

Party Line

By Dorothy Zita

"With Spring vacation for the college students started this week, our town will again be full with familiar faces we have missed. Also the local schools will be out for a week, giving our teachers a much needed rest. Some are still recovering from the flu."

The Maryhill Museum, located on the Washington side of the Columbia River, near The Dalles, OR, opened its 1976 season this week and on Nov. 3, this year the museum will mark the 50th anniversary of its dedication by Queen Marie of Rumania. Displays of Indian baskets, Columbia River Indian stone sculpture, and 19th century paintings and sculpture from the permanent collections will be on view. If you are on your way to the valley or would like to spend one day away, the Maryhill Museum would be an interesting place for you and yours to visit.

Home on spring break are Kristi Haguewood, Pacific University and Kelwayne Haguewood, Eastern Oregon State College. LaGrande, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Haguewood.

Merchant's Moonlite Sale is to be held April 1 (April Fool's Day) between the hours of 7-9 p.m. The stores will close at their regular time and re-open at 7 p.m.

Spring is in the air and the thoughts of spring cleaning are now no longer thoughts, but a reality. Driving along the Lexington-Heppner highway I've noticed that Larry Prock is having some extra feet added on Green Feed Store. Also he is adding new merchandise to his store.

The Wagon Wheel Restaurant has been closed for remodeling and should be re-opening soon.

Word has been received that Mildred Cloury, who was Dr. McMurdo's nurse is now convalescing at the Good Shepherd Hospital, Hermiston from a heart attack.

Rusty and Frances Orwick, Condon were Sunday visitors at Gene and Dona Orwick's home, Lexington.

George and Virginia Stillman have returned from a two week vacation near Yuma, AZ where they met Orville and Barbara Cutsforth. They then traveled the country artifact hunting and enjoying the desert scenes that Arizona offers.

Alice Soward (Mrs. Earl) of Lexington was released from Pioneer Memorial Hospital last Sunday afternoon. She has been there recovering from injuries she suffered when she fell down steps Mar. 3 at the Soroptimist Luncheon meeting.

Mrs. Soward is employed as office manager at the Farley Motor Co., Heppner.

NOTICE

Notice of Meeting LCDC March 24 at 8 p.m. at the City Hall. All citizens invited to this open meeting.

Ronald Calvin Sherman, Heppner, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Finance during the University of Oregon's winter term commencement exercises, March 12.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sherman, Heppner.

On Tuesday, March 23, 9 a.m., the Heppner Child Development Center will have a professional photographer in to take pictures of your children. These pictures are similar to the ones taken at the schools. There is no age limit for the child and no obligation to buy the pictures.

For those who are interested, please call the center, 676-9246 for an appointment.

A band festival will be held April 2-3 with the Heppner band acting as hosts. A concert will be presented April 3, 7:30 p.m. Conductors will come from Salem and Portland to conduct the concert with students coming from various schools in Eastern Oregon to compete in the concert. Residents of the Heppner area are asked if they would make arrangements to house the students who will be in Heppner for the festival. Approximately 80 outside students will be participating in the events.

We have received notice the copy we received last week on BMCC evening division classes was incorrect.

The copy should have read "Basic Spoken Spanish" instead of "Basic Spoken English."

This class will be conducted on Tuesday evenings.

Palmer-Gutierrez

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN GUTIERREZ

Barbara Ann Palmer became the bride of Kevin George Gutierrez in a Saturday afternoon ceremony at St. Williams Catholic Church, Ione, with Father O'Brien officiating. The church pews were decorated with white bows and small blue flowers in the center. White and blue carnations graced the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer. The groom is the son of George Gutierrez and Mrs. Helen Drake.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a long A-line gown of white satepeau, with a fitted bodice and high neckline. Her long train cathedral veil was edged in alencon lace, matching the trim on her gown. She carried a cascade of blue and white carnations on a white Bible.

Diane Walchli, college friend of the bride, was matron of honor. Debra and Donna Palmer, twin sisters of the bride were the bridesmaids. The attendants wore long blue dresses with attached capes trimmed in white lace. They carried long stemmed white carnations tied with blue ribbon.

Candlelighters were Anita Palmer, sister of the bride and Craig Gutierrez, brother of the groom. Anita wore a long white dress with blue flowers and trimmed with white lace. Craig wore a blue and white plaid jacket and dark pants, matching the men in the wedding party.

Kim Gutierrez was best man. Ushers were Kent Gutierrez, brother of the groom and Mike Huddleston, friend of the groom.

The wedding music was played by Rikka Tews with Mike Warren singing "There Is Love" and "A Time for Us."

The bride's mother wore a floor length blue gown with a lace jacket. The groom's mother wore a long floral polyester dress.

The wedding reception was held at the United Church of Christ with the hall decorated in blue and white flowers and candles.

Pouring the punch were Mrs. Lincoln Nash, Heppner and Mrs. Marion Palmer, Ione, grandmothers of Barbara and Kevin. Mrs. Lyle Jensen, LaGrande and Mrs. Bob Parsons, Beaverton, aunts of the bride. Attending the gift table were Carol Holtz and Gayle McNary. Kathy Gutierrez, sister of the groom attended the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Gutierrez will reside in Pendleton where Barbara is attending beauty school and Kevin works for the Union Pacific Railroad, Hinkle.

The couple are Ione High School graduates. Barbara was a princess on the 1975 Morrow County Rodeo Court.
