

County winners competing at state fair

Bright stars from the 4-H sector of the Morrow County Fair have moved down to Salem where they will twinkle. Two girls will model in the Style Revue in the auditorium of the new 4-H building on Thursday, Sept. 2; they are Debra Klaus, Heppner, and intermediate and Kate Evans, a rodeo princess from Irrigon. Several will present demonstrations: Jyl Hobbs will have repeated her intermediate luncheon demonstration yesterday and Jan Peterson, Ione did her blue-ribbon-winning demonstration on tying scarf on Aug. 31, the day that she also participated in the senior division pie baking contest. The outstanding demonstration at the county fair was by Erin Evans, Irrigon, who repeated that presentation entitled "Denim Blues" yesterday in Salem. Those whose work was sent on to Salem included, from clothing, Judi Ward, Denise Kennedy, Deann Connor, Tara Mahoney, Diann Morter, Becky Hobbs, Meri Evans, Sonja Biddle, Jyl Hobbs, Lori Wilt and Janet McElligott, Grace McElligott, Terry Mc-

Elligott, Debra Palmer, Natalie Tews, Joan Doherty and Anita Davidson. Knitting went from Denise Kennedy, Carol Holtz, Marie Van Scholack and Ann Van Scholack. Food exhibits that qualified were by Sharon Murray, Bonnie Murray, Tara Mahoney, Ann Lindsay, Elizabeth McElligott, Mari Evans, Julie Grieb, Gari Grieb, Michelle McElligott and Terry McElligott. Other special exhibits sent from here were: leathercraft by Wendy and by Sam Myers; a Home Environment project by Becky Hobbs; an educational display by Jan Peterson; Photography by Anita Davidson and a Vegetable Garden project by Becky Hobbs.

MORROW COUNTY GRAIN GROWERS

Serving the Agri-Business needs of Morrow County residents for over 45 years.

Morrow County Grain Growers Farm & Hardware Store with complete machine shop located at Lexington, Oregon.

MORROW COUNTY GRAIN GROWERS is proud of the role it has played in assisting area farmers in developing better yields through advance farming technology.

From the initial preparing of the ground to the harvest we are here to serve.

MORROW COUNTY GRAIN GROWERS offer:

- Complete Farm Supply Store
- Modern Machinery
- Fertilizer Plant
- Machine Repair Shop
- 9 Grain Elevators in 7 Locations

--- And best of all you do not have to be a member to enjoy the services or products offered.

MORROW COUNTY GRAIN GROWERS

Lexington, Oregon

"Serving all of Morrow County"

Phone 989-8221

