

Lisa Martin installed Ione Worthy Advisor

On Sunday afternoon, September 26th, Miss Lisa Martin was installed as Worthy Advisor of the Ione Assembly No. 89, Order of Rainbow for Girls. Installing officers were: Worthy Advisor, Christy Edmondson; Marshall, Cindi Doherty; Musician, Linda Prock; Recorder, Arlene Cannon; Chaplain, Rene Gutierrez.

Other officers installed were: WAA, Kim Pettyjohn; Charity, Barbara Devine; Hope, Tanna Hams; Faith, Darcy Rea; Recorder, Laurie Childers; Treasurer, Christy Edmondson; Chaplain, Janet Piper; Drill Leader, Margaret Kincaid; Love, Patty Devine; Religion, Tammy Howard; Immortality, Ginny Estes; Nature, Julie Baker; Fidelity, Kelly Pettyjohn; Patriotism, Lisa Meyers; Service, Lynn Dee Devine; Confidential Observer, Lori Prock; Outer Observer, Tammy Tucker; Choir Director, Arlene Cannon.

Lisa's colors are red, yellow, and brown and her flower is the yellow carnation. Her motto for her term is "Love is the lesson we learn" for the Rainbow lights to burn. She was crowned by her father, Jerry Martin.

Refreshments were served from a tea table which centered her cake of white and yellow bearing her name and flanked by red candles.

Serving at the tea table were Mrs. Dorothy Stefani, Helen McCabe, and Margaret Morgan. Mrs. Ione Martin was acting hostess, and Arleta Aldrich was in charge of the guest book and corsages.

Ione Assembly No. 89 traveled to Arlington Sunday, October 10, to visit with the Grand Worthy Advisor of the State of Oregon. Five other assemblies were present, and all Worthy Advisors and Mother Advisors sat in the East and took part in the meeting.

Those attending from Ione Assembly were Lisa Martin, Tanna Hams, Christie Edmondson, Margaret Kincaid, Lori Prock, Darcy Rea, Tammy Tucker, Dot Halverson, Linda Prock, and Diana Kincaid.

A wheat marketing workshop is scheduled for Tuesday, October 26, at 1:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge in Heppner.

The program will last for three hours with speakers being Dr. J.B. Wyckoff, Dr. Gene Nelson, Dr. Clint Reeder, all staff members of Oregon State University Ag Economics Departments.

The program will discuss many different aspects of grain marketing. Among the topics will be trends in wheat production, marketing and trade; how your attitudes about risk-taking influence marketing decisions; how to figure odds of getting a higher price; deciding when and how much wheat to sell or contract; recent changes in the wheat market relationships and implications for marketing and hedging; Grain marketing contracts;

Wheat Workshop

types, consideration, problem and risk; cost and benefits of grower transportation and storage alternatives; marketing weather damaged grains; the 1973 Agricultural Act-Policy alternatives and potential impacts.

Similar sessions will be held in Condon at 7 p.m. on October 26 at the courthouse, as well as in Wallowa, Union and Umatilla Counties on October 25 and Sherman and Wasco on October 18.

Historical Society

Next Wednesday, October 20, members of the Morrow County Historical Society are going to be at work in the area south of Heppner setting markers on old, unmarked graves. Anyone wanting to volunteer his help should contact Harold Becket.

At noon, the ladies of the society will serve dinner in the Rhea Creek Grange Hall for the work crew.

Marking graves is a Bicentennial project in many parts of the nation and state. Morrow County has quite a few unmarked graves from its pioneer days.

Heppner man promoted

John R. Hall, of Heppner, Oregon, has joined the staff of The Federal Land Bank of Spokane as Assistant Director of Research, according to A.W. Neel, President.

Hall, who joined the Land Bank System in 1975 as a Farm Credit Assistant, received farm appraisal and personal risk analysis training at the Federal Land Bank Association of Blackfoot, Idaho before moving to Spokane to assume the new position. As Assistant Director of Research, Hall will be responsible for compiling a variety of data used by the Federal Land Bank for management decision-making.

Reared on a wheat and cattle ranch near Heppner, Hall is a 1975 graduate of Oregon State University with a B.S. degree in Agricultural Engineering. Hall and his wife, Terry, will reside in the Spokane Valley. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hall, Heppner.

"THE NUCLEAR ENERGY BAN MEASURE WOULD WASTE NATURAL RESOURCES."

Everyone knows that the world's oil and gas resources are being rapidly depleted. No more acceptable hydroelectric sites are available. Solar and wind power are far in the future, yet to be proved. Means are not available to mine and deliver enough coal to satisfy power-generating needs. Coal, gas and oil must be conserved to meet other needs. Your NO vote will help assure conservation, eliminate waste.
