

Demonstrations will take place during the entire fair at the Morrow County fairgrounds next week.

To entertain and involve and educate visitors, the following demonstrations will take place.

TUESDAY

10:30-11:30 a.m.—Cake decoration by Marian McElligott
2:30-3 p.m.—Flower arranging
3:30 p.m.—Wheat grinding

WEDNESDAY

10 a.m.—Macrame by Ruth Ann Keithley
10 a.m.-noon-Quilting set up by Irene Swanson (anyone is welcome to try their hand at quilting.)
11:30-12:15—Bread making by the Wheat League
2 p.m.—Art showing and demonstration by Shirley McNary.

Demonstrations

each day

Several artists will have their paintings on sale at this time. Among those selling paintings will be McNary, Jan Bietel and Mary Nikander. Anyone with paintings they are interested in showing and selling are welcome to bring them to the show.

THURSDAY

10 a.m.—Repeat of quilting.
5:30-7:30 p.m.—Morrow County CowBelles beef cooking demonstration including samples.

Pat Hardy will demonstrate yarn dying and pinning all through the fair.

Anyone who has a talent they would like to demonstrate is urged to contact Liz Curtis, 676-9454.

