

Schedule set for Swine Flu shots

Pat Wright, Morrow County Health nurse, was prodded to term the Swine Flu vaccination a "first come, first serve" program this week when less than half the expected doses arrived.

But, Ms. Wright said, the vaccination clinics and schedules will go on in hopes that more vaccine will be delivered.

An expected 2,000 doses of mono-valent A-Swine strain turned out to be half that amount. And, the bi-valent vaccine, for A-New Jersey and A-Victoria, for "high risk" people over 65, which was supposed to number 1,000, ended up at only 200 doses.

Ms. Wright said another 100 doses of the bi-valent vaccine a week is expected to be delivered.

"Everyone should get the vaccine," Ms. Wright maintained.

She also said a minor reaction could occur.

The reaction, she said, should occur within 24 or 48 hours and will be represented by a slight temperature that could reach 100 degrees. "It will be nothing like the flu," she said, adding that a sore arm may accompany the temperature.

The Health Department has received clearance for vaccinations of children, ages three to 18, that are chronically ill. This will be on doctor's recommendations. Ms. Wright has 50 doses of this special split virus vaccine that she says, should take care of the county.

Vaccinations started Tuesday afternoon at Pioneer Memorial Hospital for nursing home patients and the hospital staff.

A tentative schedule has been compiled. It is subject to change because of the shortage of vaccine.

Date	Location	Time	Town
Thurs., Oct. 7	School Admin. Bldg.	10-3 p.m.	Lexington
Fri., Oct. 8	Riverside School	10-3 p.m.	Boardman
Tues., Oct. 12	Neighborhood Center	9-3 p.m.	Heppner
Fri., Oct. 15	Kinzua Conference Rm. (For Kinzua employees and families)	2-6 p.m.	Heppner
Mon., Oct. 18	Irrigon Baptist Church	10-3 p.m.	Irrigon
Thurs., Oct. 21	First National Bank (Conference Room)	10-3 p.m.	Heppner
Tue., Oct. 26	Tentative for Boardman area
Fri., Oct. 29	School Admin. Bldg.	6-9 p.m.	Lexington

CWA meeting

The CWA of the Willows Grange will meet at the home of Mrs. Berl Akers on October 15. The members are asked to bring a salad or dessert for the noon luncheon.

Workshop slated

A landscaping workshop will be presented on October 13 at 1:30 p.m. at the Willows Grange Hall in Ione, sponsored by the Ione Garden Club in cooperation with the Morrow County Extension Service.

Another workshop will be held in Irrigon at the A.C. Houghton School at 7:30 p.m. the same day. Babysitting will be provided at Ione.

Mr. Wilbur Burkhart, Horticulture Specialist, will be the speaker. He will present information and help us with such things as restoring old or over-grown yards, some modern landscaping ideas and materials, plants and trees for the soil and climate of eastern Oregon and other topics of interest to local home owners and gardeners.

Mr. Burkhart is well known around Oregon for his expertise in the field of horticulture and landscaping. Besides acting as home horticulture agent for Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington Counties since 1968, he writes for 60 publishers on horticultural subjects and has appeared on TV and radio in programs relating to his field.

Everyone is welcome to attend the workshops and it is hoped that a large crowd will take advantage of this opportunity to have some of their questions on landscaping answered by an expert.

Benefit success

The benefit dance Saturday evening and the benefit rodeo Sunday for Trevor McCoin were a huge success both in participation and financial.

The rodeo attracted 125 cowboys and 40 cowgirls who paid entry fees for the privilege of helping two and a half-year-old Trevor, who spent five weeks in the hospital after a riding lawn mower accident. Many of the rodeo participants turned their winnings over to Trevor's fund and a number of organizations and businesses sent donations.

Stock for the rodeo was provided by John Rattray and Howard Johnson, Condon; Pat Davis, Adams; Charlie Brown, Rufus; Tom Norton, Madras; Joe Sharp and Bill West, Olex; and Ross Avery, Redmond. Jake Grossmiller, Arlington, donated his time as announcer and the sound system was provided by Harry's TV and Radio Service, The Dalles.

Meat for the food booth was donated by the Round Up Cafe and Lounge and the Rock Creek Community Club donated baked goods for the booth. The Gamma Upsilon members manned the booth all day.

More than 100 persons attended the dance held Saturday night at the fairgrounds, for which Charlie Lavinder and his "Country Revue" donated their services.

Ministers and laymen in Condon for the Central Pacific Conference of the United Church of Christ made a free will offering on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill West and Mr. and Mrs. Greg Brooks were responsible for spearheading the benefits to help McCoin and Mrs. Bill McCoin with some of their staggering hospital bills.

YOU SAVE

4

WAYS WITH

BIG PIERRE LUMBER YARDS

RICHLAND
PASCO
KENNEWICK
HERMISTON

Do It Yourself and Home Improvement Center

BIG PIERRE LUMBER YARDS

PASCO HERMISTON
2300 W. Court Hermiston-McNary Hiway
547-7786 (503) 567-2550

RICHLAND KENNEWICK
By-Pass Highway 209 N. Washington
943-9181 586-9161

Workmate Work Bench $69.95 Reg. 89.95

Electric Heater $27.87

5 FOOT $15.88 Reg. $24.95 SAVE $9.07

16 FOOT $24.88 Reg. $29.95 Save $15.07

20 FOOT $34.88 Reg. $51.95 Save $17.07

24 FOOT $44.88 Reg. $66.45 Save $21.07