Party Line

According to "Alaska" magazine, costs of living in Alaska seem to be sky high. flour, 40 cents a pound, a can of cola, 30 cents and a hair cut is up to $5. In Anchorage, a tuna fish sandwich is $2.10 and the most ordered hamburger was going to $2.25. For those who plan on traveling to the 49th state, it would be well worth taking a trailer in tow as the cost of a two bedroom apartment is renting for $420.

Every once in a while, I pick up the book "Glimpses of Wheeler County's Past and read excerpts at random. Jack Steiwer's contribution, Communities, Past and Present, the Antone section, leads me to believe, that Antone had quite a colorful past with the gold mines. Some mines such as the Spanish Gulch Placer yielded $3,00-12,000 returns each year in the early 1900s. Jack writes on about the farming, sheep, cattle and lumber camps, to the murders which were frequent in the area.

The Amicia Pinochle Club met at Eilene Padbergs last Wednesday evening. Marjorie Wright won high, Barbara Cutsfortth second and Phyllis Piper traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Dennis and Lisa Watson in New Liana, LA., to welcome their 28th grandchild, John Orville. John was born a few months early weighing in a pound and one-half and has been flown to Fort Sam Huston, TX where there are better intensive premature facilities for him.

Those who know Roberta (Frasier) Anderson, will be saddened by the news that her husband, Rictor, died last month at their home in Portland.

Last week I wrote that Gladys Heliker moved to her new home in Ione, but I omitted some of the people who helped Gladys move, namely Edie and Leonard Munkers and Fritz Cutsforth. What I want to know is, just how far did that rhubarb go?

Bob Lowe just dropped in the office to show us a Christmas Card he received from relatives in England. Written on the card were some personal notes. One sentence reads, "We are turning into a real "Darby and Joan!" Meaning? After Bob and his wife found a Roget's Thesaurus, they were no longer in the dark. It means retired persons. Add that to your descriptive vocabulary.

Myrna Johnson, Heppner, is the new part-time secretary for the Extension Service, replacing Mary Lynn Zinter who resigned recently to become a full time farm wife. Myrna and her husband, Robert, moved here from Los Angeles, CA.

Katherine Wright and Ellis McRoberts, Hermiston, were married recently in Hermiston.

Some people believe that if you sleep with your closet door open, it's bad luck!

The Matthew and Cheryle Greenup wedding reception was held Saturday evening in the Elks Lodge. Assisting with the buffet dinner were Carolyn Cole, Kathy Pointer, Ann Schwarz, Jean Bennett, Sue Greenup, Mary Kilkenny and Janice Cutsforth. Helping at the gift table was Joan Swanson, Irene Swanson and Peggy Moyer served punch and coffee. Tammy Brannon and Laurie Turner were in charge of the guest book. Monica Swanson served the cake. Out-of-town guests were Glen and Betty Lancing, Portland; Bob and Jean Runnion, Pendleton; Fay and Jim Uhler, Kennewick, WA. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Greenup, Mich. and Yeko Greenup and Mark and Mike Greenup, Portland. Also attending were Carolyn McNalley and Francine and Tom Bristow, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weatherford enjoyed a pleasant Sunday afternoon viewing the Medievals Revels exhibit, held at the South Park Blocks, Portland.

It was Ladies night Thursday evening at the Elks Lodge with Beverly Gunderson, Jean Ann Turner and Rita Wolff the hostesses.

Pinochle winners were Linda Schultz, Martha Van Schoiack, and Carolyn Cole. Door prize winners Alvina Padberg and Mary McLeod. Winners at the bridge tables were Happy Graham, Daisy Collins and Elaine George.

Are you going to write about chaperoning at the Junior High School dance? I have been asked. What can I say, the days of dresses are gone; faded jeans on both sexes are the style. I think I can safely assume the students all had a good time. Mr. Beck along with the rest of the chaperones all feel it is worth the extra hours to let the students have their dances. The students were pretty well in control of the dance and the decorations were with the Christmas theme.

Christmas vacation for all Morrow County schools begins with a 1:30 p.m. dismissal Tuesday, Dec. 23. School will resume Monday, Jan. 5, 1976.

Juanita Wilson was sworn into the U.S. Navy and will report for basic training in Orlando, FL, Jan. 2.

Juanita is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson, Heppner.

It was getting late Sunday evening, Fred Harrison noticed the fog was really rolling in. Saturday had been Juliann's birthday and Sunday was their 29th wedding anniversary. They had made plans to drive out of town to celebrate the two special events. To the rescue came Ron and Olivia Palmer serving dinner to Fred and Juliann. Fred said, "Our evening turned out to be very special, because of the Palmers."

Severance family reunion

A Severance family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell recently. Attending were Mrs. Campbell's sister, Sylvia Severance, Los Angeles, CA; her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan H. Severance, Chelan, WA; their son, Don Campbell, Watsonville, CA; and their grandson, Bill Campbell and friend, Portland.

This was the first time in eight years that Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, her sister, brother and sister-in-law have all been together. Four of the group are past the 80 year mark and one is two months from it, Mrs. Campbell stated.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Campbell entertained the group with a dinner party, with all the family present. Four generations included Roy Campbell, son Roger, granddaughter Nancy Campbell Nash and great granddaughter, Angie Nash.

angels visiting public library

Along with the adults and children who come to check in and check out books, the Heppner Public Library is pleased to have a group of angels visiting there through the holiday period.

The two small display cases now hold paper, cloth and china angels. These angels have come from various parts of the world and were created over a long span of time. Early next year they will return to their full-time homes with Madge Thomson, Inez Erwin, Ida Farra and Justine Weatherford.

The collection of small dogs loaned by the John Breidenbachs attracted many favorable comments. It is possible that interesting shells will succeed the angels in the library displays.

Meeting Notices

The Rhea Creek Grange Community Christmas party will be held Friday, Dec. 12, with a program and potluck supper starting at 6:30 p.m.

Sun Souci Rebekah Lodge will hold their next regular meeting Friday, Dec. 19. At this time they will have their Christmas party, with entertainment and exchange of gifts.

The Morrow County Planning Commission will meet Monday, Dec. 15, 1:30 p.m. at the Court house, Heppner, OR.

Nola Coval, Teacher of the Year

Nola Coval, a health education teacher at Raymond A. Brown Junior High School, Hillsboro, has been named Oregon Teacher of the Year for 1976. State Department of Education officials announced last Friday.

A teacher at Brown Junior High for 11 years, Mrs. Coval, 49, also has taught in Lexington, Seaside and Berlin.

Mrs. Coval's philosophy of teaching revolves around being fair and firm.

Mrs. Coval was graduated with a bachelors degree in education from the University of Idaho and received a masters degree in health teaching from the University of Oregon.

Her husband Serge, is employed by the Northwestern Industrial Lamp Co. They have four children, three daughters and a son, and live in Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Coval taught for the Lexington Schools; Nola for the high school and Serge for the eighth grade until the school closed in 1958.

Turkey Trot rated success

"The Turkey Trot was a great success," reported Nadine O'Brien, at the luncheon meeting of the Heppner Soroptimist International, Dec. 1. She also reported a gain in the scholarship fund, but was unable to give the exact amount at this time.

Assisting O'Brien on the committees were Marlene Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sweek, Clista Venard and Pat Wright.

Special thanks were given to the sheriff's department and to Bill Cox for their help.

Plans for coming events were discussed. The women made plans for gifts to needy families and the women are to bring canned goods to the meeting, next Thursday.

A social gathering for members and their husbands is scheduled for Dec. 15, at the Mike Gray residence.

Women request appointments

116 young women have requested appointments in the Air Force Academy Class of 1980 entering June 28, 1976, the first time women will be admitted to military academies.

The women will be competing for about 150 spaces for women in the class of 1980.

By Nov. 13, 1975, 1,736 women had asked for academy admissions information. President Ford signed the bill authorizing women to attend the academies Oct. 7, 1975.

The final date for all nominations, including congressional, to be at the academy is Jan. 31, 1976.

Interested young women should contact their senators or representatives now to begin the nomination process. They also can write for information and assistance to the Admissions Liaison Office, U.S. Air Force Academy, CO 80840.

Christmas food sale

American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 87, will hold a Christmas food sale Friday, Dec. 19, 10 a.m., in the new lobby of the Heppner Hotel.

American Legion and Auxiliary members and families of Post no. 87, Heppner, will hold their annual Christmas party at the Legion Hall Sunday, Dec. 14, 3-5 p.m. All veterans of all wars and their families are welcome to attend.

All attending are reminded to bring a can or package of food for Christmas baskets and also a plate of Christmas goodies for the feasting table. Santa will be in for a visit and treat for the children. All age groups will enjoy the cartoons shown by the "faithful movie man."

Buschgrass Rebekah Lodge met Dec. 4 at a no-host luncheon at Beechers. The luncheon was followed by a Christmas party at Mabel Rings, with games and an exchange of gifts. Twelve members were present. Mrs. Ethel Garinger was a guest. A short business meeting was held.

GARDEN CLUB

The annual Christmas Greens Workshop of the Heppner Garden Club is planned for Monday, Dec. 15, 8 p.m. in the basement of the United Methodist Church. Garden Club members will need to be there at 7:30 for a brief meeting.

The public is invited and each person is asked to bring garden shears or clippers. A 25 cent cover charge will provide the greens needed for a wreath or door swag and the wire base. Ribbons, various trims and other supplies will be on sale.

Rev. Edwin A. Cutting will again give instructions for making arrangements for front door displays and for table decorations. He has developed techniques that are very acceptable and which have proven to be well received in past years.

Garden Club members will serve coffee and cookies during the evening. It is hoped that students will come to the class promptly so demonstration can begin at 8 p.m.
