. 28, 7:30 p.m. at the Ione Cafeteria.

LEXINGTON NEWS

Delpha Jones

Willows Grange will meet Oct. 18 with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. This is Grange visitation with Greenfield, Lexington and Rhea Creek coming to Willows Grange.

A Friendship Day was held at Willows Grange, Oct. 12 with Mrs. Fay Tarbell, State Grange Secretary as the guest speaker. She spoke on the history of the Grange.

Mrs. Tarbell was accompanied by her husband, Mr. Arnold Tarbell, who is Master of Columbia County Pomona, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Avis, Columbia City. The Tarbells are from Scappoose.

Other guests were State Steward Morton Wolverton and Mrs. Wolverton and Umatilla County Pomona Master Joe DuPuis and Mrs. Dupuis. State Gate Keeper Berl Akers and Mrs. Akers, members of Willows Grange, were recognized. There were guests from Lexington, Rhea Creek and Greenfield Granges as well as friends in the community.

Organizations in the area were asked to participate in Friendship Day. Willows Grange had an interesting table showing a bit of history of the Grange. There were table displays from the Ione Garden Club, Ione 4-H Clubs, Topic Club and the Morrow County Historical Society.

The guest tables were judged by Harold Kerr with first and second awards going to the Ione 4-H Clubs and the Garden Club.

The Lecturer's program opened with Rev. Cutting giving a prayer. The Grangers then presented the Friendship Road Ceremony.

The Ione High School Chorus, led by Miss Burton of the music department, sang three numbers. Delta Huber gave a history of the Ione Garden Club and told of their projects.

The importance of 4-H to our children and some of the high lights were given by Birdine Tullis.

Katherine Lindstrom told of the origin of the Topic Club and their work for the community of Ione.

The Wranglers Club was represented by Cornett Green who told of its early history and of the change to a family club. He also explained about ropes used by the ropers.

Ruth McCabe talked on the newly formed Historical Society. At the close of the program refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Jones, Leann Rea, Lexington; Alvin McCabe, Ione, Dick Sargent and Liz Curtis, Heppner, attended a Fair committee meeting in Boardman Thursday evening at the Dallosa home. Present was Zearl Gillespie, Boardman.

Three Links Club met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Howard, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger Sr. were Walla Walla visitors Thursday.
