Feb. 26 brought to an end a long and enjoyable visit for the Glen Potters, with their daughter and her family, the Robert Langes, with their daughters, Gena and Dawn, from Ocean Springs, Miss. Glen and Betty met their plane at Portland International on New Years Eve when Glenna and her daughters arrived. On Feb. 15 MSGI Robert Lange came from his base at San Antonio, TX to join his family and the Potters for the remainder of their stay here.

They left Thursday for their home in Mississippi where Lange, an instructor in communications, will in three years complete his 20 years in military service.

Enroute home the Langes spent some time in Phoenix, AZ for a visit with Robert's sister.

Diane (Chook) and LeRoy Britt, Pilot Rock, sat down on Roy and Pauline Britt's door step Sunday morning, in that new orange and white whirly job, as jauntily as a butterfly pausing in flight on a rose petal, and a few hours later brought their helicopter to rest in Joanne Griffiths pansy bed, at the Griffith home in Kahler Basin without a hitch.

LeRoy's landings weren't always so accurate when his conveyance was the top (hopefully) of a brahma. One for novel ideas, LeRoy! I knew him when he entertained classmates with weiner roasts in the waste baskets at old Spray High.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cecil returned Monday from a vacation taking them to join Melba's family, her parents, Alfred and Elsie Caldera, her sister, Juanita Medlock and a brother, Marvin all of Coos Bay. Frank Caldera and family and Dean and his family at Reedsport and a sister June McKellan, Brookings. Melba's sisters, Pat and Fairy Mae are both in Germany.
