

Jehovah's Witnesses conclude assembly

Jehovah's Witnesses concluded their two-day circuit assembly this past weekend in the LaGrande High School with an enthusiastic crowd of 1,234 in attendance. This group heard District Supervisor, John Crispin discuss the subject "Keep Seeking God's Kingdom."

Crispin, after pointing out man's need for the solutions to many great problems, showed that the same God who has provided for many physical needs has the answer for our other needs in a real Kingdom government.

Society holds dinner for 100

Saturday night, Sept. 11, almost 100 persons attended the dinner and program at Ione High School that was put on by the Morrow County Historical Society.

The Carl Marquardt family from Lexington presented several vocal numbers. In the absence of the expected master of ceremonies, W.W. Weatherford welcomed guests and introduced Oscar Peterson, Delpha Jones and the Marquards.

principles of life as set forth in the Sermon on the Mount, from Matthew 5-7.

He discussed how this can be done in a practical manner so as to live peaceably with our neighbor and family and please God.

He showed the need for developing a spiritual outlook toward things so that we can trust in God's promises for relief and hope.
