

Morrow County cowboys, cowgirls Take All-Around rodeo hardware

Morrow County was well represented last weekend at the Morrow County Junior Rodeo, taking four of the five top all-around honors. Ron Parrish of Bend won the senior all-around cowboy award but after that the titles stayed in the county.

Janice Healy of Heppner and Dawn Peterson of Ione tied for senior girl all-around honors. Junior all-arounds went to Lexington's Jana Steagall and to her cousin, Rocky Steagall from Irrigon for the junior all-around cowboy.

Mary Healy, Heppner, won the Jody Rugg Memorial trophy, in which a girl must be entered in the cow riding event to win.

Almost 200 cowboys and cowgirls invaded the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Grounds this weekend for Saturday's on and off rain and Sunday's on and off sunshine.

The busy weekend saw the senior all-around cowboy take a first and third in senior divisions. Parrish was tied for first and second in the bareback riding with an impressive 61 total. He was tied in the rough action with Mitch Gregg, John Day.

Parrish was third in the saddle bronc also, taking on the tough work in the rodeo for persons, nine through 8. Bo McMillan of Milton-Freewater was first with 62 points, followed by Nolan Edwards of Echo with 58 and Parrish had 57.

Two Morrow County girls were knotted after Sunday's competition for senior all-around girl. Janice Healy was third in the steer dobbing and fourth in the barrel racing.

Miss Healy's 1.8 clocking in the dobbing was 4 off Allison Sherrell of Hermiston's 1.4 winning time and just off Lisa Snow of Echo at 1.6 for second.

Dawn Peterson won the senior girls breakaway roping with a 6.8 time, way ahead of Pat Robinson in second for Bend at 8.0.

A cousin duo, Jana and Rocky Steagall stole all the hardware in the junior division race for all-arounds.

Jana was first in the barrel racing with a 19.1 clocking, just ahead of Wade Bertsh, Stanfield and Maureen Healy, Heppner, tied for second at 19.2.

Miss Steagall also tied for second, third and fourth in the girl's calf riding with a 50 mark. She tied with Kim Pierson of Redmond and Kathleen Van Schoiack of Heppner. Sandi Adams of Hermiston won the event with a 55.

Rocky Steagall, an impressive cowboy in area rodeos, won the steer dobbing and the calf roping.

Steagall dobbed his steer in 1.6 seconds, a full .3 seconds faster than second place Lyn Akers of Prairie City in 2.4. In the calf riding, Steagall had a 58 mark, ahead of Don Knox, Bend at 55.

In the open daily team roping, Jack Talburt and Mike Vredenburg of Roseburg and Myrtle Creek, respectively were first in 14.5. Mary Healy and Shan Leonard, Heppner and Baker respectively, were second in 22.9.

Which end is up?

Stop the clock!

Bill Smith of Lexington and Joyce Young of Pasco won the two halves of beef raffled off through ticket sales for the rodeo. Proceeds from the tickets go to the Western States Rodeo Association. The Junior rodeo committee wishes to publicly thank all ticket buyers.

Ho now, ho now - Ho boy.
