The Morrow County Rodeo is Friday. The RCA shows run Saturday afternoon and evening and Sunday afternoon.

Free tickets

The Morrow County Fair Committee will give away free family night tickets at Wednesday night's Family Fun Night at the fair. One ticket will be given to the oldest man present. One ticket will be given to the oldest woman present. And two tickets will be given to the couple married the longest and two more to the youngest baby present.

Snack Shack help needed

The fun place to be during fair.

According to Birdine Tullis, county extension service, that place is the 4H Snack Shack. And she is still looking for volunteer labor at the snack shack. Call Birdine or see her at the fair.

Superintendents

mediate knitting skills and special awards go to the junior and senior champs in knitting skills.

In the 4-H style revue, Beta Omega of ESA, Boardman-Irrigon Study groups, Holly Rebekah Lodge and Pine City Study group offers awards to champs in clothing, knitting.

The 4-H foods contest is sponsored for special awards from the Heppner Gazette-Times and Morrow County CowBelles. Morrow County CowBelles also offers an award in leathercraft.

In FFA, special awards include champ steer trophy and trophy for best horned hereford female from C.W. Acock and Son; best polled hereford breeding or market animal from Oregon Pollettes; and Western State Angus Auxiliary to outstanding FFA Angus exhibitor.

Other FFA awards include ones from Morrow County Grain Growers, Don and Jean Bennet, Country Critters, Norden Stefanides, Peterson's Jewelers, and the Morrow County Farm Bureau.
