Francine Evans, Irrigon, has been appointed to serve a three year term on the Oregon 4-H Advisory Council, representing District XII, Morrow, Gilliam, Grant, Umatilla and Wheeler counties. She will attend the spring meeting in Corvallis, April 29-30.

Francine has been an active 4-H leader for a number of years, currently leading three clothing clubs with members from Boardman and Irrigon. In addition, she is involved in many county and community projects involving youth. The state 4-H Advisory Council is the overall group which makes decisions and recommendations concerning the entire 4-H program in Oregon.

MAKE AND TAKE T-SHIRT WORKSHOP FOR 4-H GIRLS

A special workshop for 4-H members on making T-shirts will be taught Tuesday afternoon, May 4, 4 p.m. at the Sewing Room, Judy's Fabrics, Heppner.

Those interested in participating are asked to call the Extension Office, 676-9642 and register to attend, as the workshop will accommodate only a limited number. Members will receive help and instruction on construction techniques, and may actually make a shirt in the workshop if they wish. Those wishing to make a T-shirt should bring their sewing machine, fabric, pattern and sewing notions.

MORROW GIRL TO JAPAN

Bobbie Devine, Heppner, has received notice of departure plans for Japan for the Oregon 4-H Japan Labo exchange this summer. Plans call for a flight out of Eugene, Monday, July 19 and return via San Francisco August 21.

Bobbie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bloodsworth, will be one of 12 young 4-H members from Oregon who will spend approximately one month with a host family in Japan, living and learning the Japanese culture. The group will be accompanied by Lois Redman, state 4-H youth specialist and Bob Alger of Lakeview.

Recently all the 4-H members who will be traveling to Japan met for an orientation meeting in preparation for the trip. Now that plans are finalized, those who will be going will be busy learning some of the Japanese language, preparing scrapbooks on Oregon and their part of the state, and other informational materials to help them serve as ambassadors of good will from Oregon.

MINI COLLEGE TIME AGAIN

The 1976 Mini College for Homemakers, June 21-15, is your time to learn together. Mini-college is your time... it's a time to set aside the day-to-day work and activities and to investigate a subject you've been wanting to know more about, whether it is legal rights of women, or how to make a quilt... and a multitude of subjects in between. Plan now to spend a week in the college atmosphere at Oregon State University, Corvallis.

While Corvallis can't promise perfect weather, the mini-college does promise a program that will challenge you to think about familiar subjects in different ways, introduce you to new views of the world around you and help you meet women of similar interests from all over Oregon.

Mini College is open and available to all, with registration forms available at Extension offices. Costs have been kept at a minimum with full fee for room, board and registration just $50 for the week.

Pre-registration is required to attend, with a due date of May 29. Should some emergency prohibit attendance after registering, the fee will be returned. Registrations should be sent in just as soon as possible, according to Birdine Tullis, Morrow Program Assistant, as the more popular classes both in the core and creative class areas fill fast. Be sure to list first, and second choices, she cautions.

Just a call to 676-9642 will bring a registration form to you by mail, or you may come by the Extension Office in Heppner and pick up your copy. Do it soon.

IRRIGON NEWS

Frances Rose Wilson

A utility maintenance man has been hired in Irrigon, under the Comprehensive Training Act, which is funded by the government until July. The community has grown until a full time worker is needed, according to Mayor Chester Wilson.

An ordinance was adopted during the April Council meeting authorizing a tax base election in the May primary. The move was made because of projected budget requirement for the coming year which would require a vote of residents because of an amount proposed requiring taxes outside the six per cent limitation.

Taxes levied in the present budget for city operation were in the amount of $2253 the highest in the past 3 years because the tax base for next years budget. The levy was based on $1.31 per $1,000 evaluation.

The proposed new tax base is $15,000 which should not be fully utilized for several years under present operational levels. Yearly increased evaluation of the city through new growth may more than offset future requirements. If fully utilized immediately it would require a levy of $8.80 per $1,000 or an increase over last year of $7.49 per $1,000.

The budget increase would assure future employment of the Utility Maintenance man when CETA funds are depleted. The proposed amount of increase this year is $3 per $1,000.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Partlow during the Easter weekend was their daughter and her classmate of Seattle Pacific College, Jolinda Mostad, of Honolulu, Hawaii. Easter Sunday dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. Forde Mills and sons of Hermiston.
