

Around The Pot Belly Stove

By Julie Nelson

The junior-senior banquet was held the evening of April 23. "Philadelphia Freedom" was the theme with bicentennial decorations throughout the room. The invocation was given by the Rev. Bill Graham. The dinner was prepared by the mothers of the junior class and was served by sophomores Dennis Thompson, Rick Gilbert, Brian Rietmann, Carol McElligott, Natalie Tews and Susan Thompson.

Monica Swanson and Madeline Buckendorf spent Thursday through Saturday in Eugene for the AAUW State Convention.

Mrs. Linda LaRue and Mrs. Julie Nelson spent last weekend in Corvallis for the Epsilon Sigma Alpha State Convention.

Linda was voted State Parliamentarian and was installed, along with the other new officers, Saturday evening prior to the banquet. She took office at Sunday's general assembly.

Their husbands Del LaRue and Ken Nelson accompanied them.

Enroute to Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. LaRue stopped in Portland to visit her brother Butch Winters.

On the way home Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nelson spent Sunday night in Salem visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lyle John and family and Mr. and Mrs. Milian Whittier and family. They returned home Monday.

The Dealing Dozen Pinocle Club met at the home of Margo Sherer. The high prize went to Nancy Leavitt, second high to Bev Steagall and low to Marilyn Childers.

Mr. Ray Heimbigner spent two days in Bend as a spectator at the National Champion Pool Tournament. He had the opportunity to chat with Minnesota Fats and received his autograph.

Mr. Heimbigner is spending a few days with her new granddaughter in Portland.

CWA, Willows Grange, will meet at the home of Wilma Martin, Condon, May 7. The luncheon will begin at 12:30 and members are to bring a salad or dessert.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea and Christopher and Gary went to LaGrande Wednesday to visit her brother John Howton. He is recovering from spinal surgery and is doing fine.

Queen Arylinda Aldrich and King Skye reigned over the junior-senior prom on the evening of April 24. Crown bearers were J.J. Osmin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Osmin and Gary Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea. Music was by Jade.

A marvelous job of decorating was done by the junior class members (and some seniors too) and their advisor Marv Petersen. They chose the theme "How the West was Won." Old barn siding was along the walls and caricatures of the senior class students were framed and hung on the walls. Tables were built out of cable spools and sold after the prom. Also a bar was built with eighth graders Robin LaRue, Tammie Shimp, Kim Pettyjohn and Todd Sherer pouring punch from behind it. The punch was served in beer glasses and each person at the prom was allowed to take their glass home as a souvenir.

Following the prom breakfast was served at the American Legion Hall by the parents of the junior-senior class.

Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn and Mrs. Charles Doherty took Joan Doherty, Debra Palmer and Terry McElligott to Athena for a tea held in honor of the Girl's State Delegates. Joan and Debra are lone's delegates and Terry will be a junior counselor.

Cards win on road

The lone Cardinals traveled to Maupin last Saturday to meet the Wasco Redsides. The Cards came home with a 9-8 win and a share of the CBC West lead. The win tied the Cards and the Sherman County Huskies for the 1st place spot.

It was a hard fought contest with the Cardinals scoring the winning run in the top of the 7th inning and then hanging on for the victory.

Joe Rietmann pitched 6 innings for the winners striking out 9 batters before Kim Gutierrez took over the mound in the 7th inning.

Boosting their batting average for the Cards were Rietmann with 3 hits, Gutierrez with 2 hits and Bob Gates with a triple.

On Friday, April 30, the Cards traveled to Condon for a 12-2 victory in 3 innings. Getting the mound duty was Kim Gutierrez who also had 3 hits for the day. He allowed 4 walks and struck out 7 in 5 innings. Other players getting hits for the winners were Bob Gates 2, Todd Peterson, Dan Akers, Joe Rietmann and Tim Cheney with one each.

The next action for the Cardinals was Tuesday, May 4, when the Cards had a showdown with the Sherman Huskies at lone.

The winner of this game will have sole possession of first place in the CBC West.

Friday, May 7, the Cards will host the Heppner Mustangs.
