

Methodist ladies, May 1939, at the home of Mary Jane Walker Hughes. Front row, Mrs. Hughes, "Aunt Beck" Patterson, Mrs. N.D. Bailey (Mary Bailey is still very active here); back row, Emma Hager, Mrs. L.W. Briggs, Florence Hughes Paul.

Methodist's to celebrate 100th

The Heppner United Methodist Church will officially celebrate its 100 years of activity in this community the weekend of Oct. 16 and 17. Oregon-Idaho Conference Bishop, Jack M. Tuell, and Mrs. Tuell, Portland, will join former pastors and congregational families in several events.

A Saturday evening dinner at 6:30 p.m. on the 16th in the church diningroom will be supervised by Alma Green. Barbara James will assist with decorations and Faye Pierce will assemble a program. During the evening an exhibit of historical items will be on display. Bishop Tuell who has just returned from Ireland has been asked to describe conditions there.

On Sunday Pastor Steve Tollefson will arrange the worship program and will take part as host pastor. Bishop Tuell will present the Centennial Sermon. Past clergy and clergy who call the Heppner Church their home church will be introduced.

After the Centennial Worship Service a coffee hour and visiting time is being planned by Vern Batty and Beth Bryant. This will afford further time to visit with the Tuells. Persons who were unable to view the historic exhibit the night before may see it then.

Anyone who has things of interest from the past years of this church is asked to contact members of the centennial committee very soon about putting them on exhibit. Members of the committee are Justine Weatherford, Ida Farra, Elsie Leathers and Pastor Tollefson.

Women's Fellowship (United Church of Christ) will have its first Fall meeting at the home of Vera Rietmann at 2 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 23.

Edith Nicholson's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Newell of San Francisco were here for almost a week. Edith's arm is in a splint supported by a sling and is getting better.

Approximately two weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ellis, Ida Grabill and Helen Keithley (of Heppner) went with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bristow to visit Gene Grabill in Sumpter. They motored to Baker to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright also. Gene is a brother to Hazel Ellis and Mary Bristow. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shultz and family from Arlington were here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ellis. This past Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley spent the day with Elmer and Hazel Ellis.

Vida Heliker, who recently moved to Seattle, fell and broke her hip last week and is in the hospital. She would enjoy hearing from friends and the address is: Valley General Hospital, Room 341, 400 South 43rd, Renton, WA, 98055.

Christina Lindstrom of Tacoma and Mrs. Dan Weiper of Clearlake, CA, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, were here from Wednesday through Sunday for the Pendleton Round-Up activities. Mrs. Weiper had a part in the Happy Canyon Pageant. Also here for the Round-Up over the weekend was Mrs. Landstrom's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Hubener of Lake Oswego.

There will be a benefit for Trevor McCain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCain and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn on Sunday, Sept. 26 at 10 a.m. There will be roping and barrel racing at the Gilliam County Fairgrounds in Condon.

The Cardinal Club held its first meeting for the 1976-77 school year on the evening of Sept. 16.

The Social and Ways and Means committees were appointed, room mothers introduced and three directors elected who are Maryann McElligott, Dianna Kinkaid and Eunice McElligott.

Mr. Chuck Starr was introduced who in turn introduced the lone staff. Mrs. David Cheney was in charge of the program. She sang two songs and Mr. Williams read selections from Rudyard Kipling. Cathy Cheney played "Give Me Your Tired and Your Poor" on her flute with her mother joining in.

To close the program everyone joined in singing "God Bless America." The next meeting will be the second Thursday of October.

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Tuesday with President Rose Baker presiding over the afternoon meeting. Other officers for the following year are Bev Doherty, vice president; Maryann McElligott, secretary and Dode Krebs, treasurer. Plans for the Election Day dinner were discussed and various bills paid. The auxiliary meets the first Tuesday of each month at the Legion Hall and anyone wishing to join may come.

Sharon Gelinas and children Tim and Alissa of Caldwell, ID, arrived last Thursday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree and attend the Round-Up. They returned home Sunday. Also at the Crabtree home were Mrs. Crabtree's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scheelar of Portland. They were here Friday and Saturday to take in the Round-Up activities.

Relatives of Vera Rietmann were here visiting for a few days. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Newton of Vancouver, WA, Mrs. Frieda Koski and

Religious instruction offered here

Religious instruction is available to young people of the parish and their neighbors not affiliated with a church in Heppner. Released time instruction takes place each Monday at 2:30 p.m. Adult instruction classes are held each Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

There will be an Open House at the Episcopal Rectory on Sunday, October 3, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the afternoon. Members and friends of the parish are invited to visit with the rectory family at 340 S. Green St.

Regular Sunday morning worship will be held at 10:30 a.m. on the 18th Sunday after Pentecost. The morning sermon will be taken from the propers of the day and entitled "The Time of Your Life." All people of the community are welcome to worship at All Saints', hoping to be a House of Prayer for all peoples.

The acolytes of the parish who serve at the altar each Sunday are asked to come to a training session and supper next Sunday at 5:30 p.m. Interested members of the parish family and the community are welcome.

Auction slated

The Arlington United Methodist Church will be sponsoring their annual auction and barbecue on Saturday, September 25. The auction will begin at 9:30 a.m., with many interesting items up for bid. There will be a grandfather clock, an antique Tippenee Planitium, a hand-quilted coverlet and afghans.

The barbecue, being headed by Ron and Gloria Davis, will begin at 11:30 a.m. The meat is being spit cooked with other delicious foods being served with it.

Pastor's Bible Corner

A great prairie fire, driven by a strong wind, swept relentlessly toward a farmer's homestead. The man quickly hitched his horses to the plow and made several furrows in the form of a large circle around his home. Then he set fire to the dry grass within the circle and burned it clean. The roaring, terrifying demons of the prairie, giant tongues of leaping flames, charged down upon that home.

But when it struck the furrows and the ground already burned over, it swirled round the circle and went on its devastating way. The farmer and his family, his house and barns, his machinery and stock, were saved.

The fires of God's wrath against sin burned over Calvary, where you and I may gather around the cross of Jesus, safe from the fires of destruction. Begin your march to heaven at the cross of Calvary. Keep close to the cross and to its Christ all the way you journey.

Lloyd W. Perrin,
Pastor

Around the Pot

Julie Nelson Belly Stove

Vida Heliker, who recently moved to Seattle, fell and broke her hip last week and is in the hospital. She would enjoy hearing from friends and the address is: Valley General Hospital, Room 341, 400 South 43rd, Renton, WA, 98055.

Christina Lindstrom of Tacoma and Mrs. Dan Weiper of Clearlake, CA, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, were here from Wednesday through Sunday for the Pendleton Round-Up activities. Mrs. Weiper had a part in the Happy Canyon Pageant. Also here for the Round-Up over the weekend was Mrs. Landstrom's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lance Hubener of Lake Oswego.

There will be a benefit for Trevor McCain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCain and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn on Sunday, Sept. 26 at 10 a.m. There will be roping and barrel racing at the Gilliam County Fairgrounds in Condon.

The Cardinal Club held its first meeting for the 1976-77 school year on the evening of Sept. 16.

The Social and Ways and Means committees were appointed, room mothers introduced and three directors elected who are Maryann McElligott, Dianna Kinkaid and Eunice McElligott.

Mr. Chuck Starr was introduced who in turn introduced the lone staff.

Mrs. David Cheney was in charge of the program. She sang two songs and Mr. Williams read selections from Rudyard Kipling. Cathy Cheney played "Give Me Your Tired and Your Poor" on her flute with her mother joining in.

To close the program everyone joined in singing "God Bless America." The next meeting will be the second Thursday of October.

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Tuesday with President Rose Baker presiding over the afternoon meeting. Other officers for the following year are Bev Doherty, vice president; Maryann McElligott, secretary and Dode Krebs, treasurer. Plans for the Election Day dinner were discussed and various bills paid. The auxiliary meets the first Tuesday of each month at the Legion Hall and anyone wishing to join may come.

Sharon Gelinas and children Tim and Alissa of Caldwell, ID, arrived last Thursday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree and attend the Round-Up. They returned home Sunday. Also at the Crabtree home were Mrs. Crabtree's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scheelar of Portland. They were here Friday and Saturday to take in the Round-Up activities.

Relatives of Vera Rietmann were here visiting for a few days. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Newton of Vancouver, WA, Mrs. Frieda Koski and

Beckets plan special day

This Saturday will be a very special day for the Becket family. There is an old saying that goes something like this, "events run a series of three."

On Saturday, Sept. 25, from 1-5 p.m., there will be a baby shower for the new son of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Becket. Ron and Dianna drove to Eugene to bring Anthony Laurence home. Anthony is one month old and his personality fits in with the family. Ron's first words for his new son was, "tremendous, he's just tremendous."

On this same day, at the same place, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Becket will be celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary. The anniversary couple request no gifts.

Then there is Molly, who has decided to leave our fair city for Twin Falls, ID at the end of this month.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend the baby shower, the 30th anniversary party and to wish Molly happiness this Saturday, Sept. 25 between the hours of 1-5 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Becket.

We are happy to Welcome Barbara McCarl to our staff of professional beauticians. Barbara has just finished her course in the latest hair styling at the Pendleton College of Beauty. She will be working everyday starting Sept. 27.

CALL FOR THE OPERATOR OF YOUR CHOICE

Barbara, Carol, Linda or Lois

LOIS' BEAUTY SHOP
Heppner 676-9603

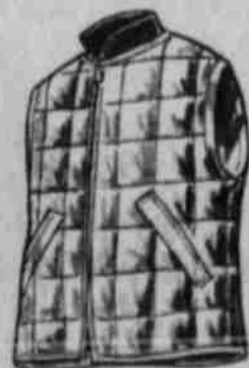

HARDMAN DANCE
WESTERN MUSIC
by the
BOOTLEGGERS

Sat. Sept. 25 9 pm till??
$2.00 per person

Gardner's

DOWN JACKETS

DOWN VESTS

SWEATERS

HATS

THERMAL HOODED SWEATSHIRTS

WARM WOOL BOOT SOCKS

PENDLETON SHIRTS

Gardner's Mens Wear

Heppner, Oregon 676-9218

Outfits For The Hunters

CUSTOM BUTCHERING

Prices effective Fri. Sat. Sept. 24, 25

Oregon Chief Smoked Picnics 83¢ lb.

Beef Chuck Roasts 89¢ lb.

Hills Jumbo Bologna 79¢ lb.

Fresh Apples

Red delicious Apples 3 lbs. $1.00

Green Peppers 10¢ ea.

Grapes 39¢ lb.

Oranges 5 lb. bag 79¢

Flav-R-Pac Orange Juice 12 oz. 2/89¢

Blue Bell Potatoe Chips 3 bag box 69¢

Court Street Market

We process farm-killed animals
111 N. Court St.
Heppner Or. 676-9643