

IRRIGON NEWS

Frances Rose Wilson

The Irrigon City Council heard Engineer Val Toronto's proposal for an engineering study relating to construction of a city sewer system. The matter was tabled after discussion.

Other business included a report that Improvement District No. 6 had been completed and letters sent to landowners informing them of the amount of the proposed assessment. A hearing was set for Feb. 29 on an assessment ordinance. A hearing was also set for the Osterkamp addition regulations.

Don Adams was reappointed to the budget committee and Kenneth Lamb was appointed to the committee.

There were no bids received on the City's Service Building offered for sale.

The Council authorized Recorder Barbara Byrd to write a letter to the State Highway Dept. requesting a safety crosswalk at 10th St. near A.C. Houghton Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wadkins are the parents of a son born Feb. 12, weighing 6 lbs, 6 oz. His name is Justin Lance. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Wadkins, Irrigon and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cunningham, Coulee City. The baby was born at the Good Shepherd Hospital, Hermiston.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Stephens were Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Dufur and Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, Ione, who are friends of the family.

Visitors at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Schmolli were her sister Nicholle Blom and another sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schlutz, all of Portland.

Ted Wilson flew to Fairbanks, AK recently to check on working conditions there. He returned to his home in Irrigon and is making plans to enlarge his mobile home court here.

Leon Wilson took a trip to Portland for a physical check-up at the Veterans Clinic. He was an overnight guest of his aunt, Mrs. Lois Land.

VA SPENDS

The Veterans Administration spent $196,022,501 in Oregon during fiscal year 1975 for facilities, operations and benefits to veterans and dependents. Mrs. Donna M. Arndt, director of the Portland VA regional office, said. Of the total VA expenditures, $299,602 was spent in Morrow County.

Arndt said the total expenditures in Oregon included $85,181,014 for veterans compensation and pension; $54,237,461 in readjustment and education payments; and $10,810,913 for insurance and indemnities. Regional office and hospital operating costs in Oregon amounted to $44,326,251.

Multnomah County received the largest portion—$71,356,776. Douglas was second with $15,644,905, followed by Lane with $15,162,652.

SPRAY NEWS

Mary Williams

The false spring weather ended early in the week when sudden temperature changes dropped the mercury to zero. Farmers might well welcome a blanket of snow on crops tempted into premature growth by the recent unseasonal weather. Ice extends the width of the river in many places.

Spray people in Pendleton for the Amy Bratt funeral services last week were the Lee Brisbois, the Gus Streckers, Eddy and Evelyn Cress, Amine Nichols, Celia Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Odell Adams.

Mrs. Ron Brisbois and little Brick returned Sunday from a two week's visit with relatives in Hermiston. Her sister, Kate Dunn, is improving satisfactorily following surgery at a Hermiston hospital.

Larry Brisbois II, Boardman, spent the past week here with his grandparents the Lee Brisbois and the Don Troxells. His parents, Kathy and Larry came for the weekend and Larry returned home with them Sunday evening.

The 4-H Clover Club met at the home of their leader, Effie Stirewalt, on Tuesday. Present were officers Carolyn Kendall, president Deanna McGuire, Secretary and Marsha Troxell who is reporter and responsible for telephone contacts.

Others present were Lisa McGuire, Deanna Conley and Michele Hamilton.

Tuesday visitors and dinner guests at the Robert Reed home included Jessie and Pat Shay, Antelope and Mrs. Shay's son, Steve Duncan with his wife Julietta and daughter Valerie of Petersburg, AK, where Duncan is a construction engineer in an extensive housing project.

Felicitations go out to Dawn Renee Rardin on the occasion of her 7th birthday. Seven small friends arrived at her home Friday afternoon to join in the festivities and included Deanna Conley, Darla Thompson, Cissy Britt, Rene and Michele Hamilton, Robin Ordway and Billy Dean Mortimore. The latter, seven months, the only boy present and reportedly vying for the honors with the birthday girl, was most popular with the young ladies present.

John Taylor and his sons Don and Ronny, Klamath Falls, were weekend visitors here with relatives, the Ed Tilleyes, Clarence Nelsons and Marvin and Louise Britt. They were accompanied here by Diane Dennis who showed films at Sunday morning church service that were both interesting and impressive.

Dinner guests with Johnny and Carol Asher Sunday included Robert and Nita Cody, Larry and Kathy Brisbois with Marci and Larry II, the Don Troxells, Alice Deitz, Tuck Jackson and the Donny Petersens.

The Brook Monroes, of Molala arrived for a week's stay at the Don Griffiths in Kahler Basin and joined Eva Griffith and her granddaughter, Glenda, Heppner and the Brian Adams, Prineville who were weekending at the Griffith ranch.

Mrs. Dave Stirewalt was in Redmond and Prineville early in the week attending business and visiting the Dan Stirewalt's in the latter city.

Recently visiting their parents, the Jim Stirewals and other Spray relatives have been Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Parke, Portland, Nancy and Phil Nelson and Milne, Fossil, Dina Epley and children Jimmy, Mark and Dan Dec, Pendleton, Mrs. Gib Daniels with David and Amber, Fort St. John Canada, and the Stirewalt's son Jimmy, home from Pendleton where he is majoring in agriculture at Blue Mountain Community College.

Tracy Warren, Prineville and Jeff Warren, Monument are spending some time here with their grandparents, Wilma and Jack Warren at Service Creek.

Mrs. Warren's sister, Clara Green is recovering from her recent surgery while her husband Bud is confined to his home with a back injury.

Bud is known at Service Creek Cafe for his bread-making, that fried variety dating back to our childhood and better than grandma used to make. Delectable. A quick recovery Mr. Green!

The Ed Kendalls have moved back to Spray from the Winlock area and will occupy the Tuck Jackson house.

Enjoying the hospitality of the Bud Nash home Tuesday evening for dinner and quilting were the Odell Adams, Martina Warren and Mary Williams.

Gene Russell remains in The Dalles Hospital following his accident when he fell from the Kinzua train where he was employed. He sustained a broken wrist and a broken arm; severe head lacerations and a fractured cheek bone. Gene has suffered some complications and will undergo further surgery.

Lacking phrasing befitting a lady of my age, I will say "Right On!" and "Hang in There!" to Sabin Ladd for her written contribution to county interest in the Feb. 6 Times-Journal Editorials.
