FFA sets auction

A total of 55 Heppner High School Future Farmers of America will be up for auction October 14 in the beginning of the club's first annual FFA Slave Auction. According to Doug Anso-teguy, chairman and Hal Whitaker, advisor for the HHS group, the auction will include 44 boys and 11 girls. Bidders will pay the FFA for one full day, eight hours, of work from the student they purchase. This work can be of any sort from washing windows to bucking bales. Funds raised by the auction will be used by the chapter for activities such as state and national conventions, banquets, state fairs and judging contests.

Escape injury

Three Boardman men escaped serious injury Monday night in a one car roll over accident on the Bombing Range road. Donald Delbert Kandle, 22, driver of the 1969 Triumph Roadster, and passengers Michael James Lesich, 22, and Scott Edward Connor, 20, escaped with cuts and bruises. According to Oregon State Police, the car was north bound on the Bombing Range road about two and a half miles south of I80N. Kandle apparently lost control and the car went into a skid, then rolled over and came to rest on its top. All three were transported to Good Shepherd Hospital by an unknown motorist. The three were treated for cuts and bruises. Kandle was cited for careless driving.

Suicide

David Lee Cox, 22, Heppner, was the victim of apparent suicide early Saturday morning at his residence at Thorpe Apartments. Cox, a native of Heppner, shot himself with a 30.06 rifle, according to Morrow County District Attorney Dennis Doherty who said he was "absolutely satisfied that it was a suicide."
