BIBLE SCHOOL

CORRECTION

The fees for the Methodist Bible School are as follows: $3 per child or $6 (special rate for families with three or more children).

The Lone United Church of Christ will hold its Vacation Bible School, at the Education Building, June 14-18 from 8:45-11:30 a.m.

Youngsters from 3-6 years of age are invited to attend. Registration fee is $1 per child or $2 per family.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Daily Vacation Bible School will be held at the Lexington Church of Christ. School will run June 7-11, with classes from 9-11 a.m.

The theme of the Bible School is "Jesus Sets Us Free." Besides the study of God's word there will also be craft classes, recreation and refreshments.

Pre-kindergarten through junior high school students are invited to attend.

Heppner counted

A six-man survey team will conduct an actual head count of the residents within the City of Heppner, beginning next Monday or Tuesday. This was the word received from Jim Stephenson, physical planner of the ECOAC.

The team will go door to door, presenting the required identification to the people and will ask questions regarding the construction of the homes, the type of homes they would like to see constructed in Heppner, questions regarding employment and the various needs of persons over the age of 55. Senior citizens will also be asked questions concerning their various activities in the community.
