Irrigon notes

Five generations attend reunion

Lola Breeding has returned to her home after spending a week with her mother, Cora Burnside in Spray. Mary Taffy of New Orleans, was also visiting her mother and her sister, Mrs. Breeding.

On July 17-18 there was a family reunion of the Burnside family held at Bull Prairie. There were 71 relatives who gathered for the occasion, many with campers and tents. Among those who came from a distance was Mrs. Breeding's cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steagall of North Illinois. Others came from Albany, Lebanon, Kinzua, Portland, Gresham, Heppner, Irrigon and Pendleton.

Mrs. Breeding, her daughter Mrs. Floyd Smith and granddaughter, Mrs. Loyd Humphrey, took Mrs. Taffy to Pendleton where she took a plane to return to her home in New Orleans.

Women of Assembly of God Churches from this area met at the Stanfield A of G on Thursday, 11 a.m. for a Women's Ministries for Christ Rally. Mrs. Edward Weyrick who will be going to Kenya, East Africa, with her husband and two children later this month, was the guest speaker.

A salad luncheon was served at the Stanfield Grange Hall. After the luncheon Mrs. Anita Klemm, Oregon District President of Womens Ministries for Christ, of Salem showed colored slides of the home mission works in Alaska. She and her husband traveled north in May of this year. Margaret Thomas of Hermiston is the local W.M.C. representative who planned and announced the meeting.

Columbia View Fellowship, a newly formed church group, represented by Vernon Stewart, requested a conditional use permit in a farm residential zone for construction of a church building.

A hearing has been set on the matter at 7:30 p.m., Aug. 23 at the Irrigon City Hall on the highway at Ordinance Road.

72 relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith and the home of her mother, Mrs. Lola Breeding for a family reunion from Aug. 5-8. They came from many points of Washington and Oregon.

Five generations of the family gathered later in the week which included Cora Burnside 88, of Spray, her daughter Lola Breeding, her daughter Mrs. Floyd (Joan) Smith, her daughter Mrs. Loyd Humphrey and son Dean.
