

Party Line

By Dorothy Zita

It was a pleasant flight and we all had a great time, even saw the show in Sparks, NV were the comments from Susie Cooper. She and her husband Glenn flew down to Reno with Pete and Eddie Skow for a fun weekend.

Jim and Marty Lieuallen and daughter Mary Kay, Adams were Sunday visitors of Kai Healy.

Have you taken a good look at the pictures on the cover of our telephone books? Astronauts using a pay phone; an Indian chief talking on a red phone and the Eskimos phone has icicles on it. Were they meant to be humorous? I'm sure they were.

Judy Rickert is back to work, but Norm is still home, convalescing from his bout with the flu and pneumonia, which landed him in the hospital for a while.

Visiting the Monte Stookys from Baker were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stookey and son Merle.

Our editor, Bob Maxwell is leaving this week for Texas where he and his wife Audrey have bought a newspaper business. This is our first edition without his supervision. Our copywriter quit on us Monday afternoon and we are now waiting for a repairman to arrive. Bob just left after paying us a short morning visit, knowing he didn't have to take the Gazette's problems with him. We are wish you the very best Bob.

A winter sports dessert will be held at Heppner High School, March 18, 7:30 p.m. All parents are asked to bring a dessert.

Here is a problem that we are all happy we don't have. In Alaska the crews on the job sites of the Alaskan pipelines have a problem eating unfrozen food. Seems it is easy to keep food cold, but difficult to cook it when the temperature at the job site does not get above zero degrees. Answer to problem is to pre-cook the food in the kitchens and then freeze it and send it to the workers. When meal time comes, the worker use blow torches to reheat the food and then eat it quickly before it freeze again.

Ray McDuffee of Seal Rock dropped in last Friday to say hello. He talked of the early 1920 days in the wheat harvest fields. The 16 hour days are mentioned the harvest cooking was the highlight with Olive Hughes among the top cooks.

We received a subscription renewal from the Jim Barratts, included was a card introducing him and Dorothy with the Away Travel Service Albany, Corvallis and Eugene OR. Jim is sales manager for the three branches and is general manager of the "Jim Barratt Tours."

The Band parents will meet March 15, at the Heppner High School Band room, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting is scheduled to discuss preparations for the Band Festival, April 2-3 presented by the high school band.

The FFA awards banquet was held last week and Ernie was one of the many invited guests. He came away from the banquet with the highest praise for the students who served as the hosts and hostesses. From the time the guests arrived to the finish of the banquet, they were given the V.I.P. treatment. The chapter officers, Tim Day Ken Grieb, Sandy Bennett Cindy Dougherty, Suzanne Cutsforth, Clay West and advisor Hal Whitaker should be given the credit for the well organized evening.

Friday morning I was going over the school menu to make sure my children were not served the same dinner twice in one day. And that has happened. The menu read "Creamed tuna or something." I haven't asked what the something was. They probably wouldn't remember anyway.

This week starting Wednesday will be the Lebusz Shoppe anniversary and Dutch Auction sale. Of course the sale will start one day before the paper comes out but that's what happens when Virginia and I don't check the dates with a calendar before we write an ad. for the paper. But Virginia is very happy with her sale this year as she has some lovely merchandise.

Carolyn Davis, Morrow County Juvenile Director wants you to know there will be a juvenile advisory meeting Tuesday, March 16. Following the short meeting at 7:30 p.m., an open forum dealing with alcohol and the law will begin at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

On Saturday, March 20, the Rodeo Board will be sponsoring a dance at the Fair Pavilion from 9-1 p.m. The music will be provided by the Mirage. We will be able to dance or listen to Sandy Matheny, as she will be the featured vocalist. Those who are not familiar with Sandy's musical talents, will be pleasantly entertained.

Correction — The Tolt Painting class will be held on Tuesdays, instead of Thursdays, as was incorrectly stated in last weeks paper. The first class will be Tuesday, April 6. Please call Anne Doherty for further information.

We were talking to Lois Allyn, secretary for the Planning Commission Office and she said the second floor personnel of the county courthouse had not been down with the flu. She said "How could we be sick, with Pat Wright right there to take care of us." Pat, what's your secret?

ILLNESS FORCED DROPPING OF THE PRAYER DAY
Here in Heppner, The World Day of Prayer program, an international celebration on March 5, was cancelled because of illnesses and because those who have been successful in avoiding the flu and colds also felt it was best not to gather in large groups. Those who planned this event say that it may take place at a later date at the Assembly of God Church.

BMCC CLASSES
Preregistration continues until March 18 for BMCC evening division classes. The Tale on Tin class still has room for one adult student. Tole is offered Tuesday evenings. Openings are still available in Basic Spoken English (Tues. evenings); Photographic Projects Workshop (Thurs. evenings); French Dessert Workshop (Thurs. evenings); and Beginning Golf (Sat. mornings). Tuition for each class is $15, except French Desserts, a 3 evening workshop, which costs $5, and Golf, a 5-week class, which costs $10.

To preregister, tuition checks made payable to BMCC should be sent to Anne Doherty, PO Box 582, Heppner 97836. Any of the above classes which are not filled by the preregistration deadline of March 18 will be cancelled. Watch for the big B.M.C.C. ad to be published March 18th, for further information, or contact BMCC community coordinator Anne Doherty, 676-5277.

BMCC NEWS

A public hearing on Blue Mountain Community College's 1976-77 operating budget will be held at 7:30 p.m., March 17 in the college Board Room, Pioneer Hall. The total budget approved last week by the budget committee is $3,079,361, an increase of $373,500.

Less than half the total budget figure is to be raised from local taxes, President Ron Daniels said. Total amount to be raised from Umatilla-Morrow county residents is $1,545,259, an increase of $147,290, or 10.5 per cent.

An increase in the true cash value of the college district is expected to reduce the college's general fund tax levy from the current $1.63 per $1000 true cash value to a projected $1.60 per $1000 true cash value, Daniels said.

He also expects the college's building levy to drop from the current 30 cents to 26 or 27 cents per $1000 true cash value. The budget is to be voted on April 20th. Also on the ballot will be three positions on the BMCC Board of Education. Deadline for filing is 5 p.m. March 16.

All three incumbents have stated they will run to retain their posts. They are Bob Rietmann, Ione; Ken Dauble, Weston, and Joe Green, Pendleton. Also a candidate for Green's post is Julianne Sawyer, Pendleton. All vacancies on the Board of Education are at large positions.

Remove crayon marks from linoleum or vinyl tile floors with silver polish. It works even when crayons are dropped and then stepped on.

OOPS! EPA'S GREEN MONSTER TURNS BLUE
Color EPA's "Green Monster" blue. And color the face of the Weekly Bulletin editor red.

In the February 13 issue of the Weekly Bulletin, it was reported that EPA's 35½ ton mobile wastewater decontamination unit would return to Seattle next week to assist the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' efforts to remove the last of the polychlorinated biphenyls (PCB's) that spilled into the Duwamish Waterway 17 months ago. Since its last appearance in Seattle, the unit — nicknamed the "Green Monster" — has undergone a paint job at its home base in Edison, N.J.

BOOKWORM-TOPIC CLUB

DATE IS CHANGED
Because of several who are ill the joint Bookworm-Topic Club evening that was scheduled for March 9 has been re-scheduled for March 16.

It will be held in the Fireplace Room of St. Patrick's, Heppner. Marion Abrams will present the review, and Lucy Peterson, Marian Broanan, Helen Currin and Pauline Hughes will be hostesses. The event will begin at 7:30 p.m.
