

LEXINGTON NEWS

Delpha Jones

Lexington Grange met Monday evening for its regular meeting with Master Orville Cutsforth in the chair.

Business of the evening was the election of officers with the following elected to office:

Master, Orville Cutsforth; Overseer, Paul Morey; Lecturer, Barbara Cutsforth; Steward, Alfred Nelson; Assistant Steward, Joe Yocom; Chaplain, Marie Steagall; Treasurer, Cecil Jones; Secretary, Jean Nelson; Gatekeeper, Carl Marquardt; Ceres, Hilda Yocom; Pomona, Frances Smouse; Flora, Florence McMillan; Lady Assist, Steward, Delpha Jones; Executive Board Norman Nelson, Kenneth Smouse and Gene Majeske.

It was announced at the meeting that letters concerning the dues increase had received no replies, so the dues were increased to $12. This increase was necessary because of the maintenance and other expenses. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

The Eastern Oregon Historical Auto Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison last week, starting with a potluck supper.

The meeting was presided over by President Robert Harrison.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roger Palmer, Mr.

and Mrs. Harold Peck, Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. Ellwayne Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stickney, Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gebbard and son, Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rohde, Mr. and Mrs. John Hatton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Weidert, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clark, Pendleton.

Mrs. C.C. Jones and Millie Yocom were hostesses of a pinocle party at the Jones Ranch Tuesday evening. Winners were high Maureen Davis, low Hilda Yocom and traveling Ruth Robinson and Millie Yocom. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Kane and Terrence, San Francisco, are visiting at the William Van Winkle home this week. Mrs. Micheal Kane is the former Leora Van Winkle. Mr. Kane's brother has been spending a few days in Lexington, while he is driving to Hermiston where he is employed at the Lamb Weston Plant. Renee DuVall flew with Mrs. Van Winkle to Lexington from San Francisco, where she is employed. She will visit her grandmother Cleo Van Winkle at Heirsche's Nursing Home, Pendleton, as well as other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Venice Hendrickson and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chick entertained with a dinner on Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom on their wedding anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rinehart and children, Ukiah, the Chick children, Yocom children and Florence McMillan.

Zearl Gillespie, Hazel Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ball visited Mr. and Mrs. T.E. Messenger Sunday.

Carlita and Joyce Marquardt are visiting this week with their parents Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt from Pacific Lutheran College.

Obituaries

TACIE MAY PARKER

Word was received of the death of Mrs. Tacie May Parker, 91, a former resident of Heppner, OR and Walla Walla, WA. Mrs. Parker passed away Nov. 8, in a nursing home in Puyallup, WA, where she had been a patient two weeks for a lung ailment. She had been living at the home of her son in Puyallup for the past five months.

Born in Milton, OR, August 27, 1884, Mrs. Parker was the oldest daughter of James and Julia Cyper who farmed in that area. Because of Indian uprisings and the fear of being attacked, Mr. and Mrs. Cyper and baby Tacie moved to Lexington in 1886 to be near Mrs. Cyper's family who had settled there. Tacie grew up and attended school in Lexington. This was when Robert Wilcox was superintendent. He, incidentally, passed away the day before Mrs. Parker.

In 1904 Frank E. Parker and Tacie Cyper were married and settled at a homestead five miles below Lexington. A few years later Mr. Parker traded the homestead for five cows and four horses so that he could start farming south of Heppner. Mr. Parker died in 1961 after farming this area for over 40 years. Mrs. Parker then moved to Walla Walla and again moved in 1970 to a retirement home in Tacoma, WA.

Mrs. Parker was a member of the Central Christian Church, Walla Walla, but had been a very active member of the First Christian Church, Heppner. She was also a past member of the San Souci Rebekah Lodge, Ruth Chapter Eastern Star and Rhea Creek Grange.

She is survived by a son, Onez Parker, Puyallup; a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Hill, Portland; two sisters, Mrs. Inez Loney and Mrs. Mary Davis, Walla Walla; six grandchildren; one great grandchild and several nieces and nephews. Mrs. Loyal Parker, a sister-in-law, is the only relative in Heppner.

Cami and Mike Rounds, John Day, spent Friday and Saturday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Gary Engle.

ELIZA MURL BRANNON

Eliza Murl Brannon, 79, Lexington, died in Heppner, Sunday, Nov. 23.

Miss Brannon was born Jan. 14, 1896 in Heppner, the daughter of Wesley and Ella Saling Brannon. She had lived in Lexington for the past 19 years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Nov. 26, at the Lexington Church of Christ, with the Rev. Gus Nikander officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marquardt sang "The Glory Song" and "Good Night and Good Morning" accompanied by Mrs. Marquardt at the piano.

Casket bearers were Kenneth Batty, Dean Hunt, Cecil Jones, William Marquardt, Raymond Batty and Ira Owen. Concluding services and interment were at the Hardman Cemetery with Sweeney Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Miss Brannon is survived by a sister, Pearl Green, Lexington; two brothers, Marvin Brannon, Mt. Vernon, OR; James Brannon, Heppner; and numerous nieces and nephews.

CARL KNIGHTEN

Funeral services were held for Carl Knighten, Arlington, formerly of Irrigon, Nov. 18, at Onley Cemetery, Pendleton.

Mr. Knighten died in The Dalles hospital, Nov. 14, 1975. He was born Sept. 19, 1894 in Grangerville, ID. He farmed and operated a fruit stand in Irrigon for a number of years.

He was a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Irrigon Grange. Survivors include a son Carl, Gladstone; sister Mrs. Maltie Dunn, Wrangell, AK; sister-in-law, Mrs. Tom Gurdane, The Dalles.

IONE NEWS

Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Mrs. Vera Rietmann on Thursday, Nov. 20 for their regular session.

Special guest was Mrs. Mary McMurtry, district deputy. Mrs. Vida Heliker received a seal for secret work.

Plans were made for a no-host luncheon at Beecher's on Thursday, Dec. 4 with a Christmas party following at the home of Mrs. Margaret Akers. There will be an exchange of gifts and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Ione spent the weekend in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.E. Myers. They visited both days with Mrs. Archie Munkers who is a patient at Providence Hospital. Also going down to see Mrs. Munkers were Louis Halvorsen and Mrs. Larry Prock, Ione; Mrs. Maurine Davis, Jay and Lynda Devin, Lexington.

Special Christmas services have been planned at the Ione United Church of Christ by Pastor William B. Graham and the Board of Christian Education, Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom and Mrs. George Griffith.

The family centered worship will be at the regular eleven o'clock services during the four Sundays in Advent.

Families are encouraged to attend with their children, who will be involved spontaneously in the lighting of the Advent candles, in creating the prayers and in dramatizing the sermon. It is the Board's desire to involve the whole family in worship particularly during the Christmas season.

V.C. Brown returned home from the John Day Hospital last Saturday. Bill Smith took him to John Day for a check up on Friday.

US BANK SUCCESSFUL BIDDER ON BONDS

The United States National Bank, Hermiston, was the successful bidder on the $1.1 million Morrow County School bonds. Their bid on the effective rate over a 11 year period was 5.9860. The Bank of Eastern Oregon was second with a bid of .600581, followed by First National Bank of Oregon with a bid of .60339. Inland Empire Bank submitted a bid of .6248.

The total interest the U.S. National Bank will pay over the 11 year period amounts to $487,164.58 with the last of the interest due Jan. 1, 1988.
