

Party Line

BY JUSTINE WEATHERFORD AND DOROTHY ZITA

The Bill Weatherfords were pleased to learn of the birth of Anna Katrina Haberlach in Medford on July 8. Anna joins her brother Adam, 18 months, in the family of Bette and Bill Haberlach. Bill, Justine's son, is an assistant district attorney for Jackson County.

Anna's other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Barton Stevenson, Ahtanum, WA, and Frank W. Haberlach, Clackamas.

Inez Huffman has come home from Portland with Juanita Carmichael to visit and help Juanita during her recuperative period following recent open-heart surgery at St. Vincent Hospital.

Not to be overlooked is . . . starting your fruits and vegetables for the fair in August, also check your fair books for the entry rules . . . not to forget to have John Gochbauer to bake a Wheathearts Cake for the fair, I hear first prize might be his. Also, the CowBelles under the direction of their president Jean Bennett should be thanked for their good work at the dinners served during the 4th at the fair pavilion.

Local cafe society will soon find its prospects brighter. We observe that Jim Roger's new restaurant, "West of Willow", near completion.

Have you noticed the blue hills around Lena. From the Greenup Ranch east there are acres of blue lupine, more than there has ever been before.

Amanda Duvall was able to walk the new ramp at her church last Sunday as she went to and from morning worship service.

Irene Beamer Anhorn, daughter of the late Clara B. Gertson has moved home after 36 years of living in Central Point, OR. Irene was teaching school there, but chose Heppner for her retirement.

Claude Pettyjohn, San Diego, has been home visiting his parents, especially his mother who has not been well.

Former citizens ill

Garnet Barratt, former county judge, is seriously ill at Soaplake, WA. He suffered a heart attack as he returned there after the Memorial Day Pioneer Picnic here. Frank Hamlin reports that Garnet is not doing very well. Hazel Hamlin spent last week in Pendleton helping Helen Thompson who is back in her apartment there recovering from hip surgery. Helen was hospitalized in Portland and spent some time with her son and daughter-in-law, the Alec Thompsons before returning to Pendleton.

Hospital Notes

Patients at Pioneer Memorial Hospital this week are: Marvin Peterson, Ione; Frank Ayers, Melvina Harris and Leonard Devlin, all of Heppner.

Patients dismissed this week were: Beverly Lukinbeal, Lake Oswego; Kevin Peck, Lexington; John Griffith and Gib Griffith, both Spray; Mary Wright, Juanita Carmichael, Deborah Pettit and Ray Parker, all of Heppner.

Births

To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adelman, a daughter, Jenelle Kathryn, 7 lbs., 10 oz., born July 11. She joins a brother, Ryan at home.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adelman, Gervais, OR, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bielenberg, Scotts Mills, OR.

Picnic set Sunday

"Bring food—bring a comfortable lawn chair if you wish, bring something for your children to play with—and come meet new residents and enjoy old friends," say the Heppner United Methodists.

They always picnic the second or third Sunday in July in the park back of the County Courthouse. This year they are making their picnic an occasion when the community can meet the new Methodist pastor, Steve Tolleson and his family.

The picnickers will be gathering about 12:30 to 1:00 and will enjoy visiting and eating for an hour or two.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Weiper

Lindstrom - Weiper Wed

Susan Kay Lindstrom became the bride of Stanley Theodore Weiper in a four o'clock ceremony June 26 at the Ione United Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, Ione. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Weiper of Lower Lake, CA.

Officiating at the afternoon ceremony was the Rev. William B. Graham.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of candlelight ivory satin organza with high neckline, long full sleeves and cuffs, ending in a ruffle of Cluny lace. The close fitted bodice and full skirt were also trimmed with Venice and Cluny laces with deep lace-trimmed ruffled hem ending in a chapel train. She wore a picture hat trimmed in Venice lace with face veil, with a bouffant bow and elbow length veil of illusion.

The bridal bouquet was of ivory rosebuds, stephanotis, blue delphinium and baby's breath.

Maid of honor for her sister was Christina Lindstrom, Ione, and bridesmaids were Marcia Williams, Sacramento, CA; Susan DuPont, Canby and Trisha Halvorsen, Hermiston, all friends of the bride. They were attired in soft blue voile halter dresses with shawls and carried baskets of summer flowers.

Best man was Rodney Weiper, Lower Lake, CA, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Bill Cox, Redding, CA; Steve Ellis, Lower Lake, CA, and Bob Butler, Vacaville, CA.

Flower girls were Elsa Wolthausen, Lower Lake, CA, niece of the groom and Angela Halvorsen, Hermiston.

Stephen Lindstrom, Norfolk, VA, brother of the bride and Mary Storchak, Belmont, CA were the candle lighters.

Vocal selections were by Sandy Matheny, Portland, who accompanied herself on the guitar. The organist was Mrs. Paul Tews of Ione.

Mrs. Lindstrom chose a floor length gown of soft green pleated chiffon with beige accessories and Mrs. Weiper wore a floor length blue and beige knit dress with jack and beige accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

Honored guest at the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elmer Griffith.

A wedding reception, dance and buffet was held following the ceremony at the American Legion Hall, which was decorated with daisies, wild flowers and ferns. The cake table was covered with a white linen heirloom cloth trimmed with harbinging lace.

Those serving cake were Mrs. Otto Mortensen, Palm Springs, CA; Mrs. Frank Helina, Seattle, WA; Mrs. June Haugen, Lake Oswego, all aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Lance Hubener, Lake Oswego, cousin of the bride.

Those pouring were Mrs. George Griffith, Ione, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Garland Swanson, Heppner; Mrs. Charles O'Connor, Ione; Nancy and Karen Haugen, Lake Oswego, cousins of the bride and Melissa Davis, Haines, Susan Strong, Redmond and Jean Healy, Portland, friends of the bride.

Mrs. Reed Wolthausen, Sunnyvale, CA, sister of the groom and Mrs. Marvin Padberg, Ione tended the guest book.

Assisting with arrangements for the reception were Mrs. Garry Rullis, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Mrs. Earl McCabe, Mrs. Milton Morgan, Mrs. Darrel Wilson, Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mrs. Keith Rea. In charge of the buffet was Mrs. Arthur Lindstrom assisted by Mrs. George Griffith and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan. Teena and Paula Lindstrom helped about the rooms.

Music was provided by Gene Rietmann on the piano and Larry Graham on the drums.

For their wedding trip to Maui, Hawaii, the bride chose a mauve rose vested pant suit with an ivory rosebud corsage for her going away ensemble.

The bride attended Oregon State University and Eastern Oregon State College at La-Grande, where she graduated. She is presently employed as a flight attendant for Western Airlines based in San Francisco. The groom is also a graduate of Eastern Oregon State College and has done graduate work at Chico State University, Chico, CA. He is currently teaching and coaching at Kelseyville, CA, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Weiper were hosts for a rehearsal dinner and dance at Beecher's Cafe in Ione.
