

Party Line

The 10th day of June, school has been out for two weeks. We who are involved with our children pulling rye, find the early hours that our children are waking up to rather hard to take. Then there are the baseball practices and games. A five-day wait for the swim pool to open up. This all spells summer and its great!

Lucia and Jim Barrett, Alta Cutsforth and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cutsforth were in Corvallis this past weekend to attend Tom Cutsforth's graduation and commissioning in the U.S. Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scrivner, Portland, spent Memorial Day weekend with his mother, Mrs. Lee Scrivner. Also visiting Mrs. Lee Scrivner were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bennett, Bend, OR.

Mrs. Ruth McMurdo has sold her home and moved to Corvallis, OR, where she will be living in a retirement home there. Also her son Scott, who lives in Corvallis will be nearby. Ruth's address is 285 N. 35th Street, Corvallis, OR, 97330.

Ernie Ceresa has driven to California to attend his daughter's eighth grade graduation. Taking his place is Wil Phinney of the Hermiston Herald.

Also, Justine Weatherford will be helping me write this column, adding her interesting tidbits.

Do you remember receiving a ticket on the quilt displayed in the window of Lebusch Shoppe? The fourth drawing has been completed and the winning number was 356404. I wish it was mine, but alas...

South Court St. is having a temporary population boom. Two visiting daughters with their husbands and with three children each are there with across-the-street parents.

The Harold Becket's daughter Sharon and husband Albert Burkenbine with Michael 13, Michelle 11 and Tamara 6 drove from their home in Wilkesboro, NC. They arrived May 30 and will stay about a week longer. Sharon and Albert are both Heppner High graduates. She finished in 1954 and he is a member of the class of 1952.

Directly across from the Beckets, the Winn Crists are enjoying a visit with their daughter Sheryl Berry, her husband Ray and their children Jana 7, Jay 4 and D-Anne 3. The Berrys drove from their home in Colorado Springs, arriving last Saturday. Sheryl graduated from Heppner High in the class of 1962.

Last Sunday the Beckets had additional guests, Harold's brother Bill and wife Sally and Albert's brother Lloyd Burkenbine came from Portland for the day. The entire group enjoyed a picnic at Bull Prairie Lake.

Mabel Denny, Portland, has been having a good visit with Ella Smith and has enjoyed seeing many old friends in the county. The ladies have visited at the George Curran home. George and Mabel are cousins. They have also visited in Ione.

Ella and Mabel were part of the sizable group that attended the Farewell Potluck for the Edwin Cuttings at the United Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, June 1. Clifford Green, chairman of the administrative board of the church, presented Rev. Cutting with a Pot of Gold as a parting gift of appreciation. Mrs. Cutting was ill and unable to attend the festivities. The Cuttings will leave for their new assignment at Coquille early next week.

The Rene Toll—John Ledbetter wedding on Saturday afternoon in the Methodist Church featured a yellow and white color scheme. Rev. Cutting presided, assisted by organist Pauline Miller. A reception followed the ceremony.

Also seen in Corvallis over the weekend were Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Wolff and family who attended Shelley Margaret's graduation ceremonies at Oregon State University. Shelley received her degree in business administration.

Then there are those people who have two sons graduating from two different colleges. Beverly Gunderson and Lucille Massey attended Doug's graduating ceremonies at Blue Mountain Community College, Pendleton, where Doug received an associate degree in radio broadcasting.

Eddie was in Corvallis attending David's graduation ceremonies at Oregon State University. David received his degree in business administration. Tricia Prock and Jim Doherty, Portland, also were there to attend David's graduation.

Those attending from Ione to see their sons and daughters graduate were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs. Clint received his degree in Agriculture. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson watched as Cheri received her degree in home economics. Also Shawna Bergstrom received her degree in home economics. Shawna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom.

Mike Hedman received his degree in Agriculture. Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman.

Earl James received his degree in pharmacy. His parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pettyjohn watched the ceremony with pride.

Charles Acock, Boardman, received his degree in science. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Acock.

Morrow County parents and friends were well represented in Corvallis this last Sunday when they attended the graduating ceremonies of the above.

LEXINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Don Pointer were Corvallis visitors last weekend, where they attended their son, Charles graduation from Oregon State University. Charles received his degree in agriculture.

His sister, Louise, Seattle, also attended the graduation exercises.

On Saturday Maude Pointer was given a birthday party at her home in Corvallis. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Don Pointer, Mrs. Bud Batty, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pointer and Charlie and Louise.

Holly Rebekah presents check

Maureen Davis, Noble Grand of Holly Rebekah Lodge No. 139 was a recent visitor at Pioneer Memorial Hospital. She presented hospital administrator Ilene Wyman a check in the amount of $136 for the purchase of an automatic walker, given in memory of departed sisters.

Thursday, May 20, the lodge met in regular session and draped the charter in memory of its departed sister, June Field and initiated eight members into the Lodge. Following the initiation the following sisters were introduced to the members: Penny Hoffman, Robin Irwin, Linda Jones, Darlene Klinger, Norma Groce, Ann Chick, Millie Yocom and Denise Asher. Hilda Yocom was presented her PNG jewel and Faye Ruhl a 25-year jewel. Later Hilda presented her daughter Millie with a membership pin and Delpha Jones presented her daughter Linda with a Rebekah Pin.

Refreshments were served to the members later in the evening.

Tuesday the lodge held an election day dinner at the Lodge and the committee wishes to thank all friends and members for their help.

Delegates Hilda Yocom and Delpha Jones left Tuesday for an assembly in Eugene. They are happy to announce that a past Heppner resident, Oliver Cresswick, was installed as Grand Master Thursday evening replacing Jack Sumner who was also from Heppner.

Freda Majeske also a member of Holly Lodge was present for the weeks activities. Thursday, June 3, the group will leave Lexington at 7:30 a.m. for a chartered bus trip to the Old Fellows Home, Portland.

"People" Theme of E.S.A.

Faye Wilson, Heppner, chose a "people" theme as newly installed president of Alpha Theta, chapter of the E.S.A.

Ms. Wilson was installed at a beautiful candle light ceremony, presided over by Condon president Susan Snyder.

Behind a table decorated with red roses and red candles, Ms. Wilson gave her message and theme for the coming term. Her flower will be the rose, for it brings to mind the feeling of love.

Her color will be red and white and her theme, "People who need people are the luckiest people in the world."

Others installed were Sally Wilson, vice-president; Verba Brinda, treasurer; Ramona Marshall, secretary; Rosemary Parks, educational director.

The installation, held at the Elks Temple, followed a seafood dinner.

Since people are an important part of E.S.A., the educationals this year are entitled "People are People" and the socials are "People, Places, and Parties."

DUANE SISK—TERESA HUGHES

Matt Hughes and Joan Hughes, Heppner, announce the engagement of their daughter, Teresa to Duane Sisk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carba Sisk, Pendleton.

Miss Hughes is a graduate of Heppner High School and is presently employed at the Pendleton Grain Growers.

Sisk is a graduate of Pendleton High School and has attended Blue Mountain Community College. He is employed at the Purchase Ranches.

The couple will be married July 10, at the Episcopal Church, Pendleton. Friends and relatives are invited.

Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) has been moved to Hermiston.

The Heppner branch will be holding meetings with the Hermiston second ward. The move was made so that members in Heppner and surrounding areas would be able to participate in the complete program of the church.

Church moves

The Heppner branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of

JULIE KAY ZINTER

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Zinter Sr., Ione, announce the engagement of their daughter Julie Kay to Denman M. Bird Jr., son of Denman M. Bird Sr. and Mrs. Robert Godon, both of West Linn, OR.

Denman and Julie graduated from Oregon Institute of Technology, Klamath Falls, in 1975.

Denman is employed by Monroe Smith & Gray Engineering firm as a civil engineer in Beaverton, OR.

Julie is completing her internship in radiology technology in Everett, WA.

Wedding plans are set for Aug. 7 at St. Patrick's Church, Heppner.

ATTENTION

COME TO THE
HARDMAN REUNION
BICENTENNIAL

Class reunion for
Hardman High School
Graduates from 1917 thru 42

Sunday, June 20,
9 a.m. on
Opry House
Potluck

PLEASE ATTEND

ELKS PRE-SUMMER FLING

JUNE 12, 1976

CRAB FEED 6-8:30 p.m.

Ham Available

Two Kinds of Salad

$5.00 per person

MUSIC BY THE DEPOT II
9-2 a.m.

ELKS AND OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS ONLY

For Father's Day
Bulova Accutron®

Make it a real red letter day. Give him a Bulova Accutron date-and-day watch. Accurate to within a minute a month. And guaranteed to please.

Store Hours: 9 A.M. to 6 P.M.
177 MAIN ST., HEPPNER
PH. 676-9200

Fabric Shop

330 S. W. 11th Hermiston 97838

Sale Begins Thursday, June 10 thru Saturday June 19

Denim 1.98 yd.	White, White Poly double knit 2.88	Bicentennial Poly Knit 2.98 yd.
Elastic 15 c. yd.	Feed Sac Panel $1.89 ea.	Flannelette 98 c. yd.

Court Street Market

We process farm-killed animals

111 N. Court St.
Heppner Or. 676-9643

DEL-RINGING SPECIALS

Oregon Chief Slab Bacon $1.45 lb. Oregon Chief Old Fashion Franks 89¢ 1 1/2 lb. Cornish Game Hen $1.19 Cukes 2 for 49¢ Fresh Corn (on the cob) 3 for $1.00	Flav-R-Pak Lemonade 2 for 65¢ Flav-R-Pak Orange Juice 2 for 99¢ Del Monte Italian Style Green Beans 3oz 4 for $1.00 Strawberries 2 cups 89¢ Lg. Oranges 3 for $1.00
---	---

For DAD and GRANDAD

Arrow

ARROW BRIGADE
the contemporary print with the trim European fit

You're on view - and are making the absolute best of it. In a panorama print that really has it. It's newsy, very distinctive. In softly shaded easy-care knit, tapered, of course, for the fit. With 2-button adjustable cuffs. 'Cause it's made by Arrow, you've got it made in Brigade.

Gardner's MEN'S WEAR