A salad buffet preceded three separate candlelight ceremonies on the evening of October 28th by Beta Omega Chapter of E.S.A. All members were present to witness Christy Crowell, Debbie Olsen and Lisa Nelson receive their pledge pins for membership. The Chapter's one year members, Judy Osmin and Marnie Anderson, received their jewel pins. Linda LaRue, E.S.A.'s State Parliamentarian, presented Beverly Doherty with a 20 year charm and gift for her years of service to Beta Omega.

The Jr. High Halloween party was held Friday evening, October 29th, at the cafeteria. It was given by the eighth grade in honor of the seventh grade. At the beginning of the evening, all present were escorted to the elementary building and through a very clever "spook house." Dancing and refreshments followed at the cafeteria. Jeff Hams and Lori Prock were chosen King and Queen of the event. Chaperones were: Mrs. Eunice McElligott, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Del LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reitmunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fetsch.

Sunday evening, shortly after dark, the streets were invaded by ghosts, witches, bunnies, and all kinds of costumes, as they went to neighbors and friends, knocking on doors and gathering their treats in paper or plastic bags, which were fairly full by the time to go home. Later in the evening, some of the bigger pranksters laid boards, garbage cans, etc., blocking main street near the Post Office, and laid a fallen tree across the street near the school house. All in all, this Halloween was much milder than have been some in the past.

Mrs. Maravene White had the misfortune to fall and break her collar bone last Saturday and is back in the Pioneer Memorial Hospital in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor returned home last week from a 10 day trip to California, where they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Onyon, at Culver City.

Mrs. Vera Reitmunn returned last week from a trip to Nevada. Mrs. Reitmunn and Mrs. Alice Peterson of the Dalles took the Odyssey Tour (Portland tour club for senior citizens). There were 44 people on the tour and they visited Carson City, Reno, Lake Tahoe, and Sparks. At Lake Tahoe, they saw Jim Nabors and the Smothers Brothers, and at Sparks, they enjoyed Liberate, and the Korean Children's Choir. Returning to Portland, Mrs. Reitmunn spent several days with Mrs. Mabel Denny before coming home.

John Marick, Gene Lancaster, and George Russell spent the weekend at Meacham hunting. There was a scarcity of men in town this past weekend as a good majority took off in search of an elk; however, at this writing, the elk seem to be more successful than the hunters. At least they are still in the mountains, instead of waiting to be cut and wrapped.

Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Millman and family spent the weekend at Burns visiting relatives.

Mrs. Dot Halverson came home from Portland Sunday to help with the Morrow County Grain Growers' dinner Monday evening at the Fair Bldg. in Heppner. She has been staying in Portland while Lewis has been recuperating from surgery he had recently at the Good Samaritan Hospital. He is still in the hospital and Dot will be going back to stay until he is able to come home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smoore and son, Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree attended the Maryhill Museum Celebration on Sunday afternoon. Following this, they then went to Goldendale, WA, where they attended the annual turkey dinner put on by

After Halloween, Election Day, Armistice Day and Charley's Aunt comes Thanksgiving with the Artifactory, Christmas and New Year's Day, all just a couple of days apart—what a busy time of the year! Some of us hope to find relief during January and February before spring gardening starts.

Speaking of Halloween, did you get in on the latest trick? Seems that some pranksters smeared part of the shops on Main Street and lots of car door handles with peanut butter. How come people can afford to spread high-priced peanut butter around outside? We hear that several young spooks bought shaving cream just to smear around, too. So maybe prosperity is back and some of us just haven't recognized it.

It was fun having the little people in their costumes and scary masks come ring our doorbell. Hope their big collections of goodies didn't bring tummy aches.

Wonder how that Halloween insurance deal worked out? The company officials will have a little of their interest quickened while they clean up for buyers.

That 5:30 to 11:30 bus tour didn't tire the Elmer Palmers like it did some of us. They eagerly took off the next day for Pendleton.

What was left upright in a big, though "not particularly good this year," vegetable garden was leveled and hauled to the dump by Harold Becket last weekend. A last generous gesture was to let a neighbor come gather the remnant of the ground cherry crop off the ground.

It was bumper to bumper with cars, vans, trailers and mobile homes coming from Portland last Thursday and Friday evening. The elk hunters were out in full force. Ernie McCabe has started working nights to keep up the meat department now that the elk hunters added to his work load. There is no real snow in the mountains as of this writing. Lots of rain. Maybe before this weekend, the snow will come. But the hunters are getting their elk.

Tom Hughes is teaching and coaching basketball at the Fossil High School. He was able to start his coaching early, as the football season ended early this year.

Talking to one voter, who was lamenting that her vote never seemed to count, as everyone she has ever voted for lost... Now, if the other side could count on that, we could do away with Maine predictions.

On business in Portland last week were Ed and Helen Schaffitz. Also in Portland were the Harvey Smiths.

The Goldendale Masonic Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson also attended the dinner; however, they went down to the Saturday evening Maryhill Museum Celebration.

The Ione High School football game between Ione and Dufur slated for Friday, November 5th, has been cancelled. Dufur has forfeited the game.

The American Legion will hold their usual observance of Veteran's Day with a program at the Memorial Field, November 11th, at 10:00 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at the American Legion Hall following the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wolford and family of Delta, UT, spent the weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Palmateer.

Coming Events: Nov. 4th Jr. High Volleyball, Umatilla here 2:30 p.m. Advisory Board meeting Library 7:30 p.m.

Nov. 9th Football Dinner, Masonic Hall 7:30 p.m. Kindergarten conferences—no school for them

Nov. 11th Veteran's Day no school

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson and son, Clint, were in Merrill and Klamath Falls over the weekend where they stayed at the home of Cheri Carlson.

Cheri is teaching Home Economics at Lost River High School, Merrill. Clint stayed with Bill Carlson, who is attending OIT College in Klamath Falls.

Saturday, they attended the Hank Snow-Pat Roberts concert that was sponsored by the OIT College Union Board. Bill Carlson headed the team of Union Board officers in arranging the ticket sales, advertising, and concert booking for the college.

Also attending the concert was Christy Hope, a freshman at Southern Oregon State College, Ashland, OR.

The Ione Topic Club met on October 27 at the home of Jean Nelson, with Martha Barak as the guest for the day. Loree Hubbard, club librarian, presented the financial report for

Engagement announced

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr., Pomeroy, WA, announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Mr. John Currin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currin, Pendleton. A spring wedding is planned.

Flu shots slated

Swine flu shots are still available and clinics have been slated for the month of November.

The November schedule is as follows: Wednesday, Nov. 10—5-7 p.m. at Heppner Degree of Honor Hall; Monday, Nov. 15—4-6 p.m. at Irrigon A.C. Houghton Elementary School; and Wednesday, Nov. 17—4-5 p.m. at Ione Church of Christ.

If a person is unable to attend any of these clinics, he can go to the Morrow County Health Department office in the School Administration Building in Lexington to get shots on the first three Fridays of November, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Birth

To Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lee Wilhelm, Heppner, a daughter, Tammy Jo, born October 16, weighing 4 lbs., 14 oz.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mars, Napavine, WA. Mr. and Mrs. James Wilhelm, Heppner. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Coffman, Milton, WA, and Mr. Vince Paddock, Sweet Home, OR.

Prairie City wedding

The Methodist Church in Prairie City was the scene of the marriage of Vonna Dee Wilson and James Dee Anderson on September 25. The young couple repeated their vows in a setting of orange and white gladiolus, white roses and baby's breath.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson of Kinzua. The groom is the son of the Wayne Andersons of Austin Junction.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown of white satin with lace sleeves and a lace overskirt. She carried a bouquet of white baby roses and orange carnations with sprigs of ivy and orange ribbons.

A friend of the bride, Barbara Hicks, made the bride's gown. Polly Horell, also a friend of the bride, made the dresses worn by bridesmaids.

Pam Gangler was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Candy Anderson, sister of the groom, and Barbara Hicks. Flower girl was Nika Wilson, and ring bearer was Vince Williams, both cousins of the bride.

The groom chose Don Howard, John Day, as his best man. Ushers were Mark Coombs and Mel Williams, uncle of the bride.

Pam Anderson, sister-in-law of the groom, was the vocal soloist. Playing the piano and organ was Bonnie Nance.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church. The bride's table featured a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake surrounded by a ring of orange and white carnations and ivy. The cake was made and decorated by Myrabel Crowley, the bride's aunt.

An afternoon luncheon was held to honor the bride and groom at the Austin Junction

Highway Department, home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson.

The new Mrs. Anderson is a 1975 graduate of Prairie City High School. The groom, a 1974 graduate of Prairie City High School, is in the Coast Guard stationed at Oxnard, CA.

After a short honeymoon trip at Wallowa Lake, the newlyweds left for their home at Oxnard in the groom's antique Chevrolet pickup.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harris, Mrs. Enola Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Williams and son Vince, all of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowley, LaGrande, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Curtis and family, Kinzua, Mr. and Mrs. John Volle, LaGrande, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, Juntura, Mrs. Barbara Nichols and children Tammy, Tim and Troy, and John Robertson, all of Ontario. Mrs. Don Gee, Snohomish, WA, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson of Kinzua.

Lindstrom representative

A former Ione man, Stephen R. Lindstrom, has been on the campaign trail this election year, working for the re-election of President Gerald R. Ford.

His assignment as field representative gave him responsibility for the Sixth and Seventh Congressional Districts of Virginia as he provided liaison between state headquarters of the National Committee and local units.

Lindstrom, a graduate of Eastern Oregon State College, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, Ione.

Garden Club

The November 8, Monday evening meeting of the Heppner Garden Club will be special. Mrs. Elaine Dallas, Pendleton, who is the President of the Blue Mountain District No. 10 of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, will be the club's guest. Mrs. Dallas will explain the structure of the Garden Clubs at the district, state, regional and national levels. She will report on the last Oregon Federation meeting that no one from Heppner was able to attend. She will explain some of the contests and projects that garden clubs in Oregon are carrying on this year. Club members are encouraged to bring interested guests to this meeting. The evening will begin with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the Bill Weatherford home on South Court Street.

Food Conference

The world food situation will be discussed at a conference in Pendleton on November 17, according to Harold Kerr, Morrow County Extension Agent.

The one day program will be held at the Elks Lodge in Pendleton beginning at 9 a.m. Reservations are needed for lunch.

The program will include four speakers from Oregon State University. They will discuss: What shapes our food policy; Understanding our food systems; and Facts about the future quality and quantity of our food.

Speakers for the program are Dr. Warren Kronstad, Agronomist; Carolyn Raab, Food Specialist; Dr. Jean Wyckoff, Extension Economist; and Velma Seat, Food Marketing Specialist.
