The Walkathon was a great success. Mayor Sweeney was not to be out done, nor let those who put money on the "Horse", get away without paying it to the March of Dimes. County Commissioner Warren McCoy, Irrigon, walked ten miles taking the place of Judge Paul Jones. Mike Sweeney walked with them as the unofficial county witness. Dean Hunt walked the twenty miles with over eight dollars a mile on him. Dean didn't show up for bowling Monday evening. To all who made the March of Dimes Walkathon (you kids too) three cheers and hats off to you.

Jack Van Winkle's Sears Store is celebrating its 5th birthday this Friday and Saturday. Jack has a door prize and other free gifts. They will be serving coffee and cookies, and you're invited to help Sears celebrate their birthday.

I can't help but think, that when they set the clocks back this Sunday, Bill Weatherford still won't know what time to get up in the morning. Will it be four or five a.m. Bill?

Met Dr. Tibbles buying paint. For a man who has been in retirement for six months now he looks like it is agreeing with him. Fishing season hasn't opened yet, and Dr. was complaining the opening date was too late this year.

Curtis Culp, a former state policeman here, was a visitor last weekend at the Bob Jones home. Curtis and his family are now farming in Canada.

The Heppner Swim Team Association will be holding a Rummage Sale at the Gilliam & Bisbee Building Friday and Saturday. Sharon Biddle has reported they have TV sets, a desk, chairs, cameras, Bicentennial items and lots of clothes. Also, after 1 p.m. on Saturday for one dollar, you will be handed a paper bag and all you can fill in the bag, you can keep.

The Agri-Rama held at the Elks Lodge this Tuesday drew a large number of women. Tables were set up displaying the wares of the wheat, sheep, beef and potato industries. We tasted wheat sprouts made into a dip, wheat used in a salad, lamb salami, beef sausages, french fries, and they all were very good. The Potato Board gave out a cook book titled "The Potato Lover's Diet Cookbook" which when I start to use it, it might put potatoes back on our table. The first recipe will be "potato waffles." Now the beef sausage recipe will definitely be used. All in all it was a fun and interesting hour. I was sorry I couldn't stay for the afternoon program.

Steve and Diane Partlow, Boardman, Easter dinner guests were Tom and Cathy Cutsforth, Corvallis, Lucia Barrett, Lexington, Alta Cutsforth and Barbara and Orville Cutsforth, Heppner.

With the Kinzua's temporary layoff, more people are seen on the streets. I didn't realize that so many mothers of small children were employed by the plywood division. Makes our town look busy.

Morrow County Pomona Grange will meet Saturday, April 24, 10:30 a.m., at the Rhea Creek Grange Hall. The Lecturer's Hour which is open to the public, begins at 1:30 p.m. and will celebrate Pomona's first 50 years in Morrow County. There will be reports on beginnings and happenings of subordinate Granges during the past 50 years in Morrow County.

GIRLS SOFTBALL LEAGUE TO START

The Willow Creek Girls Softball League is scheduled to begin play on May 8. Volunteers for officiating are desperately needed. The League would like to give some training sessions and establish an officials pool, but they need willing bodies from both Heppner and Ione.

Any interested person, including high school guys and girls, please call Martha Doherty, 676-5398.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones and Bobby, Camp 5, were Heppner visitors Tuesday.

Miss Maness graduated from Frankfurt American High School in West Germany. She also attended the University of Maryland in Munich, West Germany and will graduate from Athens State College, Athens, AL in June. Mr. Nelson is a 1972 graduate of Oregon State University in Agricultural Crop Science. He served with the U.S. Forces in Europe. He is presently in business with his father who operates a wheat ranch.

The wedding will take place June 19, 2 p.m. in the new Bicentennial Chapel at Redstone Arsenal with the father of the bride officiating.

GARDEN MEMBERS HAVE TERRARIUM WORKSHOP

Most of the 12 members who attended the April 12 meeting of the Heppner Garden Club constructed terrariums. The information and guidance for the building of these terrariums was given by Marvin Zimmerman, Gilliam County extension agent.

After a short lecture, he passed out three pages of guidelines with careful instruction regarding terrarium construction, choice of containers, soil selection, drainage, recommended plants, planting procedure and care of terrariums. He then proceeded to demonstrate the techniques he uses in building terrariums. He helped each one with suggestions and advice as they arranged their displays. This workshop was preceded by a short business meeting during which the coming Blue Mountain District No. 10 meeting in Pendleton, April 24

Rhea 40th Anniversary

More than 100 friends and relatives gathered to help Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rhea observe their fortieth wedding anniversary at the Masonic Temple, April 11 at Echo.

Present for the occasion were the Rhea's four children: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klenke, (Carlene), Erika and Rian, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelley, (Sandy), Harry Carl and Janie, Albany; Steve and Lori, Lexington.

The guest book, attended by Lori Rhea, was centered by a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers, a gift from the Gary Grieb family. The Rheas have been employed by the Griebs for 21 years.

The serving table was lovely, centered by a white three-tiered cake, decorated with pink roses and topped by a silver 40.

Those cutting cake and serving punch and coffee during the afternoon were Mrs. Rhea's sister, Lois Beaudoin; Norma Null, Betty Hansel, Gladys Harding, Roberta Campbell and Fay Pierce. Also helping were Mr. Rhea's sisters, Mary Ashbeck and Marie Hedrick; and the Rhea's daughters, Carlene Klenke and Sandra Kelley.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea were married on Easter Sunday, April 12, 1936, at the Methodist parsonage in Pendleton by the Rev. Walter Gleiser. Four guests who were present at their wedding 40 years ago were also at the gathering: Lee Connors, Arlington; Norma Null, Hermiston; Mary Ashbeck and Ralph Isackson, both of Pendleton.

TOUR GROUP WILL LUNCH AT CECIL

The touring group will travel as close as possible along the Old Oregon Trail from Pendleton through Echo and on through Morrow and Gilliam Counties to the place where the pioneers crossed the John Day River before turning homeward.

They plan to lunch at Cecil and to view the new museum being installed in the old store there. They have invited members of the Morrow County Historical Society and friends to join them there.

Delpha Jones, Morrow County Society President, states a committee of Morrow folks will meet soon to make arrangements for this visit and luncheon.
