Cards Win Pair

The Ione Cardinals won two crucial baseball games last week, beating the Sherman Huskies 10-9 Tuesday and downing the Heppner Mustangs 3-1 on Thursday.

Joe Rietmann pitched the win against the Huskies, allowing seven hits, striking out seven and giving up three walks. The Cardinals had four hits for the contest, two being home runs by Rietmann and Kim Gutierrez. The others were a triple by Skye Krebs and a single by Dan McElligott. The Cardinals broke a 9-9 tie in the bottom of the seventh inning on three Sherman errors.

Thursdays game with Heppner was another close one with Kim Gutierrez getting the victory. Gutierrez allowed the Mustangs four hits, struck out eleven and walked three.

The Cardinals put together five hits and played flawless defense until the sixth inning when the lone error in the game for the Cards accounted for the Mustang score. Todd Peterson poked a two run homer for the Cards in the third inning to break a scoreless tie. Others hitting for the Cards were Kevin McCabe and Joe Rietmann, triples and doubles for Gutierrez and Tim Cheney.

Next action for the Cards is the final league contest against Wasco County, Thursday, May 13. This contest will be in Ione at 4 p.m. It is a must game for the Cards as they must win in order to represent the West side of the league in the district playoffs.

STATE MEASURES

REFERRED TO THE PEOPLE BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

1. EXPANDS VETERANS' HOME-FARM LOAN ELIGIBILITY—Purpose: Amends constitutional provisions relating to eligibility of veterans to receive home and farm loans from the Oregon War Veterans' Fund, extending eligibility to any World War II veteran resident in Oregon with at least two years Oregon residence after separation from service before December 31, 1965 (now 1952), and to veterans with service after January 31, 1960, resident in Oregon and with two years' Oregon residence before May 1, 1977.
- YES
- NO

2. DISCIPLINE OF JUDGES—Purpose: Amends constitutional section providing that Supreme Court may remove a judge from office for certain misconduct, by adding authority of Supreme Court to suspend or censure as well as remove judge. Present grounds for discipline (felony conviction, failure to perform judicial duties, habitual drunkenness, illegal drug use) are expanded to also include willful misconduct in office related to performance of judicial duties, general incompetence, and willful violation of any rule of judicial conduct.
- YES
- NO

3. HOUSING BONDS—Purpose: Authorizes bonds up to one-half of one percent of true cash value of taxable property in state to provide funds for advances to lending institutions and qualified housing sponsors to stimulate the state's economy and provide multifamily housing for the benefit of elderly households, such bonds to be paid from revenues generated by the advances and ad valorem taxes.
- YES
- NO

ESTIMATE OF FINANCIAL EFFECTS: Based on an estimate of Oregon's 1976 taxable property, this constitutional amendment would establish a maximum bonding limitation of $185 million to provide additional financing of multifamily housing for the benefit of elderly households.

4. AUTHORIZES VEHICLE TAX MASS TRANSIT USE—Purpose: Amends constitutional provision relating to use of motor vehicle fuel taxes and taxes on ownership, operation and use of motor vehicles to permit a tax on ownership, operation and use of motor vehicles levied by a transit district to be used for transportation of passengers.
