IRRIGON NEWS

Frances Rose Wilson

An Assembly of God business meeting of the Blue Mountain Section was held at the Pendleton Assembly of God, First Assembly. Ministers and their wives and church board members and their spouses were invited to attend a dinner Tuesday night.

Special guests included District Superintendent N.D. Davidson, Salem, who has announced his retirement after many years of serving the Oregon District. Also present were Dist. Treas. Lester Young, Salem and Missionary Gail Winters, who has spent more than 25 years as a missionary to Africa.

Pastor Charles Slaughter of the Pendleton A of G was re-elected to the office of Presbyter of the Blue Mt. Section.

The Irrigon Seventh-day Adventist Church participated in a national program, carried on by their church. The Irrigon S.D.A. wishes to thank the residents of Irrigon for their contributions to the Christmas Carolers soliciting for their annual welfare drive.

Community services of the church include a fleet of disaster relief vans, located across North America. Storms and floods have kept the church busy in many places. This was the 72 year of the world services appeal during which funds are received for humanitarian work.

The Provincials Trio, including the Rev. Percy Evans and the Rev. and Mrs. D.H. Irvine, will minister at the Irrigon Assembly of God Sunday, Jan. 18. Pastor Robert Schmoll extends a welcome to all.

Pastor Schmoll is attending a ministers meeting at Camp Davidson this week.

A baby shower was given for Mrs. Joia Marlow Jan. 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harding, with about 35 people attending. Eileen Ware assisted Mrs. Harding as co-hostess.

A daughter, Angela Ruth, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Marlow, Irrigon, Jan. 10 at the Umatilla Hospital, weighing 6 lbs, 6 oz.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach, paternal grandmother is Naomi Marlow.

Mrs. Rodda Maddox returned home Jan. 10 after a two week visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenton Yoder, Martinez, CA.

Honor Roll

Fall semester honor roll from the University of Portland includes 472 students. Perfect 4.0 grade point averages were earned by 92 students.

Kathleen Marie McElligott has achieved a perfect grade point average. She is a junior enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences. She resides at Ione with her family.

OSU HONOR ROLL

Names of local students who made the scholastic honor roll fall term have been announced by Oregon State University.

A total of 541 students earned straight As (4.0) and another 1,565 earned a b plus (3.5) or better to make the honor listing. To make the honor roll students must earn a 3.5 or better on at least 12 graded hours of course work.

Local students on the honor roll included: Charles W. Acock, Boardman, senior; Debra L. McCoy, Irrigon, junior and Robert F. Worden, Heppner, senior.

Robert F. Fulks, 59, address unknown, was arrested by the Sheriff's Department and charged with negotiating a bad check. Bail has been set at $1,505, meanwhile the Sheriff's Department is continuing their investigation.

Fair Committee

The Fair Committee met in Lexington last week and elected officers for the coming year. Those elected were Delpha Jones, president; Dick Sargent, vice-president, and DeAnn McCabe, secretary.

Virginia Grieb has been appointed to the Fair Board. A replacement for her position as well as two other positions on the fair board will be announced at the February meeting.

Alvin McCabe reported on the Fair association convention, held recently in Portland. The committee voted to hire the Marty Davis show as entertainment for the Wednesday Fun Night. Those who attended the convention were impressed with his music.

Work on the premium book has started and should be completed by Mar. 1, 1976. Anyone who has not worked as a fair superintendent in the past and would like the responsibility this year is asked to contact Liz Curtis, fair secretary, by phoning 676-9454.

The committee voted to purchase bumper stickers as a means of advertizing the 1976 Fair and Rodeo.

The next meeting of the Fair Committee will be held Feb. 4, with the public invited to attend.

Jack Warren named manager

A Eugene educator with 20 years experience in school finance has been named Business Manager of Blue Mountain Community College. In a special meeting last night the college Board of Education approved Jack Warren of the Fern Ridge School District to replace Robin Woodroffe. He was selected from a list of 41 applicants for the job.

PLANKED SIRLOIN STEAK SUPREME

Welcome guests to your holiday entertaining with Planked Sirloin Steak Supreme. This special broiled steak takes on gourmet garb when served on a plank with fluted whipped potatoes, green peas, and crumb-topped tomato halves.

Sirloin steak is a tender cut of beef, and will be labeled Beef Loin Sirloin Steak at the meat counter. There are five different cuts of sirloin steak: sirloin steak flat bone; sirloin steak wedge bone; sirloin steak round bone; sirloin steak pin bone; and sirloin steak boneless. All can be cooked with dry heat methods such as broiling, panfrying, panbroiling, or barbecuing, to produce a tender, juicy steak you'll be proud to serve.

Give your best this holiday season ... beef, the good provider.

PLANKED SIRLOIN STEAK SUPREME

1 sirloin steak, cut about 1 1/2 inches thick
salt and pepper
1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 T. melted butter
1/4 tsp. mixed herb seasoning.

2 medium-sized tomatoes
4 cups seasoned mashed or Duchess potatoes
1 pck. (10 oz) frozen green peas, cooked

Set regulator for broiling. Place steak on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top surface of the steak is 3 to 5 inches from the heat. If the steak is to be served rare, broil the top surface 15 minutes. Season before turning.

Mix crumbs, melted butter and herb seasoning. Cut tomatoes in half. Turn steak and place with tomatoes, cut side up, on an oiled planking board. Place plank under broiler and broil this side about 5 minutes longer until crumbs and potatoes are browned.

Set plank on a tray for serving and fill spaces between steak and vegetables with hot buttered peas. 4 servings.

To make Duchess potatoes: prepare 4 cups seasoned, mashed potatoes. Blend a small amount of mashed potatoes with 2 slightly beaten egg yolks. Return mixture to remainder of potatoes and mix until evenly blended.

Family life seminar

A Family Life Seminar will be sponsored next weekend by the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 560 N. Minor, beginning Friday, Jan. 16 at 8 p.m.

Clarence and Nancy Gruesbeck, Spokane, who have conducted seminars for the past ten years, are the parents of three children. Their son has his own home and is principal of an elementary school north of Seattle, WA. For 20 years Mr. Gruesbeck pastored churches in New Jersey, Chicago and Los Angeles.

The lectures will include the following subjects:
Friday, 8 p.m.—"Understanding Yourself and Your Mate."
Saturday, 11 a.m.—"Are You Listening?"

Saturday, 3 p.m.—"What Love is All About."
Saturday, 7 p.m.—"How to be Happy Though Parents."
Sunday, 9 a.m.—Breakfast and discussion.

The public is cordially invited to attend the programs.
