Log truckers win honors

Janice Plumb and Rory Stillman

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Plumb, Corvallis, OR, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janice, to Rory Stillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stillman, Heppner.

Janice is a graduate of Siuslaw High School, Florence, OR and Rory is a graduate of Heppner High School.

Mr. Stillman is serving in the U.S. Navy, Mira Mar, CA. Miss Plumb is attending Pacific Christian College, Fullerton, CA. A June wedding is planned at Corvallis.

The Oregon Log Truckers Association (OLTA) honored hundreds of log truckers from its various chapters throughout Oregon last weekend, bestowing safety awards in two categories.

"The total of recipients (eight top awards and 383 certificates of recognition) this year set a record for our 15 year old organization and reflects a strong safety consciousness," said Safety Committee Chairman Frank Berns, Roseburg.

Honorees were recognized at the OLTA Spring Conference at Eugene's Valley River Inn, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 26, 27 and 28.

The four winners of the top industrial safety awards—those who showed the finest safety records of all within their various size-of-ownership categories—were Kenneth L. Boring Trucking Co., of Forest Grove; Gene Whitaker, Inc., of Wilbur; D & F Logging, of Elkton; and D & R Trucking Co., Hood River.

Traffic Safety top awards went to Vincent Spenner of Sublimity; Bly Logging of Klamath Falls; FJM Trucking of Roseburg and Chester Graf, Myrtle Creek.

Among those receiving Industrial Safety Certificates from the northeastern Oregon Chapter were: Lester Grasser, Heppner; Norman Paulus, Heppner; Robert Volle, Irrigon.

The awards are an integral part of the annual conference and reflect perfect safety performance for the year 1975.

LOCAL SCHOOL COMMITTEE STUDY

The Morrow County School District local long range planning committee for the Boardman-Irrigon area will hold a special meeting on March 31, 8 p.m. at Riverside High School, Boardman.

The Morrow County School Board has asked the committee to consider the future use of school property in the Boardman area.

The district's concern has been prompted by a number of requests for lease or purchase of school district property and by additional plans that have been advanced for the development of the City of Boardman by Oregon Potato, Inc.

The O.P.I. plan has proposed a neighborhood school concept for future school development in Boardman. The school district board has generally favored a campus type arrangement centered around the present Riverside Jr.-Sr. high school.

This committee is also expected to consider future school needs in Irrigon.

The call is out to singers, dancers, and other performers all over Oregon, as auditions begin for the state's oldest and best-known talent showcases.

The Oregon State Fair's All-Oregon Talent Show is seeking performers of all types and ages for its 1976 edition. A "sincere desire to perform and entertain" is the only requirement for entrants, says Talent Show Coordinator John Rietz.

Auditions will be held across the state during April, says Rietz. Location and date for tryouts in Eastern Oregon will be held at The Dalles, April 19.
