

Around the pot belly stove

By Julie Nelson and Robin Baker

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Ernst this weekend were Mrs. Ernst's mother, Mrs. Foster of Summer Lake; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. McClellan of Salem, and sister, Elaine Condon with daughter Delysa.

The Ione Rainbow Girls Assembly No. 89 attended Grand Assembly in Corvallis. Arlene Cannon was the Grand Representative to Kansas. Tammy Tucker was the Grand Choir Representative. Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen chaperoned the girls. Arlene Cannon met her parents in Corvallis and the family took a holiday to the Oregon Coast. Miss Tucker returned to Ione with the Condon Girls Assembly.

Mrs. Keith Yates, Dayton, WA, was here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marv Peterson.

Visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Baker was their daughter Mrs. Randy Tachella and sons David and Drew, of Pendleton, OR.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helina, Seattle, were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen. The Helina's were here to attend the Susan Lindstrom wedding. Mrs. Helina is the sister of Mr. Roy W. Lindstrom.

Sharon (Crabtree) Gelinas, and Frau Michel of Fulda, Germany, visited in Ione after a 10-day vacation in Salem where they stayed with the Don Scheelar family. They also visited the E.L. Scheelar's in Portland and the Ron Crabtrees of Tacoma. After a visit in Bellvue, WA, with the Larry Scheelar family they returned to the Oregon Coast and toured Astoria. Completing their stay in Ione Frau Michel left for her home in Germany after a pleasant and interesting first visit to the United States.

Mr. Rick Kandle of Ione spent his vacation with a trip to Montana and Yellowstone National Park. Mr. Kandle has returned home with a beautiful collection of slides of his holiday. Mr. Kandle also spent time photographing Grand Tetons National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Crabtree of Tacoma visited Ione Friday. Sunday the Leo Crabtree's and granddaughter Alisa and the Ron Crabtree's motored to Sandy, OR, where they had a visit with the Stan McGills, formerly of Cecil, OR.

Debra Palmer has returned home from Corvallis after spending a busy and enjoyable week at Girls State.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer drove her down to Corvallis and remained for the Friday evenings opening ceremony. They viewed the vespar which was held inside and the closing candlelight ceremony outside. Debra was elected city reporter of Barzee City and was also secretary to the West

County Senator. She and others published the daily state press newspaper. Being secretary she attended and took notes at the House Sessions and meetings. In order to obtain these positions a three-minute speech on "Why I want the job" was given in front of 270 girls in attendance.

She wishes every girl could attend girls state and she gives the American Legion Auxiliary a big Thank you!

The Ione Varisty Cheerleaders have left for the D.C.A. cheerleading school at the University of Portland. They are Debra Palmer, Carol McElligott, Kim Cofenas and Natalie Tews. The girls will return home July 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin were visited recently by granddaughter Melene Martin. Their son Melvin and grandson Mark were here to help with the farm work. Sunday the Martin family returned to their home in Moses Lake, WA.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doherty attended the American Legion Convention last week in Seaside. During the business meeting the Ione unit was presented two awards. The first award was presented to Ione for being the first unit in the state to reach its membership goal. The second award was for Ione reaching its goal before the Nov. 11 goal date.

Joan, Rick, Margaret and Donny Doherty spent last week in Albany with Bev Doherty's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vearrier. The week consisted of a trip to the Enchanted Forest, different dining cuisines, and a drive to the airport where they greeted their grandparents who had just returned from a trip to Scotland.

Mrs. Fred Nelson Jr. broke her ankle while fishing at Bull Prairie over the weekend. First aid was used and her husband Fred was assisted by Simon Winter of Lexington and Ed Johnson of Butter Creek. Mrs. Nelson required surgery on Monday at Pendleton Community Hospital and will be in a cast for three months.

The Ione Ponytail Softball team had their end of the season Pool Party and barbecue at the Ione school grounds Monday night. Invited were the four Ponytail Softball teams from Heppner.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Nelson

Maness-Nelson wed

The Ione United Church of Christ, Ione, was the setting for the June 19 wedding of Ann Lisa Maness and Charles Alfred Nelson.

The bride is the daughter of Chaplain (LCT) and Mrs. Charles M. Maness, Jr., Redstone Arsenal, Alabama.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, Ione.

Chaplain Maness, father of the bride, officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her mother.

The bride chose a white satin gown with a lace overlay and portrait neckline. Her chapel train was of lace and an illusion veil fell from her headpiece of white satin roses.

She carried her mother's white Bible with a single red rose with baby's breath and ribbon streamers. She wore a necklace of white gold and pearl surrounded with diamonds, a gift from the groom. Jan Maness was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a dress of blue French mystique with an empire waist. Lighting the candles was Kristin Nelson, sister of the groom.

Jim Swanson was best man. Ushering were Kerry Peterson and Chris Lovgren.

Wedding music was by Mrs. Paul Tews.

Mrs. C. M. Maness Jr., mother of the bride, wore a gown of cherry French mystique, fashioned with long sleeves and a portrait collar. The groom's mother, Mrs.

Norman Nelson wore a jacket dress of lavender and pink jersey. Both had white orchid corsages.

A reception was held in the church social rooms. Assisting with arrangements for the reception were Mrs. Vera Rietmann, Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mrs. Bob Rietmann, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Helen McCabe, Mrs. Ven Hubbard, Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mrs. Darrel Wilson.

Pouring coffee and punch at the reception were Mrs. H.W. McElhinny, Mrs. Bert Mason, Mrs. Kenneth Nelson and Mrs. Howard Slonecker.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Mrs. H.W. McElhinny, Mrs. Stuart McElhinny and Mrs. Bruce Rankin.

Mrs. Bruce Rankin and daughters Nancy and Julie attended the gift table. The bride chose a green and rust striped pants suit with a white orchid corsage for their wedding trip to Portland the coast.

The bride attended the University of Maryland, Munich, Germany and graduated in June 1976 from Athens State College, Athens, Alabama with a bachelor of science in education.

The groom attended Ione schools and graduated from Oregon State University. He spent two years in the service before returning to work on the ranch with his father.

The couple will reside at the Nelson ranch, north of Lexington.

Sara Marie Greenup won her father, Gregory Greenup a 6 pound, 14 ounce beef roast last week.

Little Sara, about 12 days old today, was born on Father's Day, June 20 and won a prize from the Beef for Father's Day Program.

Mildred Eubanks, Ione, was chairman of the program and will present the lucky father with the roast.

Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Greenup, Heppner, Sara Marie was greeted into the world by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. Don Greenup, all of Heppner.

Great grandparents are Mrs. Margaret Healy and Mrs. Peggy Moyer, both Heppner and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gentry, Pendleton.

Evans-Bergstrom vows

Flower girl was Kimberly Kroll, Paterson, WA.

Best man was Kenny Eckman, Heppner friend of the groom. Groomsman were Hal and Bruce Bergstrom, brothers of the groom; Wayne and Monte Evans, brothers of the bride, and Kyle Robinson.

Sandy Matheny sang "The 12th of Never" and "Wedding Prayer", accompanied by Ann Lorenzen at the organ.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Heppner Elks Lodge. Assisting were Carlene West, Beverly Wright, Janice Cutsforth and Pauline Matheny.

Pouring at the reception were Janice Spaulding, Kathy Gilbert, Lori Anderson and Jennifer Raymond.

The five-tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. Ron Haguewood. Serving the cake were Judy Bennett and Kristi Haguewood.

Attending the gift table were Jan Bergstrom and Robyn Riddle. Jan Terjeson and Sally Matheny were in charge of the guest book.

Following a wedding trip to Canada the couple will make their home in Hermiston where the groom is employed by Sandpiper Land Co.

The bride and groom both graduated from Heppner High School. The bride attended Eastern Oregon State College and Blue Mountain Community College, and was a princess on the 1975 Pendleton Round-Up Court.
