

SPRAY NEWS

Highlighting the enjoyment of Mother's Day in the Village Sunday was the ham dinner served at the high school lunch room from 12 noon to 3:30 p.m., honoring the mothers and the proceeds benefiting Spray's rodeo queen candidate, Zorieta Potter.

Zorieta wishes to take this opportunity to thank members of her family and extend a special thanks to Myrna Gervais and Margaret Ashmead for their work in the preparation and serving the meal to the more than 150 people present. Also to the many others for their donations and assistance.

Glen and Betty Potter, Service Creek spent the Mother's Day weekend traveling to The Dalles, Yakima and Pasco, WA., and in Hermiston, where they visited the Buford Bridgewater, former Spray residents.

Recent guests at the Potters have been Betty's sister, Helen Harrison with her daughter Deann, Enterprise, the ladies mother, Elizabeth Humphrey, and Nella Britt, with infant daughter, Sarah, Fossil.

The Bill Potters, Service Creek, spent the Sunday holiday with Judy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Myers, Condon.

The Hubert Ashers have been in Portland this week. Goldie is getting along nicely following her recent accident. A short stay in the hospital was necessitated however for treatment of an infection.

Wednesday visitors with Mimi Williams were her daughters and families, the Al Wileys and granddaughter Libby Dawn Britt, Echo, and the W.C. Freemans, Fossil.

The Freemans have enjoyed their daughter, Marsha Lyn and their grandsons, Josh and Matthew Bogle from Klamath Falls over the weekend.

The Senior Citizen advisory board met Monday at the Grange Hall when George Dunn and Lois Hunt, Fossil, and the district advisor from Pendleton were present for a discussion concerning the ensuing years budget for the tri-counties. Fifteen people attended.

Alice Deitz, Carol Asher and son Frankie were in Heppner Tuesday for business and shopping.

Cora Burnside's house guests this week included her son George and his family, Heppner, the Clyde Steagalls, Spokane, WA, Virginia and Jack Sitton, Kinzua; the Lloyd Humphreys, Hardman; and Lola Breeding, Irrigon.

On Tuesday Mrs. Breeding accompanied Mrs. Burnside to Pendleton for shopping and medical appointments.

Pauline and Maxine Nichols and son Brodie are here visiting the George Nichols from Council, ID.

Mr. and Mrs. Odell Adams were in Kennewick for the holiday at the home of their daughter, the George Shens and at the Frank Adams home there.

The flea market-sponsored by the Legion and Ladies Auxiliary Sunday, May 9 was well attended and reportedly a success.

The hall's interior is responding attractively to the diligent work of the members in carpentry, remodeling and general refurbishing and will soon be ready for use, they state.

Sunday, May 23 has been set for a cleanup day at Haystack Cemetery. Those interested are asked to bring cleanup equipment and a sack lunch.

Mrs. Ron Brisbois and daughter Nikki Jo and her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Britt, Condon, spent a few days in Hermiston last week at the home of her sister and family, the Dean Coutures. Kate Dunn, Boardman, joined her mother and sisters there and enjoyed a dinner Tuesday evening in observance of her birthday.

On Thursday evening, while having dinner with her three daughters at Hermiston's Pizza Inn, Mrs. Britt was surprised when she was presented with a birthday cake and a vocal rendition of Happy Birthday by the management.

Mick and Ella Chapman are here from Pilot Rock visiting Mick's mother, Edith and the Billy Chapmans, Gus Streckers and Bob Waldens.
