

Exhibitors blast state competition

Morrow County exhibitors blasted their competitors last week in the wheat and potato divisions at the Oregon State Fair in Salem.

Along with a silver tray presented by Pendleton Grain Growers for the best county exhibit of commercial grain, Sabre Farms won the Oregon Potato Commission award for the best exhibit of spuds.

Wheat exhibitors from the county came out smelling like freshly cut grain, picking up 25 places, including three firsts by Harold "Shorty" Peck.

Peck picked up three firsts, three seconds, a third and a fourth to lead a group of 12 Morrow County exhibitor winners.

Following Peck, Art Crawford had one first place; Charles Doherty had one second place; Robert Harrison had one second and two thirds; George Luciani had one third, one fourth and one fifth; Elmer Palmer had one third; Oscar Peterson had one second and one fourth.

Roland Bergstrom had one third; Wilbur Worden had one second; Alvin McCabe had a fourth and one fifth; Bob Jepsen had one fourth and Norman Nelson had one fourth.

Along with Sabre Farm's first place, other potato winners included Merle Carlson, second and third; DBS Farms, first and second; and Paul Taylor, third.

Good News Club notes

Oregon Law No. 339.420 provides that children may be released, with their parents permission, to attend classes in religious instruction.

This year "Child Evangelism Fellowship", in cooperation with various churches will offer visualized Bible stories and songs to the elementary school children. Visual aids songs, puppets, flannelgraph stories and object lessons are used in presenting these classes.

The teachers and helpers from various churches in the area attend a weekly training class to prepare the Bible lessons. All materials are entirely interdenominational. All children will be encouraged to attend their own church activities.

Each child must have a permission slip signed by his parents and returned to his school. Permission slips are available at the Heppner Elementary School office.

In Heppner, classes will begin on Monday, Sept. 20 and the children will be released from 2:30-3:30 p.m. each Monday to attend these special Bible classes called "Good News Club." Like last year, the "Good News Club" will meet at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene, 335 N. Gilmore. For more information call Mrs. Geneva Blackburn, 676-5529.

It will be starting soon. For more information contact Mrs. Lou Crum, 422-7247.

Bible Corner

From ancient times the hearts of men have longed for peace—not merely for cessation of war but for peace of mind and heart and soul. In the early days of Israel the benediction was, "The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace." Numbers 6:26. Those who have traveled through Moslem lands, the lands of the Near and Middle East, tell of everywhere hearing the words, "Salaam aleikum"—"Peace be unto thee."

What did Jesus say about peace? To His disciples then and in all ages, He said, "Peace I leave with you." John 14+27. "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace." John 16+33. The peace that brings calm to the soul and, through each individual, to the world is found only in Christ, the Prince of peace. It can be found nowhere else. It is Jesus who brings an end to the discords of life. It is He who brings music to the feast of existence.

Do you have that peace? It is yours for the seeking—the "peace of God, which passeth all understanding," which keeps our "hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4+7). That peace is a promise and a foretast of the peace that will reign over all the earth when "the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever." Revelation 11+15.
