Party Line: Women's tour

Dorothy Zita Justine Weatherford

This last Friday a bus load of women and a few men took a tour of Boardman. After the tour was over and I had a few days to think over some of the sights I'd seen, and to sort out the facts that were given to me. It is for sure, Boardman and Irrigon will stay one of the fastest growing areas in the nation. If there is to be a future for those who do not give up the eastern Oregon way of life. Go to the north end of the county.

Mrs. Jeannie Hansen is receiving medical treatments in Portland. She is able to be home on the weekends.

This weekend will be a busy one with the deer season starting on Saturday. The Hunters Breakfast will be served from dusk till 7 beginning Friday evening at the Old Ford Bldg. A bake sale on Saturday in front of Murray's Drug Store. The Historical Society is holding its annual meeting Sunday at the Lexington Grange Hall.

Lots of money changed hands at yard sales and the Arlington Auction last weekend. Martha King and several friends offered a big assortment of bargains in Martha's yard last Saturday. Some lucky buyers got nice, antique furniture... old chests and interesting tables.

Marcia Lovgren is home from her work in London, England. She will be here with her parents Marshall and Edda Mae several more weeks. Edda Mae is recovering from several sessions in the hospital in Pendleton. Mark will come from Corvallis to visit with his parents and sister and to go hunting this weekend.

Generous Eleanor and Ed Gonty let friends have apricots off the trees near their home last month; this month they are making folks happy with peachy gifts.

Bible corner

"I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir." Isa. 13:12

Of far greater value than all the gold of Ophir, with which Solomon overlaid the sanctuary in Jerusalem, is the human soul.

The poet Longfellow could take a worthless sheet of paper and by writing a poem on it make it worth $6,000. That is genius. A Rockefeller can sign his name to a piece of paper and make it worth millions. That is capital. Uncle Sam can take silver, stamp a symbol on it, and make it worth one dollar. That is money. An artist can take a two-dollar piece of canvas, paint on it, and make it worth $100,000. That is art. But God can take men and women, wash them in the blood of Christ, capture their hearts and minds, put His spirit and mind within them, transform them, make them like unto Himself. THAT IS REDEMPTION.

At Calvary we witness the highest price paid for anything—the blood of the Son of God, the ransom paid for our redemption. With God we far outweigh in value the sum total of everything that is in or on this earth.

Lisa Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Martin, has been installed as Rainbow Worthy Advisor. It was a Sunday afternoon installation with a very nice reception following.

Lewis Halvorsen and his brother Henry from Medford helped the Elgin Masonic Lodge celebrate their 100th Anniversary on a Sunday two weeks ago. Meanwhile Dot and Henry's wife Margaret went to Pendleton to visit with Margaret's brother, Leonard Cargill, and her sister, Lisa Harr.

Donna Rea and her sister Darcy traveled to Portland to visit their father over the weekend. Darcy returned home by bus and Donna has remained to attend Clackamas Community College.

Baby Shower

Jason Garth, one month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Proudfoot, had his first party on the evening of September 22. A baby shower was given in honor of him and held in the fellowship room of the United Church of Christ. He received many nice gifts with a swing being from the four hostesses.

A yellow sheet cake with white frosting, outlined in blue and topped by a blue baby cradle was baked and decorated by Mrs. Frank Osmin. Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom cut and served the cake with Mrs. John Proudfoot, grandmother to Jason, pouring coffee and tea and Mrs. Eric Anderson pouring the punch.

Hostesses were Marnie Anderson, Cathi Peterson, June Lindstrom and Katherine Lindstrom.
