

Around The Pot Belly Stove

By Julie Nelson

Word has been received on the death of Paul Meneghe of Forest Grove. Mr. Meneghe was a teacher in the Heppner schools and his wife is the former Alice Montgomery who was a teacher in the Lexington school.

Mabel Ring had a birthday dinner for her sister Ethel Garinger. Ethel celebrated her 82nd birthday with guests Delsie Chapel, Ida Coleman, Doris Gollyhorn, Laura Holtz and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Imel.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yates and daughter Jessica, Pasco, WA, visited overnight with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marv Petersen.

Sorority members met at the home of Monica Swanson to learn about quilting. Mrs. Irene Swanson and Mrs. Lucille Rietmann set up a quilting frame and explained the techniques of quilting; the members then gathered around and sewed. Different varieties of quilts were displayed and discussed.

The Dealing Dozen met at Ione Martins for an evening of pinocle. Tacos were served preceding cards. Winning high was June Crowell, second high Dianne Hams, low Bev Steagall and traveling Julie Nelson. Next month they will meet at Lorene Montgomery's.

The annual Ione Garden Club project of trimming the shade trees along the streets of Ione was carried out Tuesday, Feb. 24 by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ling, Pat Pettyjohn and Eldon Tucker under the direction of Rev. Ed Cutting. Lunch was served to those doing the trimming at the home of Mrs. Wayne Hams by Jean Nelson, Jan Oswald and Vida Heliker.

Thirteen women of the United Church of Christ met Feb. 26 in the social room of the church to make bibs and smocks for the OHTC in Pendleton. Fifty bibs and eleven smocks were finished. During the potluck salad lunch, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse presented a worship program on the subject "What Does the Lord Require of Me in Relation to Others." Plans were discussed for the clothing drive to be held this month.

The Ione Topic Club held its annual tea for the Ione High School senior girls Wednesday, Feb. 25, at the Social Room of the United Church of Christ.

Program for the day included a welcome by Mrs. Van Hubbard, songs "You and Me Against the World" and "When Love is Kind" by Shirlene Burton accompanied by Terry McElligott, the history of the club by Mrs. Norman Nelson, a violin solo "On the Street Where you Live" by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse accompanied by Mrs. Paul Tews and a reading "The Library" from "O Ye Jiggs and Juleps" by Mrs. Van Hubbard.

Guests for the occasion were Teresa McElligott and Mrs. Jerry McElligott, Donna Rea and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Arlynda Aldrich and Mrs. Cliff Aldrich, Lori Bergstrom, Marie Cao and Mrs. Don McElligott, Donna Haynes, and Mrs. Jack Crum, Catherine McElligott and Mrs. Dick McElligott. Loretta Piening was not able to be present because of illness. Other guests were Shirlene Burton, Barbara Stefani and Mrs. William Fluke, PeEll, WA.

Awards were presented to the local winners of the Smokey Bear and Woody Owl environmental poster contest by Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, president of Ione Garden Club. Taking pictures was Mrs. Van Hubbard. The contest is sponsored by the National Garden Club in cooperation with USDA Forest Service.

The 80 posters were made by students in kindergarten through the sixth grade. They are judged on originality, design, slogan, art work, and overall effectiveness of message. All entries were sent to the State Chairman to be judged on district and state level with the winners being announced at the State Garden Club convention in June. The Kindergarten winners are Cathy Martin, first; Patricia Cleminson, second; Holly Humphrey, third, and honorable mention Rondi Tews.

First Grade: Deena Hams, first; Michael Rietmann, second; Klerin Doherty, third and honorable mention Diana Beitel.

Second Grade: Bobby Kinzer, first; Trina Palmer, second; Sandra Silva, third and honorable mention Susan Martin.

Third Grade: Julie Cleminson, first; William Fluke, second; Paul Zinter, third and honorable mention Lori Fettsch.

Fourth Grade: Doug Hogutt, first; Steve Millman, second; Brenda Campbell, third and honorable mention Sylvia Ladd.

Fifth Grade: Charlie Courand, first; Roger Childers, second; Tim Patton, third, and honorable mention Vincent McElligott.

Sixth Grade: Anita Palmer, first; Tammy Holtz, second; Lori Prock, third and honorable mention Michelle LaRue.

MCGG town team defeated Boardman by 20 points, lost to C. Kik and Son by 15 points and won in overtime 87-86 against Hermiston Creamery. With the tournament over they were happy to come home with the third place trophy. Hansel Hogs came in first place and C. Kik & Sons second place. In the five years MCGG has played in the Hermiston League they have won a trophy. They were first, second, third, first and third consecutively.

Lee Padberg was selected for the all star team. Other all stars are Larry Sutherland, Boardman Merchants; Larry Rawe, Hansel Hogs; Skip Weitzel, Hermiston Creamery and Bobby Wright, C. Kik & Son.

There will be a regional tournament at Moro in two weeks.

Ryan Halvorsen, eleven month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halvorsen, was baptized in the Ione United Church of Christ, Sunday, Feb. 29. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halvorsen, Hermiston. A dinner was held at the Frank Halvorsen home and guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Halvorsen and Anjie and Aimee, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Prock and Mark and Lori and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cannon.

Members of the Ione Citizen Involvement Committee will be meeting every other Monday beginning March 1 at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

At the first meeting they met for preparation of time extension requests for the Land Conservation and Development Commission as required.

On March 15 there will be a public meeting for all interested citizens to acquaint all citizens and particularly landholders with requirements and laws concerning zoning and land use.

Committee members are chairman, Fred Martin, secretary, Dorothy Krebs, Mrs. Vera Rietmann, Mrs. Van Hubbard, Gene Rietmann, Cleo Childers, Larry Prock and Gordon Myers.

There will be a Band Marathon this weekend at the high school cafeteria. The band will play for 48 hours beginning Friday night. They will start with a dance open to the public from 8 p.m. to midnight.

Students are now selling pledges and those who do pledge will be admitted free to the dance. An admission fee will be charged for those who haven't purchased pledges.

On Saturday anyone may come to see them and Sunday there will be a potluck dinner in the cafeteria from 7-8 p.m. to wind up the marathon.

Band members are Larry Graham, Stewart and Richard Kenne, Kim Gutierrez and Shirlene Burton.

The tumbling and trampoline show scheduled on March 4 has been changed to March 10. It will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Fifth through tenth grades will perform.

AAUW MEETS SAT. IN SWANSON HOME

The March meeting of the Heppner Branch of the American Association of University Women will begin at 11 a.m. this Saturday at the Jim Swanson home on the highway on the Heppner approach to Ione.

Liz Curtis and Marion Abrams have arranged the day's program which will be concerned with creativity and with a look into future developments.

Pat Edmundson, Heppner, and June O'Connor, Ione, are assisting hostess Monica Swanson with this meeting.

USED BOOKS AND MAGAZINES TO BE SOLD

At its Feb. 25 meeting the Library Board approved plans for the second annual used book and magazine sale at the public library. The sale will begin on Thursday evening, March 11 and will end Sunday afternoon March 21.

Last year's sale helped provide funds for the new children's room.

Bibliophiles from several communities journeyed to Heppner to purchase the surplus books and magazines that were offered last year. Because so many residents have generously given books and magazines to the library this year, and because some of them have replaced older copies, a few were not considered suitable to shelve, and some of the magazines are now rather obsolete. Several tables of varied reading material will be offered for sale.

YOUTH CONSERVATION CORPS RECRUITING

Recruiting for the 1976 Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) will end Mar. 15 according to state recruiter Tom Sullivan.

The program offers summer employment and environmental education to youths between the ages of 15 and 18 in national and state parks and forests in Oregon.

Application forms can be obtained from high school or junior high school counselors and principals, from employment division offices and from other youth-serving agencies. Completed forms should be sent on or before Mar. 15, 1976 to the Governor's Commission on Youth, 555 13th St., NE, Salem 97310.

World Day of Prayer

The global celebration of a World Day of Prayer will involve women of the churches of South Morrow County this Friday afternoon at the Heppner Assembly of God Church. A brief coffee-social time and business meeting will follow the 2 p.m. service.

This year's program was written by the women of Church Women United in central American countries and has been published in both Spanish and English. It is entitled "Education for All of Life." This year is the 90th year that the world-wide Day of Prayer has been celebrated.

Frances Mitchell of the Heppner Christian Church was assisted by Jean Daly

BLUEBIRDS HOLD BANQUET

Seventy fathers, daughters and leaders attended the annual Bluebird Banquet on Feb. 25 at the Methodist Church basement.

The four groups represented were The Sunshine Blue Birds, Thea Maxam leader; The Starlight Blue Birds, Terri Cutsforth leader; The Singing Blue Birds, Jan Stroeber leader and the Smiling Blue Birds, Irene Plocharsky leader.

Potluck dinner was served followed by music presentations by each group.

Blue Birds will be selling Camp Fire Candy in the area starting March 29 at $1.50 a box. Money from this sale goes to the individual clubs and to help equip the Camp Fire campgrounds in Umatilla County.

PYTHIAN SISTERS MEET

Mary D. Wilkins, Condon, and Betty Murdock, Kinzua, were hostesses for the February potluck dinner of Pythian Sisters Temple Conore No. 77. This was the last afternoon meeting of the season. Regular meetings are the third Tuesday of the month. A public card party is held the first Tuesday of each month in the Masonic Hall, Condon.

Spray's TOPS Club reports good attendance. Margaret Ashmeade having attained a KOPS status (Keeping Off Pounds Sensibly). Her club sisters extend a vote of admiration.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Golden Age Club, Elks Lodge, Potluck Dinner	1st Tues., of month, 6:30 p.m.
Chamber of Commerce, Elks Lodge	Mon. noon
Heppner Lions Club
1st & 3rd Tues., Wagon Wheel Boardman Lions Club	6:45 a.m.
1st & 3rd Thurs., Boardman Grange Hall	8 p.m.
Senior Citizens Dinner
Elks Lodge, Tues & Wed.	4:30 p.m.
Boy Scouts of America, Elks San Souci Rebekah Lodge, Heppner, 1st & 3rd Fridays	4:30 p.m.
Social Security Representative, Neighborhood Center
Newcomers Club, 1st Monday	2nd Fri. of mo. 10-noon
Legal Aid, Bank of EO Board Rm.	Wagon Wheel, noon
City Council, 1st Mon. of mo.	2nd & 4th Tues., 1:30-5 p.m.
Ione HH Band Marathon, Ione HH Cafe. Dance or watch Ione Lions Club.	City Hall, 8 p.m.
Beechers Cafe	Fri., Mar 5, 8 p.m.
County Fair Board, Fair Dorm Bldg.	Tues., Mar. 9 & 23, 7 p.m.
Library Board, Columbia Basin Conference Room	2nd Mon. of mo., 7:30 p.m.
	4th Thurs., 8 p.m.

Engaged

Mr. Iris Morley, Kinzua announce the engagement of her daughter, Christine to Donald Springer, Hood River.

The bride to be is a 1971 graduate of Wheeler County High School. She is presently employed at Luhr Jensen in Hood River.

Mr. Springer attended Hood River Valley High School and is presently employed by Neil Creek Mill in Odell.

A May wedding is planned.

MARLETT COMPLETES COURSE AT OSU

Ralph Marlett, Heppner, was one of the 155 persons who completed a special short school at Oregon State University during February.

The annual training session is offered by OSU's School of Engineering as a special service to cities, sanitary districts and private utility companies.

Of the 155 persons attending the short school, 90 were attending for the first time, 40 for the second time and 25 were participating for the third to tenth time.

Protection of public health is the major purpose of the course, along with increasing the efficiency of sewage works systems.

FOR ELKS ONLY

Thurs., Mar. 4
PER-Old Timers Nite
Ladies Cards
Dinner 6:30
Lodge 8 p.m.

Fri., Mar 5
Happy Hour 5-7
Dinner by Jim
Steaks & Seafood
6-8:30 p.m.

Sunday, Mar. 7
ELKDO 1-3
Family Style Dinner
& Pizza
Club Open 12-8 p.m.

Thurs., Mar. 11
Lodge 8 p.m.
Vote on remodeling

Library News

Three outstanding, new Oregon books have been added to the collection at the Heppner Public Library. The two volumes of "Pharisee Among Philistines", the diaries of Judge Matthew P. Deady; the historic series of articles about early Oregon entitled "The Western Shore" are both late 1975 publications of the Oregon Historical Society. The Bookworms presented the Deady Diary to the community.

Robert C. Notson's "Making the Day Begin", the story of the Oregonian newspaper which contains an account of Notson's early life in Lexington, along with "Western Shore" were purchased by the library and are ready for circulation. Notson's book has a 1976 copyright as have six other recently shelved books.

Clarence Cress underwent surgery at Bend's St. Charles hospital Tuesday morning, Feb. 24 and is reportedly doing well.

Heppner High School

Heppner Elementary

Thurs., Mar. 4-beans, lettuce wedge, fruit jello, corn meal buns, butter, milk.

Fri., Mar. 5-cream tuna on something, cabbage salad, fruit crisp, milk.

Mon., Mar. 8-hot dogs, baked beans, vegetable stix, fruit milk.

Tues., Mar. 9- school's choice.

Wed., Mar. 10-spaghetti, celery, cheese stix, french bread, butter, fruit, milk.

Thurs., Mar. 11-rice, meat gravy, cabbage salad, peach, rolls, jelly, milk.

Fri., Mar. 12-toasted cheese sandwiches, salad, dessert, milk.

We'd like to get to know you.

Heppner Branch
FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OREGON

Spring is here... (Almost)

Our shoppe is simply stocked with new spring fashions. Mitzi Tops in the junior sizes. New spring line of house dresses. Pants by Mr. Fine, in the new spring colors, design and styles. Coats, long or short, all weather and designed in the new belted look.

Reminder

Starting Thursday, March 11-14, will be our annual anniversary DUTCH AUCTION

Lebush Shoppe

The shoppe that keeps prices where people will shop at home.

676-5561

NOTICE

of

Power Interruption to Sandhollow Substation Members

of

Columbia Basin Electric Coop on March 5th.

from approximately 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

This power outage is necessary to do needed maintenance on regulator bypass switches.

Sorry for the inconvenience.

Columbia Basin Electric Co-op

COLUMBIA BASIN ELECTRIC COOP—serving 3010 square miles in Umatilla, Morrow, Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler Counties.

676-9146

HEPPNER

Introducing

The newest, most uncomplicated sewing book of the century

136 fact-filled pages, $4.00
Also in stock Pati Palmer's "Pants for Anybody"

Judy's Fabrics & Macrame
278 Main
Phone 676-5106 Hours 9:30-5:30

PREMIUM QUALITY at POPULAR PRICES

Large Grapefruit 2/45c

12 oz. COKE & 7-UP 6 Pak 89c plus deposit

CABBAGE 13c

SPUDS 10 = 79c

Letuce 4 heads for $1.00

APPLES red & golden del., red rome 4 = $1.00

Oregon Chief SMOKED PICNICS 95c

Large whole fresh fryers 59c

Oregon Chief SLAB BACON $1.45

SEAFOOD

DISCOUNT PRICES ON CASE GOODS
Prices effective Mar. 5-6
Court Street Market
We process farm-killed animals
111 N. Court St.
Heppner Or. 676-9643