This Friday afternoon when we take ourselves to the grocery store, we will be greeted by one of the Morrow County CowBelles, promoting beef sausage by serving samples to us. Less calories too.

Anne Doherty stopped in to announce that the first tennis class will be held Wednesday, March 31, 7 p.m. at the Jr. High Gym. She hopes that you can make it as it looks like the classes are going to be full and there will not be room left for anyone that does not attend this first class.

Also, there seems to be a slight rush in the completion of Dennis and Ann's newly remodeled home on Piper Canyon, Lexington. Their second child is due around the first of April, and the contractor has promised that they will be moved in before the stork arrives. Wonder what the odds would be, if I were a betting person.

However, with only 24 hours warning Ron and Peggy Brittner were parents of a second son, Leonard Eugene. The Brittners were called from Baker on Saturday, March 24 and informed there was a baby for them and they could pick him up on Sunday.

Leonard was born March 15 and weighed 6 lbs. 13 oz. He has light brown hair and is dearly loved by his older brother Teddy, and a delight to his parents.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Brittner, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fickardt, Torrance, CA. Great grandparents are Mr. L.B. Weed, Coeur d' Alene, ID.

Celebrating their 32nd wedding anniversary at Beecher's Cafe Monday evening with friends were Bud and Harriet Batty.
