

Mother's gown worn in wedding here

Tricia Lynn Prock became the bride of David Martin Gunderson at an afternoon ceremony at All Saints Episcopal Church on August 7, 1976.

The Rev. Kenneth Miller officiated at the 1 p.m. service.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents wore her mother's wedding gown. The gown was fashioned of white lace, nylon tulle with a train of white lace. She wore a picture hat with a finger-tipped veil.

Tricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Prock, Heppner. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gunderson Jr., of Heppner.

Maid of Honor was Shanny Farley, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids were Tami Prock, sister of the bride; Marie Lane, Debbie Feller, cousin of the bride and Jana Dick, friend of the bride. The honor attendants were attired in yellow crepe empire-styled dresses with short bell sleeves. They carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies with peach baby's breath.

Flower girl was Anjie Halvorsen. John Kenny was the ring bearer.

Scott and Mark Healy, cousins of the bride were candlelighters.

Ron Sherman, friend of the groom was best man. Groomsmen were Doug Gunderson, brother of the groom; Terry Hughes, Mike and Jon Prock, brothers of the bride.

Patricia Prock, mother of the bride chose a mint green polyester crepe dress with matching jacket. Beverly Gunderson, mother of the groom chose an aqua print dress with matching accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Parish Hall of the church.

Pouring were Ferne Healy, Colleen Ployhar, Eileen Prock, Janice Cutsforth, Barbara Peterson and Gayle Feller, aunts of the bride.

Attending the gift table were Hilda Yocum, aunt of the groom; Mille Yocom, Joan Ployhar and Jan Peterson.

Sharon Heuberger was in charge of the guest book.

A brunch was served at the Elks Club following the reception. Serving were Nadine O'Brien, Joyce Ward, Marge Kenny and Lorraine Ball.

For their wedding trip to Portland, the bride wore an off-white pantsuit with brown accessories.

Following their wedding trip the couple will reside in Roseburg, OR. The groom is a teacher at Eastwood School and Mrs. Gunderson is employed as a receptionist for Dr. Michalek in Roseburg.

AAUW sets meeting

The Heppner Branch of the American Association of University Women has scheduled a special meeting for prospective members and local women interested in learning more about the organization. This will be held at the club president, Linda Johnson's, home on September 2, 7:30 p.m.

The Johnson home is located on Alfalfa Street next to the Hope Lutheran Church.

The central focus of this meeting will be to explain the AAUW program and goals, particularly those of the local group. A slide show has been put together by some of the members to illustrate some of the group's activities as well as some of the individual interests of the members.

Area women who are interested in learning more about the club are encouraged to call Mary Pat Lande, 676-9752 or Linda Johnson, 676-5069 or to sign up at the club's booth at the Morrow County Fair. College graduation is not a requirement for local membership.

Hughes-Sisk

Teresa Hughes became the bride of Duane Sisk, July 10 in a double-ring ceremony at the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer.

The bride is the daughter of Joan Hughes and Matt Hughes, Heppner. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carba Sisk, Pendleton.

The Rev. Dirk Rinehart officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony in which the bride's parents gave her away.

The bride wore a white floor length gown of organza trimmed, in lace with a daisy design. The dress featured a high mandarin collar and long sleeves with ruffled cuffs. Her finger tip veil fell from a band of matching peach inserts to match the colors of her attendant's dresses. She carried a bouquet of peach mums, green daisies and white carnations.

Matron of honor, Donna Hughes, Heppner, is the sister-in-law of the bride. Bridesmaids were Darla Cooper and Judy Eckman, Heppner; Mary Ann Proctor,

Ione girl in Who's Who

Carrie A. Haynes, Ione, has been selected for biographical publication in Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Ms. Haynes, a senior at Ione High School, will be honored in the tenth edition of the 1975-76 publication.

Who's Who, the leading and largest student award publication series in the nation, included biographical sketches and photographs of junior and senior class students who have demonstrated leadership in academics, athletics, extra-curricular activities and community service. Another decisive factor for the selection, is an annual poll of student attitudes and opinions on the major issues of the day.

Fewer than four per cent of all upperclassmen from the nation's 24,000 public, private and parochial schools are chosen each year to be featured in the edition.

Ms. Haynes is hoping to continue her education with a major in the arts, following her graduation from Ione next Spring.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Crum of Ione.

Open-house slated

The Reverend and Mrs. Steve Tollefson have invited members of the United Methodist congregation and friends to an open-house at the parsonage on Church St.

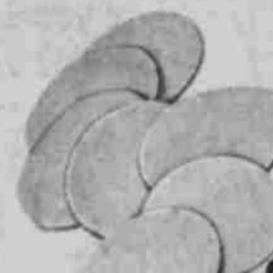

Last week the date was announced as August 29; however, because that date conflicted with the ceremonies planned at the Episcopal Church the afternoon of the 29th, the Tollefsons have changed their date to Sept. 12.

Hours for the viewing and social time are right after church, which will be returned to 11 a.m. to 12. The open-house will be from noon on.
