

Party Line

By Dorothy Zita

Judy Wright plans to open a fabric shop in Heppner, next Spring. The new store will be located on Main Street, next to Abrams law office. Judy plans to carry a complete line of fabrics, notions and a small line of macramé supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pettyjohn, Arlington, were up last weekend to do some elk hunting and visit the Howard Pettyjohn family.

Last Friday, Bob Maxwell was sorting through cluttered desks and shelves, and came across a box of old pictures. We have decided these pictures were loaned to us for the printing of the special flood issue. There are no names of the owners, therefore we cannot return them.

We will hold the pictures here until Nov. 15. Then we will turn them over to the museum for safekeeping.

The Morrow County School District provides four days for early dismissal during the school year in order for teachers to work on activities designed to improve instruction.

The dates of early dismissal days are: Nov. 5, Dec. 10, Jan. 28 and April 7.

Schools throughout the county will be dismissed early on those days. A regular program of school activities including lunch will be carried on until 1:30 p.m.; at that time school will be dismissed. All buses will operate on the early schedule.

With teacher conferences being held at Heppner Elementary for 475 students, there will be no school on the following days: Fri., Nov. 7, Mon., Nov. 10 and Tues., Nov. 11. There will be an early dismissal Wed., Nov. 26 and no school Thurs. or Fri., Nov. 27-28 for the Thanksgiving Holiday.

Rusty Orwick, Condon was admitted to Heppner Hospital last Thursday. Frances is staying with her son Gene and family during Rusty's confinement.

The calendar of events has been printed in the paper for the public's benefit. It is to remind you of meetings, fun events and important community events. There is no cost for this public service. If at any time you or your organization has an event for the calendar, drop us a note or call.

Bill Weatherford was in a Portland hospital over the weekend for tests and rest. Justine drove down Monday to bring him home.

Betty Kirby, Fossil, has been appointed Area Captain for TOPS Club, Inc. Her territory consists of Gilliam, Morrow, and Wheeler counties. The duties of an Area Captain are to act as personal contact between the chapters and the supervisor. Mrs. Kirby will be available to help prospective members find an existing chapter to join; help new chapters organize; hold area meetings, leaders' workshops and handle other matters directed to her by her supervisor. TOPS Club, Inc. (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) is an international organization directed towards helping their membership lose weight.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Privett recently returned from a three and one-half month tour of the eastern and Atlantic seaboard states and Washington, D.C.

While in Norfolk, VA, they watched the docking of the U.S.S. Nimitz. Their son, Joe Privett, and 18½ year Navy man was aboard. He and his family live in Hampton, VA.

They visited their daughter, Mrs. Billie Jean Tabor and her family, and other members of Mrs. Privett's family in Missouri.

They also visited Mr. Privett's family in North Carolina, and his brother, Buck Privett, in Iowa.

After a short stay at their home in Heppner, they left this week for Quartzsite, AZ, where they will spend the winter.

LaVerne VanMarter Sr. is confined to the Pioneer Memorial Hospital and has a steady stream of visitors.

I was at the hospital last week to watch the little kindergarten students trick or treat. We all stopped and said hello to Edna Turner and Nora Turner.

The warm weather is a pleasant change for us. The sunshine has warmed up the houses and the energy crisis was postponed a while longer. But Mary Doherty doesn't share my views. "Not a good time for us farmers, the ground is drying out," said Mary.

The Jack O'Lantern contest held at Coles House of Fashion made an appropriate window display. The candles were lite and the pumpkin's smiles beamed through the window. Final winners of the contest were Trish Mahoney and Shane Laughlin.

Vida Heliker, Ione, has been staying with Hila Timm, 216 SW 7th, Pendleton while she is receiving medical attention there.

November 11, the state official Veterans day. Schools, courthouse, banks, state offices, businesses and stores will be closed. The Post Office will be open.

The Gazette-Times will be open for business.

MR. AND MRS. BRIAN ADAMS

Griffith-Adams

St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Heppner, was the scene of the wedding of Donita Jo Griffith and Brian Mark Adams on Oct. 18.

Donita Jo is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Griffith. Spray and Brian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O.L. Adams, Heppner.

The afternoon double-ring ceremony was performed by Father O'Brien.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace which was made by her mother. For something old she chose to wear her great grandmother's engagement ring, for something borrowed she wore a veil belonging to Sherrill Cossitt. She carried her mother's white bible with a bouquet of white button and pom mums and yellow roses with streamers of white satin ribbons.

Matron of honor for the bride was Sherrill Cossitt, Spray, cousin of the groom. Bridesmaids were Jerita Noble, Hermiston; Barbara Adams, LaGrande, cousin of the groom; Kristi Fisher, Spray and Darla Cooper, Heppner.

Flower girl was Stacie Toll, Heppner, cousin of the bride, and ring bearer was Matthew Bogle, Klamath Falls, nephew of the groom.

Candle lighters were Gib Griffith, Spray, brother of the bride and Josh Bogle, Klamath Falls, nephew of the groom.

Best man was Tim Adams, Heppner, brother of the groom. Ushers were John Griffith, Spray, brother of the bride; Mike Adams, Spray, cousin of the groom; Neil Edwards, Pendleton, and Max Woods, Fossil.

The world's shortest river probably has the shortest name. It's the 440 foot D River in Oregon.

Nuptial music was provided by Jody Noble, Hermiston and soloist was Sid Britt, Echo.

A reception was held at the Parish Hall where the cake was cut and served by Trish and Rene Toll, aunts of the bride. Pouring punch were Phyllis Goree, Roosevelt, WA, and Randy Britt, Echo.

In charge of the guest book was Tami Toll and assisting with the gifts were Toni Toll and Sue Laird.

After a honeymoon at Sun River in Bend the couple are at home at 20 Terrace Lane, Space 33, Prineville.

The groom is employed with Les Schwab, Prineville.

IONE LIBRARY OPEN HOUSE

In order to make the Ione Public Library facilities known to the newer members of the community and to those who have not used the library in the past, the Topic Club, sponsors of the library are holding an "Open House" on Nov. 12, 1:30-5:30 p.m. Topic club members will be present to greet the guests and explain the library facilities. Refreshments will be served.

Many new books have been added to the library this fall, making over 6,000 volumes available for circulation. There are also many magazines and reference materials available. The sponsors are anxious that more people enjoy them.
