

Kinzua softball team wins 5-2

Kinzua's softball team came from behind in the fourth inning and scored five runs in the next three innings to beat Echo, 5-2, last Tuesday night at Lexington ball park.

Echo broke the scoreless game in the bottom of the fourth when they scored two runs. Kinzua came back in the 5th scoring one run. In the sixth, and seventh Kinzua scored two runs in each inning.

Kinzua now has a 2-1 record in the Hermiston slow-pitch softball league. They lost their opening game to Midway and won by forfeit to Lambs the previous week.

This marks the second year a Heppner team has been represented in the league. The league consists of twelve teams: Kinzua, Smitty's, Erico, Lambs, Valley Aviation, PKS, Navy, Midway, Marlette, Echo, Gourmet and Hermiston Herald. The league ends August 5.

Games will be played Tuesdays through Thursday at either the Hermiston High School field or at the ball park in Lexington. Games at Lexington will begin at 7 p.m. The next home games for Kinzua will be Thursday, May 20 with Gourmet and Wednesday, May 26 against Smitty's.

Flags and Sunbonnets Enliven Sale

Bargain hunters and luncheon customers found the Methodist's Bicentennial Lawn Sale last Saturday a lively, colorful event. The old church bell announced the opening of the sale at 9:30 a.m. Flags flew, sunbonnetted ladies in long dresses were seen everywhere.

The large selection of baked goods and the pioneer-style luncheon attracted a good response. Antique items offered for sale were unusual as were the cotton sunbonnets and cemetery pieces. The large selection of house plans offered by Rev. Cutting sold well. A few sunbonnets and

Kindergarten Registration

Parents are invited to bring their children who will be eligible for kindergarten next fall in to pre-register at Heppner Elementary School. Children must be 5 years of age before November 15, 1976, in order to be eligible to start in September.

The pre-registration is needed to assign students to either the morning or afternoon class and for parents to pick up needed health forms.

Pre-registration times are set for 8:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 3:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon.

Gary Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Todd celebrated his 11th birthday with a slumber party at his home in Camp 5 on Saturday and Sunday. The boys enjoyed swimming as well as the usual party fun. Guests were Justine Williamson, Tim Fisher, Mike Van Arsdale, Randy Paullus, Jeff Orr, Charlie Courrod, Andy Samples and Terry Fisher.

Girl Scouts from the Kinzua Junior Troop, the Fossil Senior Troop, the Fossil Cadet Troop and the Fossil Junior Troop went to Kah-nee-ta Friday afternoon after school.

Accompanied by Sharon Kendall and Pat McMinn, Kinzua and Marilyn Garcia and Sue McClure, Fossil, the girls enjoyed the beautiful weather for a weekend of swimming and all the other features of the Indian resort. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Raymond Reid and Chuck Mitchell, Kinzua, both won second places in their divisions at the Oregon State Championship Snowmobile races held at Mt. Bachelor last weekend. Reid's second place was in the Men's Open Stock Amateur Class, Chuck Mitchell won his second place in the Mens 400 Superstock Amateur class. Both Ray and Chuck, who are sponsored by Kinzua Corporation, won a second and third place in the day race in their classes to complete a good meet.

Mrs. Betty Larangel and grandsons Dan, Donnie and Shawn Benson went to The Dalles Tuesday for eye care for the boys.

Arriving Friday to spend the weekend with the Gordon Orr family was Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams, Sisters. The Orrs and Williams enjoyed going mushroom hunting before the Williams went home Sunday.

Lance and Hollie Van Meter and Clayton arrived Friday morning to spend some time visiting with Lance's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pike.

Mr. Earl Norris went to Pendleton Saturday to take care of some business.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwen Sharp and children Gwendolyn, Mickey and Randy were accompanied by Steve Carnes when they went to John Day and Dayville this weekend. They did some sightseeing and some work on their house before returning to Kinzua.

Raymond and Deena Reid went to The Dalles Monday to have the Kinzua ambulance worked on.

LDee Larangel is here to spend a few days at his parents home while he is recovering from the chicken pox. He hopes to return to his home in Heppner soon.

4-H Horse show date changed

A 4-H horse tune-up session that was previously scheduled for this Friday has been changed to Saturday, May 22, starting at 4 p.m. at the Morrow County Fair Grounds, Heppner. All 4-H members, leaders and parents are invited to attend this pre-horse show training session.

Classes in English Riding, Western Horsemanship and showmanship will be offered. All members will be judged and comments made on their performance. This should provide an excellent opportunity for members to obtain help before the upcoming horse show to be held in August.

Hot dogs and punch will be provided with small fry and junior members asked to bring potato chips and intermediate and senior members to bring cookies or dessert.
