Spray Rodeo May 29-30

Spray's Annual Rodeo is in the air and preparations are such that the Village will not be caught unaware May 29-30.

The grounds, under the able supervision of Bob Ashmead throughout the past months is in better condition than in many years and, states Association president, Tuck Jackson, the arena is in great shape for "seeding cowboys." Neatly put, Mr. President, straight from the voice of experience, but you may have a bunch of apprehensive participants on your hands.

The Powder River equipment, an $1,800 package, has been delivered and workmen will complete installation within the next week.

The Legion will operate a refreshment stand on the grounds, with Frank Robison in charge and Legion members will serve a buckaroo breakfast Sunday morning at the hall.

High School students will again be in charge of the Hamburger Hut and Art Stephens, veteran of 27 years at the gates will be on hand with his crew, Billy Chapman, Mick Chapman, Alex Adams, Bud Nash, Jack Ashmead, Wally Gervais and Loren Delaney.

Ralph McNulty, this year's announcer, comes from Sisters, as does the Sombrero Stock Contractors.

Tuck Jackson will again announce the parade and marathon.
