Former owner buys new car

Gene and Fay Ferguson came to Heppner from their Hermiston home this week to buy another new Chevrolet. Gene, a former Morrow County Commissioner, reminded us that the Chevrolet Garage building on South Main Street was completed 50 years ago, on July 1, 1926. Heppner has had a continuous Chevrolet dealership over 50 years. It is understood that anything over 50 years old is rated an antique.

Gene and his dad O.T. Ferguson began the dealership here in 1925. Gene's brother Ray joined it later. Royce Fulleton purchased the business in 1952 from Charlie Hodge who had operated it several years. Gene and Ray both still have ranch property in the county east of Lexington.

Royce Fulleton came to Oregon from Nebraska in 1945. At Vale, OR, he operated a Chevrolet dealership from 1948 until 1952 when he moved to Heppner. Therefore, Royce has been a Chevrolet dealer for 29 years—but it is well known that he and his family still love horses.

No burning

The no burning ban is in effect.

Until further notice, there shall be NO burning of any kind except in approved incinerators. This does not include burning barrels.

Violators will be subject to $50 minimum fines, according to Forrest Burkenbine, Fire Chief.

Gym to open July 7

The Heppner High School gymnasium will be open for use by high school and junior high school students each Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

The building will open on those nights from 7-9 p.m., beginning next Tuesday, July 6.

Weight machine facilities will be available for student use as well as sport activities such as basketball and volleyball.

Students are encouraged to use the gym facilities for conditioning. Participants are asked to furnish their own towels.
