

Party

By Dorothy Zita

"It was on my birthday 53 years ago when I saw the Statue of Liberty for the first time," said John Nielson, who was celebrating his 72 birthday at a party given for him Sunday evening. Helping him celebrate his birthday were: Fred and Julie Harrison, Frank and Hazel Hamlin, Dorothy Rugg, Dean Teel, Georgia Lynch, Alton Yarnell, Gladys Snyder, Alta Cutsforth, Ralph Mariatt and yours truly, held at Beechers Restaurant, Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs attended the National Wool Growers Convention in Wichita, KA, where Dorothy was elected national auditor for the second year. Henry is the president of the Oregon Wool Growers.

J.B. Doherty, Blackhorse Canyon, stopped in to tell us about the terrific snow storm in 1916. He mentioned that the snow storms we have now days are minor compared to one in 1916. We are happy about that.

Ernest Joiner was here for a short visit last week, taking our snow storm with him when he returned to California.

Marlene Peterson said everyone was poking fun at her and Randall, when they carried their rain coats with them on their trip to Los Angeles. The weather was a beautiful 84 degrees the first day, but then the rains came. But they couldn't complain to anyone about the liquid sunshine, as it was ending the drought there.

Mrs. David McLeod and Mrs. Claude Graham were the hostesses for the Elks Ladies Night Valentine card party. The lodge room was decorated with the Valentine theme. Mrs. Everett Keithley, Mrs. Ola Ruggles and Martha Van Schoiack took the prizes in pinochle and Mrs. Ed Dick, Mrs. Eddie Gunderson and Mrs. Glen Ward were given prizes in bridge. Mrs. Cal Sherman won the door prize. Elks Ladies night is held the first Thursday of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pointer, Corvallis will appear on "The Price is Right", TV program the week of Feb. 29. It would be nice to see someone we know when they pan the audience.

Piri Howell is home from the hospital. Verna Howell slipped and broke her wrist in three places. They are both kept pretty close to home now.

Bill Doherty Jr. called last week, a poodle had been left near the north Lexington elevator. It's a cute little apricot dog, and he hopes someone will take it. He says "I have too many dogs now."

Saturday afternoon was the first chance I have had to watch the Heppner Grade school basketball team play. The eight grade beat Condon by 11 points. Not being a sports writer or knowing too much about basketball I still think I can safely say, "The Heppner High School will have one good freshman team coming up next year."

The Heppner Rebekah Lodge is holding an afghan drawing at Lebusch Shoppe Saturday, Feb. 14, 4 p.m. The lovely multi-colored triple-linked afghan was made by Letha Archer who is 94 years old.

Visiting Hal and Virginia Whitaker for the next two weeks is Hal's daughter and son-in-law and grandchild, Vicki and Dwight Malin and daughter Heather from Newport News, VA.

The Rev. Paul Peterson of the United Methodist Church, Centralia will be in Heppner, Monday for a short visit before leaving on a speaking tour in Colorado. Rev. Peterson is a well-known author and is in the process of writing three books simultaneously. For more information about his visit here, please contact Virginia Whitaker or Susan Jepsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maxwell just returned from a trip to Corpus Christi, TX.

Returning from the Hawaiian Islands last week were Coetta DeBraal and Anita Boyer. They stayed on the main island of Honolulu, traveling with guided tours when they wanted. It was a very relaxing time for them. But we couldn't see any sign of a sun tan, until Coetta showed us her sun-burned nose. Mel Boyer babysat Coetta's sons. When does Mel get his vacation girls?

More visitors to the Hawaiian Islands were Frieda Majeske and Mary Lindsay who flew over to the island of Oahu, staying one week. They then boarded a cruise ship and toured the rest of the islands, returning to the ship every night. Mary and Frieda had such a wonderful time they didn't really want to return home.

Ed and Rachel Dick received a phone call from their son Stuart last week. He had just arrived in Portland after traveling since November 1973. Countries on his itinerary included Mexico, Australia, New Zealand, Indonesia, Nepal, Thailand and India, among others.

Before his departure for the United States, Stuart was teaching school in Adelaide, Australia. While in Portland, he is staying with Tim Driscoll. He expects to be home in a week or two.

MUSEUM HELPS MANY WITH FAMILY HISTORIES

Rarely a week passes that the Morrow County Museum does not receive a request for help with genealogical research. Mrs. Harnett's records have helped many families with their past histories. As she helps them she constantly enlarges the museum's collection of family histories.

Last week Mrs. Donald Carpenter (Betty), South Bend, IN, wrote requesting information about Justus Dickerson who died in Douglas, OR, 1897.

Information about him and other members of the family was mailed to her promptly.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH HAS MANY EVENTS

The First Christian Church of Heppner and the Lexington Church of Christ had an especially busy Sunday, Feb. 8. In the morning the visiting singers, the Gospelites were featured at the service in the Heppner Church.

The two churches joined for 7:30 breakfast and they also shared a potluck dinner at noon. After dinner the Heppner church had its monthly business meeting.

In the evening, persons from all the churches of south Morrow County attended the Lexington Church for the monthly Singspiration service which also featured the Gospelite singers.

The Rev. Edwin Sikes of the Heppner church has known one of the Gospelite singers since he was five years old. Rev. Gus Nikander is the minister of the Lexington church.

The morning service in Heppner was very well attended, and the evening service at Lexington drew a standing-room-only crowd.

Bavarian Lime Cream Puffs

BAVARIAN LIME CREAM PUFFS
18 small cream puffs

- | | |
|------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 cup water | 1 cup boiling water |
| 1/2 cup sifted flour | 1 cup sugar |
| 1 cup sifted flour | 1/4 teasp. salt |
| dash salt | one third c. unsweetened lime juice |
| 4 eggs | 1 cup whipping cream |
| 1 env. unflav. gelatin | 1/4 teasp. green food coloring |
| 1/4 cup water | chocolate syrup, if desired |

Bring 1 c. water and butter or margarine to boil, stirring until butter or margarine melts. Add flour and dash of salt all at once. Reduce heat. Cook, stirring constantly until mixture is smooth and forms a soft ball, 1 to 2 minutes. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Drop batter by rounded tablespoonfuls onto greased baking sheet to make 18 shells. Bake in pre-heated 400 degree oven 40 to 45 minutes, or until firm. Remove shells from baking sheet onto wire rack. While shells are cooling, soften gelatin in 1/4 cup water. Add boiling water, sugar and 1/4 teasp. salt, stirring until sugar and gelatin dissolve. Stir in lime juice, chill until firm, about 1 hour. Whip until light and foamy. Beat cream until stiff peaks form; blend with food coloring into whipped gelatin. Chill until firm about 1 hour. Cut tops off cool shells and remove soft interior. Fill with lime filling. Store in refrigerator until ready to serve. If desired, before serving, pour syrup over cream puffs. NOTE: If self rising flour is used, omit salt in shells.
